Lyceum Entertainmen

The McAlister trio entertained very acceptably a large and appreciative audience at the High School auditorium, Tuesday night. This was the second number in the Lyceum course. The artists proved themselves finished musicians and made a good appearance on the stage. Again we would urge that windows should be opened when the atmosphere becomes too warm, as it is hard on both audience and performers.

Mrs. Upton H. Gibbs had the misfortune last Friday morning to severely bruise the top joint of the forefinger of her left hand. It swelled up considerably and caused a great deal of pain. Saturday morning Dr. McCall lanced the wound in order to let out the congealed blood. Since then it has been better, but as she is left handed she is hindered considerably in doing her work.
