School will open in Estacada September 13.

No matter how one has enjoyed a vacation, home is the best place after all.

Mrs. W. A. Heylman visited Portland friends for a couple of days last week.

At the rate the work is going on at the Cascade Garage, it will soon be itself again.

Miss Dora Currin, who is stenographer in a law office in Salem, is home for a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. T. J. Reagan departed Saturday noon for Eugene where she will visit for a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. C. R. Betts.

Mrs. Anna K. Morton returned Thursday evening from Seattle and Hoquim, Wash., where she has been visiting for the past month.

Mrs. H. Hogan and little daughter, were here from Gladstone the latter part of last week, visiting Mrs. Hogan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Page.

The house occupied by U. S. Morgan and owned by W. H. Holder, has received a coat of paint recently and is much improved in appearance thereby.

Miss Ida Wagner returned from Oregon City Friday evening where she has been attending the teachers' training school. Miss Wagner will teach in the Boring schools.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Morse have moved into their house recently purchased from Dr. Adix. One improvement as far as outside looks are concerned they have made, is the removal of the "crowsnest" formerly used as an outside sleeping porch.

No matter how hot the weather circus day will draw its crowds. A number from Estacada attended the circus in Portland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. White of Willows, Ore., have been visiting the mother of the latter, Mrs. Rynning, left for their home Tuesday morning.

Bob Marchbank returned from Silverton Tuesday, where he had been to bring home his mother and son "Goog," who had been visiting relatives at that place.

A card from Miss Eva Wash states that she and her mother will leave New York City for home on the 21st, coming by way of New Orleans and Los Angeles.

Mrs. F. L. Sanders, of Gladstone, arrived Saturday to visit with Mrs. Herring and daughter, Miss Wava, also her brother James Guttidge of Springwater.

Mrs. W. T. McWillis and daughter, Mrs. Ruby Link, went to Portland Saturday. Mrs. McWillis returned the same day, but Mrs. Link remained to visit friends for a few days.

Mrs. D. B. Bass returned from Portland Friday, where she visited at the home of her parents a day or two last week. Her little girl was taken sick while there, but is about well again now.

A large 500-pound bell arrived last week for the Christian church and was raised to its place in the belfry Friday. After this, two bells will call the people of Estacada to worship on Sunday mornings.

Ed. Boner left for Cascadia Saturday morning to bring back the Ames' family, who have been there with Mr. Ames for some time. Mrs. Underwood accompanied Mr. Boner on the trip. They all returned Monday.

G. T. Hunt, of Baker City, in Eastern Oregon, who formerly lived in this vicinity and still owns property in Garfield, arrived in town Monday morning to visit his ranch and spend a day looking up his old friends. That he has not lost interest in Estacada was shown by his calling at this office and renewing his subscription to the NEWS for another year.

A. J. VanScoyoc and wife, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. C. S. Womer and other relatives in this section for two months, left for Portland and Oregon City Saturday where they visit other relatives a few days, prior to leaving for their home at Tyron, Pennsylvania. Miss Linda VanScoyoc, of Gary, Ind., who accompanied them from the East, met them in Portland Monday and all returned together.

F. W. Burns, who has been working in a surveying party on the state highway in Union, Baker and Malheur counties, arrived home Sunday evening. The work in that section is over for the present, and he will remain awhile with his parents Prof. F. E. and Mrs. Burns.
