

LOCAL BREVITIES AND NEWS ITEMS

July 1920
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
				1	2	3
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31

Mrs. C. F., Miss Lelia and Ted Howe, spent Friday in Portland.

Mrs. Roy Wilcox had one of her eyes operated on last Thursday in Portland.

Mrs. Ray Eshleman from Grant's Pass, is here visiting friends and relatives.

W. H. H. Wade has returned from his sojourn at Gladstone park where he attended the Chataqua.

Bob McClintock was a passenger to Oregon City Monday a. m. on business connected with his pension.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Benson of Clinton, Iowa, are spending a week with their nephew, R. C. Deming.

Thanks to our friend, Phil Marquam, the poultry expert, we had fried spring chicken for our Sunday dinner.

Large luscious logan berries make the air fragrant and the mouth water when passing John Marchbank's ranch.

Don't forget the Artisans' dance Saturday night in the park pavilion. Good music, good floor and a good time assured.

Loran Ellis, who is with the firm Lawrence and Holford, architects of Portland, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ellis.

W. F. Wheeling of Portland, auditor for the State Industrial Commission, was in town Monday checking up accounts for the commission.

Ken Bartlett's picture was in Sunday's Oregonian among the western athletes for the Olympic games. He was to sail last Monday night from Hoboken, N. J. Good luck to him and a safe return bringing his laurels with him.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. McCasky and son of Portland, were the guests Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells.

The fact that "You never miss the water till the well runs dry," is brought home to us when the water main is shut off.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells entertained Tuesday and Wednesday Mrs. George Dolph and children of Dallas, Texas.

Services at the Methodist church this Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Edwin Wright, of the Christian church, conducting the service.

Preaching services at both churches Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, as usual. During August there will be Union services in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kling, the latter the daughter of W. E. Linn, arrived from Chicago the first of the week, and are guests in the Kreiger home.

A number from Estacada and vicinity including J. K. Ely and family, L. Hale of Currinsville, attended the Chataqua at Gladstone last Sunday and heard the noted Billy Sunday.

E. W. Bartlett and wife took in the Elks' convention at Salem last week. Mr. Bartlett was a charter member of the Elks lodge at La Grande where he formerly resided, before coming to Estacada.

George Pointer has a striking display in the window of the telephone office showing samples of his work in painting, tinting and graining besides sign painting. Those who employ him find that they have made no mistake.

The Linn family will hold its reunion Sunday, which has been made an annual affair. As there are numerous members in this vicinity, large attendance is expected. No doubt they will have a very enjoyable time in sylvan shades as the affair is to take place out of doors.

Edward G. Barger mechanical expert for Neustadter Bros. of Portland, was in town Saturday and called at this office. Mr. Barger is a grandson of Franklin Pierce who homesteaded what afterwards became the site of Estacada. He advertises two lots for sale in this issue.

Mrs. Frank Ewing of Chehalis, Wash., who was visiting friends here, did not leave last Thursday as was reported in the NEWS. She was planning to go, but the baby took sick with a bad cold, and then she was taken sick also, and both were under the doctor's care. They are stopping at the Lovelace hospital.

A camping party with covered wagon, buggy and tent, encamped on the flat back of the city hall last Tuesday evening. They are traveling through the country in a very comfortable manner, and as the roads are good should find it very pleasant, though not as expeditious as with an auto.

G. REIN
FIRST-CLASS
SHOEMAKING
SHOES MADE TO ORDER
Broadway :: Estacada

R. R. CARLSON
Undertaker and Embalmer
Gresham - Oregon
Warren McWillis
Local Agent for Estacada

HOLMAN & PACE
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
Oregon City
Wm. DALE, Local Representative.
TELEPHONE

Oregon Poultry Farm
Phil. Marquam, Proprietor

TRAP-NESTED,
SINGLE COMB
WHITE LEGHORNS
Get your order in early for eggs or stock, Send for descriptive mating list.

PHIL MARQUAM
(Farm located one mile out of Estacada, Oregon, on Garfield road.)

PLACE YOUR Fire Insurance
in the Home Company and through the Home Agent
J. W. REED
ESTACADA Agent for
The Pacific States
Fire Insurance Company

The Time to Save!

RIGHT NOW! Remember, your Bank account isn't increasing in what you hope to save next month or next year. It is what you save RIGHT NOW that counts. So start that account TODAY.

Four Per Cent. Interest On Time and Savings Deposits.

ESTACADA STATE BANK
Our Motto is
"SAFETY AND SERVICE"