Red Cross Notes
The director for the Red Cross drive in this vicinity is Mrs. E. W. Bartlett. In case she cannot be found by those wishing to give, subscriptions can be left at the library rooms and paid to Mrs. Nina Ecker, the librarian, who will give buttons to those entitled to them. Nearly all the money raised in this county for the Red Cross will be expended within its borders in relief for the poor.

The partition at the rear of The People's Store has been removed extending the floor some sixteen feet. This additional space was badly needed as the immense stock of goods could not properly be displayed and caused inconvenience to both the management and their customers.
