GARFIELD BREVITIES

G. F. Hunt was down from Baker, Ore., last week. Mr. Hunt is owner of the Country Club tract, and was negotiating with the State Game and Fish Commission for a part of the tract.

Mr. Earl Tracy, teacher of Porter School, is preparing a program to be given on Friday afternoon. Parents don't forget we were children once, and how happy it made us to see father and mother come in to hear us do our part, and really it makes the teacher feel as if he was really appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. La Barre will serve Christmas dinner at Log La Barre.

J. O. Botkins leaves tomorrow to spend the holidays with his father, Dr. O. S. Botkins, of Cherryville.

TO OUR FRIENDS:

ASSURING YOU that we have appreciated your many favors during the past year We extend to you our heartiest

Wishes for a MERRY XMAS and a HAPPY PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR
