IN BONDS OF HOLY WEDLOCK

There have been many beautiful weddings in Estacada, but none more so than the one which occurred Sunday afternoon, Sept. 5th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Harkenrider, when their daughter Miss Josie and Harold O'Neill became man and wife.

The house which was beautifully decorated with greens and pink and white roses, was filled with a number of guests including friends from Portland. To the strains of the Lohengren wedding march, played by Miss Anita Paulson, at 2:30, the bride entered on the arm of her father preceded by her little niece Neva Richards as flower girl. Miss Dora Currin was maid of honor. Under a bower of greens and white roses the bride met the groom who was attended by Eugene Scoville as best man. The solemn service was then read by the Rev. John Cominsky of Portland.

The bridal gown was a beautiful creation of white satin with a tulle veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms, while that of the maid of honor was of Nile green tulle over silver cloth. After the ceremony and congratulations a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The wedding presents were numerous and included a number of pieces of silverware and cut glass.

The newly married pair soon afterwards left in their car accompanied by the music of pealing bells and tinkling tin pans. Their future home will be in Ridgefield, Wash., where the groom owns and operates a saw-mill. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

The NEWS acknowledges with thanks several pieces of the delicious cake served on this occasion.

Mrs. Milton G. Weatherby and son Gilbert of Upper Garfield, are on a visit to Mr. Weatherby at Kelso, Wash. They will be absent several weeks.

The Coming School Year

Next Monday will witness the opening of the schools for the coming year and it is hoped that every boy and girl in Estacada and vicinity will be ready to avail themselves of the splendid opportunity afforded in the community both in the grades and high school to continue their education. Very few communities of the size of Estacada are blest with the exceptional educational advantages which our boys and girls enjoy. Every effort has been made both by the board of education and the principal of the schools to lay the foundation for the most successful school year in the history of Estacada. New equipment is being added in all departments of the high school wherever necessary to afford more and better school work. A full four year course in manual training has been adopted and new machinery will be added to meet all demands in that department the coming year. A full two year commercial course has been planned, to consist of typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, commercial arithmetic and filing. A special diploma of graduation will be given in this department to all who complete the full two years of work.

Special pains have been taken to provide the best instructors obtainable in all departments of the high school and in the grade school. The following is a complete list of teachers:

ED BONER DOES MAZAMA STUNT

Ed Boner has performed a feat which will have an imperishable memory for him. Last Saturday he left Portland in his car at 2 p. m. with four male companions for Mt. Hood. They arrived at the government camp at 7 p. m., where they stayed for the night. While it was yet dark, they arose the following morning at 3 o'clock, and started their climb up the mountain. This proved tedious but they patiently plodded along over the trail of snow and rock until the summit was reached, which is six or seven miles above the camp. It took them nine hours, arriving at the top just at noon. This proved to be a narrow ledge of rock. Ed says the atmosphere was bright and clear with a little breeze blowing and it was not cold. On looking down there was a sea of cloud 4000 feet below them, out of which they had emerged. After resting about an hour, they began the return journey at 1 p. m., and arriving at the camp at 5 o'clock. They stopped the night camping out among the huckleberry bushes, which were loaded with fruit, and remained until 1 p. m. Monday, when they left for Portland, Ed arriving home in Estacada at nine that evening. He can now call himself a Mazama whatever that means, and can claim to have been nearer heaven than most of his friends.

Community Services

McLennan will also be present in the afternoon, but has to hold his regular services at Springwater in the morning and at Eagle Creek in the evening.

The Epworth League will meet Sunday at 7 p. m.
