Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kaake spent Wednesday in Portland.

Walter Alt from Firwood spent the week end at the G. W. Keller home.

M. Pedersen took a load of dressed hogs to Estacada on Tuesday.

Miss Rosa B. Ten Eyck and Miss Mabel Keller spent Saturday in Portland.

D. Horner and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horner and family made a trip to Estacada on Monday.

Owing to the bad roads and the heavy correspondence, the community has had to employ an extra mail carrier.

The road work is progressing favorably with the volunteer work. They are now repairing the Keller hill, which has been in very bad condition.

Great consternation reigned in this district last Monday evening, as to the whereabouts of the chief engineer of the road crew. A general alarm was given, searching parties sent out, and after much excitement and worry, he was finally located at the G. W. Keller home.

Clarence Judd is still studying the eccentricities of the Ford so that on his next visit to Portland, he won't have to get out and crank it every fifty yards. He intends to make the next visit in the daylight, having experienced much trouble with the headlight, not to mention the tail light.

Don't forget the Parent-Teachers meeting next Tuesday evening at the High School with Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, the child expert of Portland, as chief speaker.

Successful Dance

The dance last Saturday night in the park pavilion, given by the Metcalf orchestra of Portland, proved a very enjoyable affair. The music was good, the attendance good and the order good. The Drill boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Drill formerly of Faraday, are members of this orchestra.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

R. B. Gibson was an Oregon City visitor last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Douglass were Oregon City visitors last Wednesday.

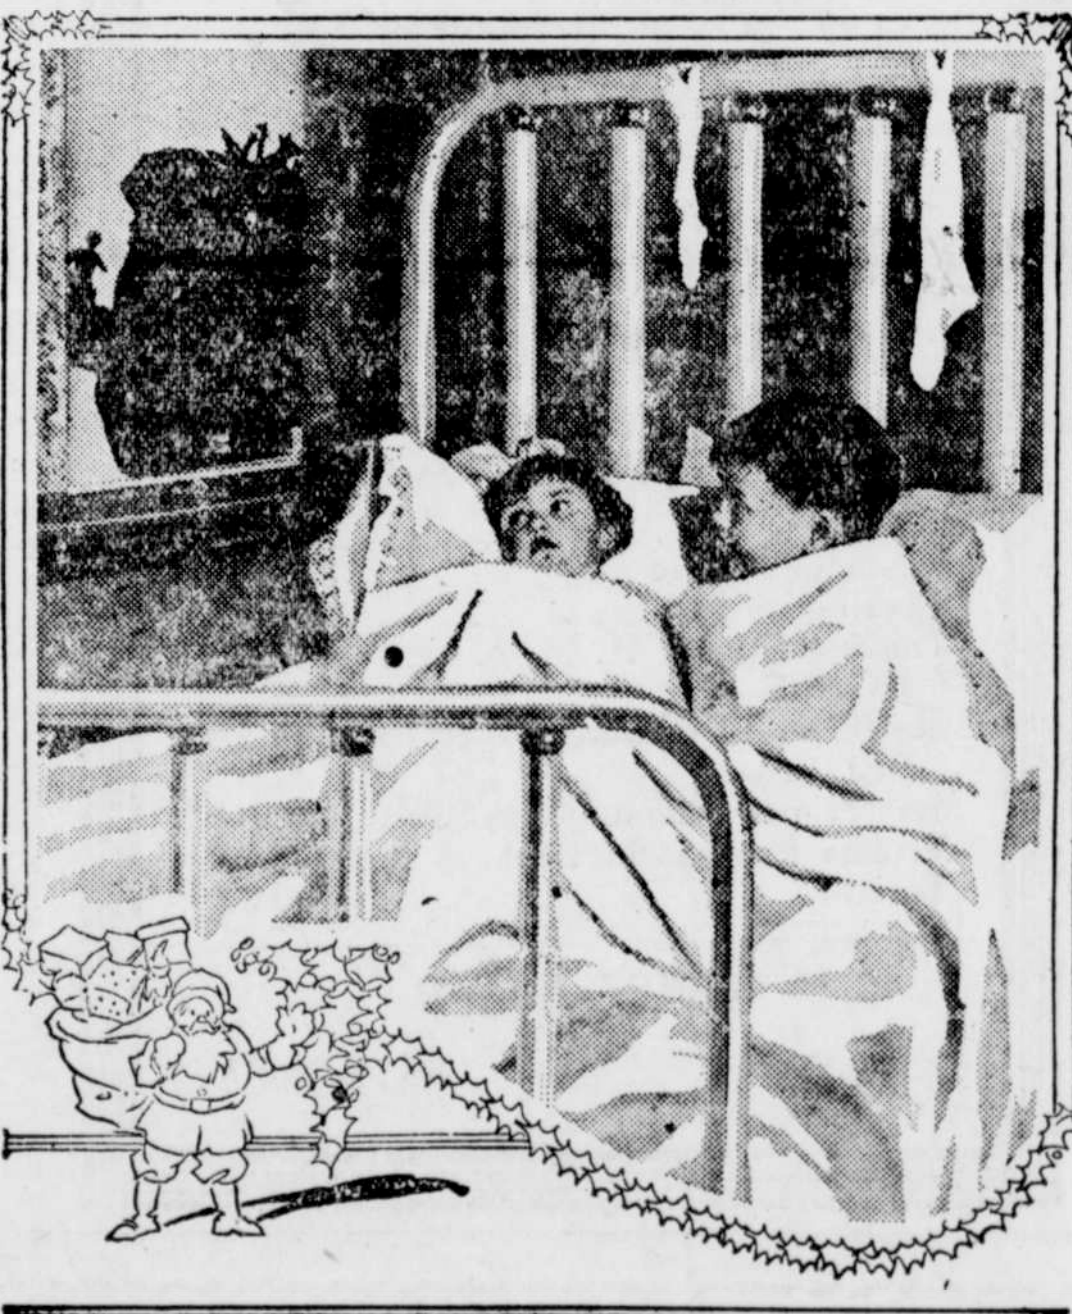

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Preister of Logan, were the dinner-guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass Sunday.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at The Sellwood Hospital three weeks ago—returned home on Sunday, and is getting along nicely.

Will Huggans has been suffering for about three weeks with his side. He thinks some ribs were broken when thrown from his horse lately, and he has not been able to do any work since. We sincerely hope he will soon be able to work, as there are several families here which need some wood sawed for winter. Will says it is sure handy to have a drag saw around.

Mrs. Rose Freeman and her two nieces Violet and Mary Huggans, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Freeman's sister, Mrs. John Marshall, at George. Violet and Mary went to visit their cousins Lavena and Elmer, and had a thoroughly enjoyable good time, playing games. Sunday morning the four children went on a hike as far as the George school house and came back tired but happy. Violet says the Eagle Creek school beats any school yet. "Zip, bum, bar, Eagle Creek School, Rah! Rah! Rah!"
