SNYDER TAKES NEW PARTNER

Harry Snyder, of the People's Store, is congratulating himself, in having associated with him C. E. Kilgore, who has been clerking for him for a month or so past. The business had increased so much in volume that it was hard for Mr. Snyder to handle it alone, and so he was much relieved and delighted to secure as partner a man of Mr. Kilgore's ability and standing. The new member of the firm is no stranger to this vicinity, having lived some years ago in the Sprinwater district, and also being the son of Col. Kilgore who moved to Gresham over a year ago. He has held some very important business positions being chief engineer for the great packing concern of Nelson Morris of Chicago. When the war broke out that firm so highly recommended Mr. Kilgore to the government as an expert in his line, that he was appointed aid to the head of the refrigerating department in the war service. When the war was over, he returned to his former employers at Chicago. Mrs. Kilgore is the sister of Wilcox Bros. and when their father died, she and her husband came out to attend the funeral. Mr. Kilgore liked it here so much, and naturally Mrs. Kilgore desired to be nearer her relations, so he determined to stay and settle down. Not only will his doing so benefit the People's Store, but the whole community, as he will be a decided asset to the place, knowing well what tends to make a town grow and prosper. The NEWS extends hearty congratulations to the newly reconstituted firm and wishes them unbounded prosperity. A few more such progressive additions to the business force, a spirit of enterprise would take possession of the place and develop it beyond recognition.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. McWillis returned home last night. Mrs. McWillis' health is much better.

There will be a dance in the A. C. Cogswell's hall at Eagle Creek on the eve of Thanksgiving, Wednesday, November 24th.

Mr. Appleby of the Appleby-Byrne-Rogers Co., of Portland, dealers in poles and piling, was in town yesterday, and rented a portion of the R. R. spur on Terrace Addition, of W. F. Cary.

A Notable Magazine

The Youth's Companion is too well known to need any extended comment. It has an advertisement in this issue which it will be well for our readers to consider. There is probably no more popular publication in the entire country than this, which is as much enjoyed by the adults as by the young. Its phenomenal success affords a striking testimony that clean journalism does pay, and is of a more enduring character than the yellow sort.

Doll and Apron Sale

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will hold a doll and apron sale Nov. 20th. Lunch will be served at noon.

Church Fair

The Bazaar which is to be given by the ladies of the Christian Church, will be held in the lower room of the Odd Fellows hall, on the first Saturday in December. There will be a business men's lunch served at noon and coffee with cake and sandwiches during the afternoon and evening. The ladies hope to have the articles which will be sold at the bazaar on display beforehand.

Where Did He Get That Hat?

Phil Marquam received Friday as a present, an eighteen dollar black beaver Fedora hat. Were he a married man his chances of wearing it might be slim.

RANGER BUILDS LOG CABIN

Ranger Tom Carter's new log cabin at Oak Ridge on the trail of the north fork of the Clackamas river leading to Clackamas lake, is to be the finest example of artistic rusticity in the Oregon national forest when he gets it finished.

The cabin is built entirely of logs. The work was done under Carter's direction by forest service employes in the summer of 1919. This winter Carter will make all the furniture with which it is to be equipped. It will be on the rustic order, made from natural logs. Carter is adept in the use of logs for building purposes, and the log hotel LaBarre at Estacada is the work of his hands.

The Oak Grove cabin is 30 miles from the nearest railway station, Estacada. Carter expects to move into the cabin with his family next spring.—Oregon City Enterprise.

Parent-Teacher Meeting

The Estacada Parent-Teacher Association met in the High School auditorium Tuesday, November 9th. Mrs. W. F. Cary, the chairman of the membership committee, reported an enrollment of about sixty members. The special speaker, Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, advertised for this session, failed to appear, so Supt. Burns gave a talk on "Things Pertinent to Parent-Teacher Work." He briefly reviewed the work of last year, and gave several suggestions which may be accomplished this year. Miss Josephine Connors and Mrs. J. W. Reed both gave splendid reports of their attendance at the State P.T.A. in Portland. Afterwards the meeting was opened to a general discussion and closed with the suggestion of the president that all present should get acquainted.

The High School plays Hillsboro High today at Hillsboro.

The new city officials were inducted into office Tuesday night.

Three candidates were initiated into the Centennial Rebekah lodge last night.

Quite a delegation of ladies from Gresham headed by Mrs. H. C. Larson, came to Estacada Wednesday afternoon to attend the W. C. T. U. meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Reed.

Dramatic Element Predominates in Delightful Program of McAlister Trio

Kathleen and DeRoss McAlister, With Miss Jordan Assisting, to Be Heard Here in High-Class Entertainment.

Kathleen McAlister and De Ross McAlister, assisted by Miss Irma Jordan, cellist and accompanist, present one of the most popular and artistic programs in lyceum. It is a program in which the dramatic element predominates. Operatic arias in costume are artistically presented. Vocal, piano and cello numbers together with high class dramatic readings also are featured in this unusual entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. McAlister are well known residents of Boston. They have beautiful voices and show splendid musical foundation.

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, NOVEMBER 16, 1920.
