AND NEWS ITEMS

Come and hear the Orchestra, October 30.

George Pointer went to Portland Saturday on business.

We acknowledge with pleasure and thanks several new subscriptions besides renewals.

Brice Brown, who has been on a visit to see a sick father at Max, Nebraska, returned home the latter part of last week.

J. M. Melton is enjoying a visit from his grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Boswell of Molalla, who is eighty years old and still very active.

C. J. Starrett has recently come to this vicinity from Forest Grove, and has settled on the former Zink place near Springwater, which he has bought.

The friends of Mrs. S. R. McWillis will be glad to hear that she is recovering nicely at the Willamette Sanitarium in Salem. She was operated on last Sunday.

Mrs. Emily Ladv, formerly of this city, but now of The Dalles, was in town last week packing up her household effects for shipment to The Dalles. She sold her house which is occupied by Principal F. E. Burns to F. J. Harkenrider.

Don't forget that pumpkin pie at the Legion dance October 30.

Albert Lichthorn came home Saturday morning from the O. A. C. for a week-end visit.

A note from Mrs. E. W. Bartlett states that they are enjoying life in California and will be reluctant to leave, but will be home in time to vote.

Don't forget that next week is bargain week for the Oregonian. Call at this office and get rates, also special combination offer with the NEWS.

B. O. Sarver went to Portland Saturday morning to see his wife who is progressing very favorably after her recent operation at St. Vincent's hospital.

We saw with pleasure Mary Alice Reed down town Tuesday morning. The young lady has had a long and painful siege of illness and we hope her troubles in this respect are over for good.

We are glad to report that George Weatherby after a severe sickness caused by an abscess, is rapidly getting better. We hope he will soon be out, for we have missed his smiling face on the streets.

A letter from Minnesota, describes the woods there as gorgeous. Only those who have lived in the hardwood belts, can realize the riot of flaming reds and burnished golds which prevails at this season, illuminating the landscape like the colors of an ancient missal. It is a sight never to be forgotten.
