HAUSER LEASES THE ESTACADA

It will be good news to our people that the Estacada is to be put in thorough repair and will soon be in operation with dining room reopened. Last Monday V. W. Hauser signed the papers with the P. R. L. & P. Co, which gave him a lease of the building, taking possession the first of the year. Until then he will continue to run his restaurant. Mr. Hauser was born and raised in the business, as his father is a veteran hotel man, who is we believe, still running one in Florida. This assures that the Estacada will be maintained as such an institution should be, so as to attract the traveling public as well as home patrons. It should be recognized that Mr. Hauser in undertaking its management, is doing a service to the town and community, as nothing helps more to give a stranger a favorable impression of a town, than a good hotel. Frequently the determination of the new comer to remain, was due to the hotel accommodation. A place like this, which is near to Portland and situated amidst such beautiful scenery, should be a favorite week end resort for city people desiring a brief rest and change. If they know that here they take "their ease at their inn," with such comforts and conveniences to which they are accustomed, their patronage will be assured. And in many other ways the hotel will make the town a favorite rendezvous for social gatherings and the like. Mr. Hauser should receive the generous support and encouragement of our people, not only in recommending the hotel to their friends but by patronizing it for Sunday dinners and on other occasions. We suggest that Mr. Hauser should arrange for a grand banquet on his opening night and every one take a plate and thus give him a hearty send off.

Parent-Teacher Meeting

The Estacada Parent-Teacher Association will hold a very important meeting in the High School assembly Tuesday, December 14th, at 7:30 p.m., at which time Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar will speak upon the topic of "Child Welfare."

Supt. F. E. Burns will conduct the "Round Table" discussion for the evening. The topic for general discussion will be "The Regulation of Absence and Tardiness."

There will be a piano solo by Miss Noya Smith and vocal music by Miss Murray, Miss John and Mr. Cleworth.

Everyone should attend this meeting and a special invitation is extended to all outsiders to be present.

LEILA C. HOWE,
Secretary.

Don't Forget

The Bazaar to be given by the ladies of the Christian Church will be held next Saturday in the Odd Fellows' Hall. Lunch will be served at noon and coffee and cake and sandwiches during the afternoon and evening. Kitchen aprons will be on sale in the Monday booth, quilts, and fancy aprons etc. in the Wednesday booth, interesting parcel post articles for Friday and in the Saturday booth will be found all kinds of good things to eat.

Streets and Premises

Cleaned Up

Wednesday afternoon of last week the High School boys under the direction of Supt. Burns and Mayor H. C. Stephens cleaned up the streets and alleys of the town. The gutters of Broadway were cleaned out and the pavement sluiced and washed, and teams hauled away the garbage, while a bonfire was made of old boards, etc., on the city hall lots.

Dance

Douglass Drill was here Friday and Saturday arranging for a dance to be given in the Park Pavilion on Saturday beginning at 9 o'clock. The music will be furnished by the Metcalf's five-piece orchestra of Portland.

Car Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Givens of Kent, Oregon, who with their family were driving to Currinsville, Wednesday of last week, met with an accident which badly injured the car, and might have proved fatal to some of them. They were passing the Henry Githens' place when the car ran into the fence at the turn of the road, and hit one of the fence brace posts. This flew up and went through the windshield almost hitting Mr. Givens on the head. Fortunately, he moved his head to one side, and thus saved his life, for if he had been struck, he surely would have been killed. Although both he and Mrs. Givens were covered with broken glass, neither of them was hurt. They phoned in to town to the Cascade garage, which sent out a car after them. As they were on their way to R. H. Currin's they had not far to go. The car was repaired sufficiently so they could return home in it Saturday.

Family Reunion

Mrs. Viola Douglass' home in Upper Eagle Creek, was the scene of a happy gathering on Thanksgiving Day, when she had all her children but one son and his family to partake of the sumptuous spread prepared for the occasion. The guests included Walter Douglass and family, Will Douglass and family, Ed. Douglass and family, Roy Douglass and family and the daughter Miss Vina who lives at home. Two large turkeys graced the table, besides the "fixins" and innumerable other things to regale the inner man.

Christian Church

There will be services Sunday morning and evening in the Christian Church, the Rev. J. O. Staats of Oregon City, officiating.

SOCIAL

The Eagle Creek Grange will give a social this Friday evening in its hall. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

FISH HATCHERY FOR GARFIELD

At the meeting of the Community Club last Friday night, J. W. Reed announced that the State Fish and Game commission had purchased forty acres of land, adjoining the Garfield country club, where they will establish a fish hatchery. This will involve an expenditure of between thirty and thirty-five thousand dollars and will mean much to this vicinity. The attendance was small owing to the unpleasantness of the weather and bad state of the roads. A number of old time songs were sung by the company led by L. V. Cleworth and these were followed by J. W. Brewer of Portland, field secretary for the State Chamber of Commerce in an address on Community Cooperation. This elicited a number of questions which Mr. Brewer answered.

Thanksgiving Community Service

The attendance of this service was not what it should have been, which is much to be regretted, if there is any meaning to the day, and the proclamations of the president and governor. It began with the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" led by L. V. Cleworth who acted as precentor. An invocation followed and then the three addresses interspersed with hymns and concluding prayer by J. K. Ely. Mrs. T. J. Reagan the first speaker gave an eloquent address on "The Torch of Liberty," as applied to our country and showing that true liberty is of religious origin. The address given by F. E. Burns is reproduced in full on our editorial page, and Mrs. Ida Holder spoke briefly on the condition of the women in East India comparing it with that of American women, as a reason for devout thankfulness for the latter. An offering was taken up for the Literary Digest's Children's Feeding fund in central Europe which amounted to $21.00. W. H. Holder presided over the proceedings.
