Morris Bullard and Melvin Keller the two boys who were hurt by the explosion of a dynamite cap, are improving. The fingers of the former are healing up while the sight of the latter's eye, is expected to be saved.

Juvenile Guernsey is Organized

Miss Romney Snedeker, Boys' and Girls' club leader, with L. J. Allen, the state live stock club agent of O. A. C. have been touring the county this week organizing the Clackamas Co. Juvenile Guernsey Cattle Club.

The result of this effort has been a temporary organization which will, it is planned, become permanent upon the election of regular officers. The election will occur at the August meeting of the adult club held at the Vogt farm near Hubbard.

The following is a list of the membership, addresses and name of animal owned by each:

1. Merwin Newell, Molalla, R. 2, Hondale Fantine's Beauty.
2. Fillmore Gaffney, Oregon City, R. 1, Beauty 2nd of Avondale.
3. Kenneth Hughes, Oregon City, R. 2, Red Wing Starlight's Gypsy.
4. Francis J. Hughes, Oregon City, R. 2, Red Wing Doctor's Phillipa.
5. Icelia Hughes, Oregon City, R. 2, Red Wing Modele's Doctor.
6. Ray Brown, Estacada, R. 3, Landes Maid.
7. Walter Funk, Oregon City, R. 2, Westminster Gracy.
8. Francis Hutchins, Oregon City, R. 2, Princess Easter Lily.
9. Ben Elmer.

The charter members of the Club are numbers 1, 2, 6, 7 and 9 on the list.

The charter and by-laws will be molded after the adult organization and the members will meet at the same time as it meets.

This club is the first of its kind in the state of Oregon. The stock owned by some of these juvenile members represents some of the best breeding in the Northwest. Four of the members own stock imported from the Isle of Guernsey and represents in values at least four thousand dollars. — Banner-Courier.
