Community Club Meeting

On account of the Rose Festival and Shriners' week, the Community Club meeting has been adjourned from Friday evening of next week to Monday evening, June 28th. This meeting will be a departure from the ordinary in that it will be held in the Family Theater through the kindness of Manager Linn and after the business meeting a number of interesting moving pictures will be shown. There will be some films of famous Oregon scenery and others showing interesting manufacturing and industrial development. Full details will be given next week.

The Radcliffe Chataqua

The Chataqua this year is by far the best so far held in Estacada, both as regards the program and attendance. The lectures have been exceptionally viable replete with inspiration, suggestion and cheer. The musical features are high class, while Mrs. Melton Cross held the attention of young and old with her story telling bringing tears to the eyes, by her rendition of "A Man without a Country." Those who have not attended, have a last chance this evening, which they better not neglect. The use of the Family Theater was obtained from manager Linn on account of the wet weather, who also kindly omits his usual show tonight.

Another June Wedding

On Monday, June 14, 1920, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hannah of this place, Miss Jessie May Hannah was united in marriage to Anson L. Straughan, the Rev. J. F. Dunlop, pastor of the M. E. church officiating.

Both bride and groom are well known and social favorites, the former having lived here for years and taught in the schools as primary teacher; the latter has been on the High School faculty for two years as instructor in manual training and agriculture. Immediately after the ceremony, dinner was served and the newly married pair started off by auto to Portland en route to Seattle, Wash. Shortly after they had gone a heavy rain set in, which must have caught them about Boring hill, but we suppose they were oblivious to rain or shine in the blissful condition of the newly married. That the course of their future life may have nothing worse than rain storms is the wish of their many friends. Mr. Straughan has accepted a position on the High School faculty at Lewiston, Idaho, for the coming school year.

Preparations are being made for a big time at Estacada July 5.

Birthday Surprise Party

On Sunday, June 13th, forty-six of the relatives and friends of Mrs. W. T. Smith of Springwater, gathered at her home to celebrate her 66th birthday. As a token of love and friendship, she was presented with a beautiful overstuffed leather rocking chair. An excellent dinner followed to which all did justice and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in visiting and renewing old acquaintances. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith and Frank Smith of Springwater, F. H. Whitehead, wife and son Henry, Mrs. George Coulter, J. M. Hayden and wife, W. H. Hayden and wife and Roy Smith, all of Portland; R. L. Harding of Shelby Co., Mo.; G. T. Blackburn, wife and son Everett, L. Mattoon and wife, W. M. Yonce and wife all of Oregon City; Howard Smith and wife of Sherwood; C. A. Carothers and wife, Minnie Wood, George Hayden, wife and two children all of Gresham; C. M. Mattoon, wife and two sons of Garfield; S. E. Wooster, wife and daughter Helen of Estacada, H. M. Holden and wife of Ione; R. M. Tracy, wife and four children of Logan; Albert Smith and Amil Niman of Astoria.

HYMENEAL

Warren McWillis of the firm of McWillis & McWillis, is acting a little absent minded nowadays and frequently glances at the clock. The reason is that last week, Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Elsie Bates, his mother, Mrs. W. E. McWillis and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall of Bull Run, he went off to Vancouver, Wash. where he and Miss Bates were married. The bridal party left on the early morning train returning on the 6:30 p. m. When the news had percolated through to his friends, they determined to mark the event with due impressiveness, so a charivari was arranged and the newly weds properly serenaded and greeted. They will make their home in the Ellsworth house on Upper Broadway which Mr. McWillis has purchased. The best wishes of a host of friends, in which the NEWS heartily joins, go with them, as hand in hand they face the future.

COUNTY COURT IS ROASTED

The third meeting of the Clackamas County Development League held at this place Saturday afternoon, was well attended and proved to be of much interest. The meeting, which was held in the park, was called to order by the president, Rev. Carl J. Renhard of Colton. O. D. Eby of Oregon City, as secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, after which reports of committees were received. Chris Schuebel of Oregon City, chairman of the roads committee, led the discussion on the roads situation, Mayor E. W. Bartlett and others following. The county court was severely criticised on the manner in which it has carried out the wishes of the tax payers. It was unanimously decided to hold an adjourned meeting of the league at Oregon City, June 28, and all tax payers are invited to join in mass with the league and call upon the county court and ask it to explain its policy and its delay in the road program.

Little Shirley Robbins, child elocutionist of Molalla, delighted the audience and enlivened the proceedings with some recitations.

A PROUD FATHER

The Hon. Chris Schuebel is a proud man, not for anything he has done, but for the honors his daughter Miss Roberta, has won at the University of Oregon. Not only was she among those in line for the Phi Beta Kappa society, but she also received the cup for the highest scholarship. She has been reading law and is intending to take a course in law, following her father's profession. It would be an interesting sight, if in after years father and daughter should be opposed, to each other. Whatever the outcome, we are sure the young lady would have the last word. Hats off to the coming Portia.
