J. A. Kiggins of Springwater, has just returned with his family from Pacific City, Netarts Beach and other Tillamook points having had the time of their lives. One thing he reports that is not complimentary to Clackamas county, and that is he found good roads everywhere but in this county.

James Gordon, a boy whose parents came to this vicinity last July, from Oregon City, was last Saturday examined and committed to the school for the feeble minded at Salem. In this institution he will have that expert care and attention which will help him develop, if human skill can do anything for him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sparks entertained Sunday four old friends of Mrs. Sparks, who formerly attended the same school with her at Fort Dodge, Iowa. These were the Misses Matie, Rosa and Edith Trains of Watson station, and Mrs. W. R. Reid of Garfield. Mr. Sparks took a group picture of the ladies, which will make an interesting souvenir of the occasion.

Mrs. Arabella Couse, the mother of the late Frank P. Couse, who was depot agent here when Theo. Ahlberg was in the service, and who died in January, 1919, came to Estacada Thursday for a visit with friends. She is living in Portland, having charge of the Laroy Apartments on the East Side. Her grandson Will Harmon has been visiting his former boy friends here for two weeks. They both returned to Portland Monday. Mrs. Couse's other son Albert who was in the war, suffered a nervous breakdown last January, and has been since unable to work. He was gassed twice when overseas, which may have caused the present breakdown.

Canby Man Buys
an Estacada Farm

G. M. Jones of Canby, Oregon, has bought the J. C. Duus farm 4 miles northeast of Estacada. This place comprises 112 acres with about 70 in cultivation. It is one of the best in this vicinity and the consideration paid was $15,000. The deal was made through the Wooster agency.

Letter from Former Estacada Resident

Dear Sir:—
Enclosed please find check for seventy-five cents for six months subscription to your valued paper. We want to keep in touch with the doings of "Old Estacada" and know of no better medium than through the columns of the EASTERN CLACKAMAS NEWS. We are now located at Odell, Oregon, "Dad" having bought a general merchandise store here and will also eventually operate his undertaking business in connection with it, and I, as usual, am his "able" assistant.
Mother's health failed her at The Dalles, hence this move to a cooler climate. Odell is a thriving little burg situated eight miles south of Hood River in the heart of the famous apple district. Business is starting out fine and promises fine for the future.
Wishing your paper the success which it merits and with kind regards to all our old friends of Estacada I am,
Sincerely yours,
INA CHAPMAN.

L. V. Cleworth who has been engaged to teach manual training in the High School this year, arrived Tuesday. His home is in Hartford, Michigan.

Mrs. Nina B. Ecker has been quite sick for nearly two weeks, first with an infected tooth which affected her mouth and then spread to the rest of her face. Though somewhat better she is still confined to her bed.
