LEGION CELEBRATES ARMISTICE DAY

The Women's Auxiliary No. 74, American Legion, held a social gathering at 8 o'clock the evening of November 11, at Odd Fellows' hall, for the purpose of entertaining the members of Carl Douglas Post No. 74, American Legion and their friends. A musical program consisting of vocal solos by Miss Dillon and Mrs. Barr, violin duets by Messrs. Ahlberg and Sharp and other instrumental numbers, added a touch of the artistic to the entertainment. A humorous reading by Mrs. A. K. Morton, was well rendered and appreciated by the audience.

In a short address by Mayor Stephens and a response by Commander Lawrence, the spirit of co-operation between the various civic bodies and the Legion, was expressed with a desire to continue the reconstruction with the same spirit displayed during the war period.

After a moment of silence at attention in memory of the boys who did not return, Commander Lawrence presented the Legion with the State Medals for War Service.

Following the program, orders were issued for attack formation on the dining room and suffice to say, everybody was well rewarded.

The ladies are to be complimented on the decorations, program and the supper. Long live the ladies.

The following letter has been received by the auxiliary:

Kind Friends:

I wish to express my thanks for the gift of good eats which you sent me on Hallowe'en. It brought back the feeling of home- cheer and the effect of this remembrance has given me renewed energy, which only flows from the heart and enlightens a heart that makes the soul a happier one for him to fight life's battle with.

Yours in Hope,
OTIS C. WAGNER.

The American Red Cross

The "Greatest Mother" concept which was visualized in the famous art poster used by the American Red Cross in its second war fund campaign has had its symbolism adapted to the Red Cross work of the post-war era and will illuminate the main poster to be used in the Fourth Roll Call November 11-25. This adaption will bear the title "Still the Greatest Mother in the World." Everyone is familiar with the original "The Greatest Mother in the World," the effectiveness of which has been shown in part by the fact that it has furnished a synonym for Red Cross that has come to almost a household term. More than any other symbol, except the red cross itself, the public has made it the trademark of the American Red Cross.

Fourth Red Cross Roll Call Your Dues are Payable NOW November 11 to 25, 1920.

Community Club

Friday evening of next week will be the regular meeting of the Community Club. An interesting program is being drawn up, and will consist of community singing and other musical features with an out of town speaker. Full details will be given next week.

Clean Up

The long delayed clean-up day seems now to materialize. The High School boys under the direction of Mr. Burns, are going to devote the first good day next week to the work, and all citizens are urged to assist, particularly in cleaning up their own premises. The city will furnish a truck to haul off the rubbish.

COMMUNITY SERVICE THANKSGIVING DAY

There will be a union service in the High School auditorium on Thanksgiving Day, beginning at 10:30 a.m. It will be under the joint auspices of the M. E. and Christian churches. Three addresses will be given, the speakers being Mrs. T. J. Reagan, Mrs. Ida Holder and Prof. F. E. Burns, with congregational singing of appropriate hymns and songs. As is fitting an offering will be taken up for the fund started by the Literary Digest for the starving children of central Europe. This fund is specially commended by President-elect Harding who has contributed $2,500 to it. Herbert Hoover estimates that there are three millions and a half children in dire need of help, and that it will take $23,000,000 to supply their needs. Your Thanksgiving dinner will receive an additional zest, if you have contributed to the feeding of these starving little ones.

Home, Sweet Home

"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home." So sang John Howard Payne, who had no home, in tones which have found a ready response in the hearts of the English speaking peoples the world over. And this is what a young girl discovered, whose hard working mother foolishly thought to make a "lady" of her by sending her to a fashionable boarding school, where she learnt only the false values of life. While visiting with some wealthy friends she nearly became the victim of a social leach. Fortunately she discovered her danger in time, and returned to her home with a truer appreciation of its worth as well of that of the home folks. This entertaining and instructive film will be shown at the Family Theatre, Saturday night. Don't fail to see it.

The Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church will hold their apron and doll sale, Saturday, November 20th, in the Odd Fellows' room adjoining the store of J. K. Ely. Everything in the line of kitchen aprons and some fancy aprons for Christmas gifts will be on display as well as beautiful dolls that will make a happy Christmas for the children. A business men's lunch will be served at noon. O those lovely cakes, salads, coffee, baked beans and sandwiches! Everybody will be welcome.
