E. C. C. CLUB WILL ELECT OFFICERS

As was announced last week, the regular monthly meeting of this club, will be held in the Family Theater on Monday evening through the courtesy of Manager Linn. A number of interesting moving pictures of Oregon scenery and its manufacturing and industrial development will be shown. At this meeting the annual election of officers will take place, so a full representative attendance is especially desired. The club has served a notable purpose in bringing the people of this vicinity together and arousing interest in mutual advancement. President Stephens is to be congratulated in the able manner with which he has conducted the affairs of the club, and his reelection would be a good thing. The usefulness of the club is capable of being considerably increased if a larger membership be secured. Next fall a determined drive should be made with this end in view. Unless we look after our own interests nobody else will. It takes some time for such a club to get organized and sufficient interest aroused among the constituency it strives to serve. Now that a substantial membership has been enrolled, fairly representative of this vicinity, and the club has proved its usefulness to the community, it should make great progress in every way the coming year.

Suicide of George Resident

The sad news was received Tuesday afternoon that Henry Ruhl, the father of Peter Ruhl of George, had hung himself in the barn of the latter. The late Mr. Ruhl was a native of Germany and had been in this country for forty years and a resident of the George for over thirty. He had been in poor health for a number of months which made him despondent and induced him to thus end his life. He was seventy-seven years old. The funeral took place this morning, Rev. F. D. McLennan officiating.

Eastern Clackamas County Float

The float representing the Estacada district will be a truck 7x24, with extreme height of 11 feet and decorated with moss, Oregon grape and rododendrons. It is to represent "Estacada, favored of the Gods" and that legend will appear on the sides in flowers. The idea will be carried out by means of seven figures; one central figure representing Estacada, the others being Gods and Goddesses bringing their offerings to lay at her feet. Jupiter will represent the electricity produced and Neptune the water power available here. The Goddesses Ceres, Pomona and Flora will each bring their offering of grain, fruit and flowers, while a wood nymph will represent the lumber industry. On the back of the float, separated from this group, will be seated girls who will distribute among the crowd little bags of prunes bearing the label 'Estacada, Oregon.'

Estacada is to be represented by Mrs. A. E. Yocum; the Goddesses Flora, Ceres and Pomona by Misses Edith Trowbridge, Bertha Hillman and Gladys Kandle, respectively; the Wood Nymph by Miss Helen Wooster; Jupiter by Chester Womer and Neptune by Raymond Lovelace. The prunes and flowers are to be distributed by Mary Alice Reed and Leta Posson.

On account of the difficulty in arranging the construction of E. E. Saling's truck to conform to the design which the committee prepared, F. C. Bartholomew kindly donated his truck which he is to drive. The committee feels under great obligations to almost every one in the community, to whose attention the matter was brought, for the support accorded the enterprise and particularly to Geo. E. Cook of the Upper Garfield district, for the work and trouble in arranging for the rhododendrons.

As a coffee roasting center Portland is the second city on the Coast.

Attains Four Score years

On Thursday, June 17th, 1920, a number of the friends of Mrs. Charity Rawlins gathered at her home in honor of her 80th birthday. As the following Sunday, June 20, was the 74th birthday of Mrs. Harriett Upton, she was invited as guest of honor, Mrs. Marshall kindly bringing her to the party.

The two ladies enjoyed the day very much with each other and the friends present.

A bounteous dinner was served by the following ladies: Mrs. Alama Coop, Mrs. Jennie Kreiger, Mrs. Addie Marshal, Mrs. W. H. Holder, Mrs. Hannah, Mrs. W. Cox and Mrs. R. Snyder.

Mr. Ben Rawlins and R. F. Snyder, Jr., were also privileged to enjoy the repast.

A most pleasant day was spent by all who sincerely hoped these old friends may enjoy many such pleasant returns of their natal day.

The following original poem was composed by one of the guests to and dedicated to Mrs. Rawlins:

TO OUR FRIEND.

Eighty years of sunshine and shade
Has caused my body to droop and fade.
These eighty years, how short they seem,
Hardly more than a summer dream.

But of love and sorrow, my full share
I have borne, much of grief and care,
And yet amid memories gems so fair
I find many pleasures gleaming there.

Eighty years of great events, and many of them too;
I have seen new inventions not a few,
In this golden age of haste and hurry,
There has been much to fret and worry.

But through all these fitful years
God has blessed me with love that cheers,
Given love of husband, daughter, son
and friend,
And I know He will be with me to the end.

Though my stay on earth may not be long,
I will try to wear a smile and happy
song
That my silvered hair may radiance
cast
O'er those eighty years of the eventful past

WOODWORTH CHOSEN SCHOOL DIRECTOR

About seventy-five voters attended the annual school meeting last Monday evening, to listen to the reports and elect a director in the place of J. K. Ely whose term of office was expiring. The meeting was a most harmonious one, as there was no bone of contention over which to dispute, nor any one to rip up the back, so matters moved expeditiously. J. K. Ely the chairman of the board called the meeting to order and Mrs. Susie Sarver, the school clerk, read the minutes of the previous meeting and also the financial reports. Nominations for director being in order, J. W. Reed moved that a unanimous ballot should be cast by the clerk for W. R. Woodworth. This was seconded and carried nem con. H. C. Stephens moved that Mrs. Susie Sarver be elected to succeed herself as clerk. This was seconded and carried unanimously. W. R. Woodworth then took the oath of office and the meeting adjourned.

Below is a summary of the financial report of the past year:

Total receipts $16,459.00; Disbursements $16,432.13, divided as follows: salaries $10,428.77; Fuel and supplies $1,864.92; Repairs and improvements $1,477.93; Printing and interest payments $2,049.83; clerk's salary $72.50; other expenses $538.13; cash on hand June 21st, $26.87.

DOVER ITEMS

Several from Dover are enjoying the Shriners and Rose festival this week.

Mrs. Sanders and children of the Dalles, are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, this week.

The annual school meeting was held Monday. John Keiger and Victor Rodley were elected directors and H. Guthrie clerk.

The community rally held at the Dover church Sunday, was well attended. The sermon by the Rev. D. A. Watters on "The Power of Unity," was enjoyed by all. The ladies served a basket lunch in the grove. The afternoon was taken up with singing and short addresses by able speakers of the community.
