OBITUARY

Margaret V. Wolfe who died June 30, 1920, at the home of her brother, J. W. Ellsworth of Boring, was the daughter of Gideon and Lucretia Ellsworth. She was born April 2, 1877, and was 43 years, 2 months and 28 days old at the time of her death. She was twice married, the first time to Arthur Woolfolk by whom she had a son Eldon Woolfolk, who lives in Portland. Her second marriage to S. E. Wolfe took place only last November. She was a resident of Estacada for about eight years. Besides her husband and a son she leaves three brothers and a sister, R. E. Ellsworth of Portland, J. W. Ellsworth of Boring, Harry B. Ellsworth of Altoona, Wash., and Mrs. Della Parker of Sanger, California.

Dr. R. G. McCall's new house in Terrace addition across from Dr. L. A. Wells' residence, is sufficiently along that he is moving his household goods into it.

Family Reunion

A happy event occurred at Salem when there was a reunion of the family of Mrs. L. E. Marrs of 1363 North Church Street Saturday, July 12th. The occasion was the celebration of the 82nd birthday of Mrs. Marrs, who was a pioneer, coming to Oregon in 1850.

She is a sister of the late R. M. Wade, who founded the R. M. Wade Hardware Co. Also of W. H. H. Wade, who has the distinction of being the oldest settler in Eastern Clackamas County. She has resided in Salem for 26 years.

Those present were Mrs. W. J. Lewellen, of Salem; Mrs. Wm. Spurlin and daughter, Francis, of Harrisburg, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hale and daughter Ethel, of Estacada, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Currin and daughter Margaret, of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Currin and daughter Dora, of Estacada, Ore.; Mrs. I. S. Collins and son Sidwell, of Spokane, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Aschenbrenner and children of Covina, California; Miss Ellen Currin, who lives with her mother, and is a teacher in the Salem schools; Mrs. Floyd Pounder, a granddaughter, of the Dalles, Oregon, and W. H. H. Wade, a brother of Estacada, Oregon.

This is the first time that all have been gathered together since childhood days, and was a very joyous occasion.

DIED

At the Good Samaritan hospital Portland, July 12, after an intestinal operation, Jack the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Kilgore. The funeral services were held in the Finlay undertaking parlors and the remains taken to the crematorium to be cremated.

The bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in this vicinity.

Dance Scheduled

There will be a dance in the pavilion on Saturday July 31, under the auspices of the United Artisans.

Well Known Resident Passes

A long time resident of this end of the county, passed away Wednesday morning, July 14, after a lingering illness of about a year, Robert Adolphus Wilcox. He was born seventy three years ago in North Carolina, and at the age of three years his family moved to Virginia, where he lived till coming to Oregon in 1872. He settled at Currinsville and later resided in Garfield and Springwater. Six months ago he came to Estacada to make his home with his son Roy. His wife died 8 years ago. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 p. m. in Mt. Zion Church, in the cemetery of which he was buried, the Rev. J. F. Dunlop officiating. Of the nine children born to him seven survive, who are W. A. Wilcox, Gerald Wilcox, Roy Wilcox, Mrs. C. E. Kilgore all of Estacada, Mrs. Lillian Close of Vancouver, Wash, Guy Wilcox of Eagle Creek and Mrs. Waldo Koellermeier of Portland, all of whom attended the funeral.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Wednesday being the fourteenth birthday of Leta Possen, she gave a party to a number of her girl friends. They had a merry time visiting, dancing and playing games until 10 p. m., when refreshments were served, the piece de resistance being a delicious birthday cake made by Mrs. Possen specially for the occasion. The invited guests were Neva Clute, Laura Patrick, Doris Finch, Pauline Rose, Thelma Hay, Nova Smith, Johanna Lichtorn, Edna Petley, Ardella Dunlop and Mildred Knighton.

Miss Ruth Morrison of the High School faculty, came down yesterday. She is going to escort her class in Domestic Science to the Chataqua at Gladstone tomorrow.

Mrs. C. A. Jacques of Garfield, is having a visit from a friend who is a teacher at St. Helen's Hall, Portland. Yesterday was Mrs. Jacques' birthday and to mark the event she entertained a few friends.

MASONS CONFER THIRD DEGREE

Tuesday night the Estacada Masonic Lodge conferred the third degree on E. LeRoy Myers of Eagle Creek. Mr. Myers is travelling freight and passenger agent for the P. R. L. & P. Co. and very popular along its lines. As evidence of this, about a hundred Masons from various Portland lodges attended the function, many of whom had worked for many years with Mr. Meyers. They came in two special coaches. The work was conducted by Worshipful Master R. R. Robley of the local lodge, who is also an employe of the company, and who presided with dignity and impressiveness. After the ceremonies were concluded light refreshments were served and a social time followed.

BIRTHS

To Mr. and Mrs. Forest J. Schultz of Eagle Creek, Ore., July 3, 1920, a daughter, Dorothy May.

To Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Anderson of Eagle Creek, Ore., July 6, 1920, a son, Raymond Claude.

In both cases Dr. R. Morse was the attending physician.

Prize Trophy

The prize won by the Estacada community float at the Rose festival is on exhibition in the bank window. It is a sterling silver cup about twelve inches high of graceful design. On one side is engraved a laurel wreath while around the base the inscription reads "1920 Portland Rose Festival Grand Parade" and "Paint Oil and Varnish Club Trophy."

Christian Church

There will be preaching at this church next Lord's Day, both morning and evening. This will be a freewill offering and a free will attendance, only those present who want to come, only those give who feel they want to give. There is no compulsion in the matter for the Lord loves the cheerful giver and cheerful helper. You are invited.

Edward Wright, Minister.
