ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1920

$1.50 PER YEAR

ESTACADA WILL GIVE THANKS

As was announced last week, a community service has been arranged for Thanksgiving day, in the High School auditorium, commencing at 10:30 a. m. It will be of a very simple character with short addresses by Mrs. T. J. Reagan, Mrs. Ida Holder and Prof. F. E. Burns. Several patriotic songs will be sung by the audience and the offering devoted to the Literary Digest's fund for the starving children of Europe, to which President-elect Harding has contributed $2,500. The auditorium should be filled to its utmost capacity on such an occasion, when we are called to worship and give thanks by the chief executives of the nation and state as well as by the Church. Three hundred years ago the Pilgrim fathers knelt on a barren rocky shore, not knowing what the future had for them, yet they were thankful for having been preserved on the great deep and brought to the haven where they would be. What would they think of those who having entered into their labors and enjoying a harvest beyond their keenest imaginations, fail to publicly make acknowledgement to Him who has prospered them above all peoples of the earth?

Community Club

The club will meet in the Odd Fellows hall Friday evening. An interesting time will be assured and matters pertaining to the welfare of the town and vicinity will be discussed. J. W. Brewer, Field Secretary of the State Chamber of Commerce, has promised to attend and make an address. All members should be present.

A friend in New York City sent Mrs. Upton H. Gibbs some especially fine Italian chesnuts for the dressing in her Thanksgiving turkey. Needless to say the turkey will taste extra good for this addition.

Was a civil war veteran, having been one of the first to answer Lincoln's call for 75,000 troops (3 months men). At the expiration of this term he enlisted in Co. I, 14th Maine Infantry. Was promoted to sergeancy and served as such until he received injuries which caused him to be discharged.

He held many public offices during his lifetime and made many friends.

Was married to Carrie F. Spaulding May 27th, 1869. To this union one son was born, Geo. I. Thompson, who survives and is a resident of the Viola district. John Hunt Dead

At the ripe age of 93 John Hunt passed away Monday evening at his home across the river. As the forms were nearly filled up when the news came, we cannot give extended mention, but will do so next week. The funeral will be held at his home this Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with interment in the Lone Oak cemetery.

North Bend, Or. It is understood that a mill is soon to be built near here to handle the cedar near North Slough. It is to be a portable affair, designed principally to cut ties.

PASTOR ILL FROM BLOOD POISON

The Rev. J. F. Dunlop, pastor of the M. E. Church, is suffering very severely from blood poisoning. About a week ago while digging potatoes, he bruised the palm of his right hand. He did not pay much attention to it and kept using it with the result blood poisoning set in. His right arm began to swell clear to the elbow, causing him excessive pain and he had to receive medical attention. Sunday he was unable to fill his engagements, so the Rev. A. B. Calder from Portland, occupied his pulpit in the morning and the Rev. Welter in the evening. Mr. Dunlop has made many friends during the two years he has been pastor of the local church, by the kindness of his disposition, and they will all extend the sincerest sympathy to him and his family, and hope that the disease may be checked and his recovery soon be effected.

Several carloads of telephone poles were again shipped out of Estacada this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morgan returned Monday evening from Roseburg and vicinity.

The Gorral property in northwest Estacada now has a renter and the family has moved in.

Ken Bartlett came home from Eugene to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett.

Mt. Angel, Ore. One of the largest potato crops ever harvested in this part of Marion county will be shipped from Mt. Angel this year. In addition to the quantity of spuds, they are of exceptional quality.

Roseburg, Ore. Forty-eight carloads of apples have been sent out from Roseburg by the Oregon Growers Co-operative Association. Within a couple of weeks the last of the crop will be shipped from Douglas county.
