

D. H. Brown of Portland, who owns two blocks north of the school campus, was in town yesterday looking after his property.

The W. C. T. U. meets at the home of Mrs. J. P. Woodle on Thursday, January 13th, at 2:30 p. m.

Choosing His Career.
Billy's father plays golf. Billy isn't big enough yet to swing the sticks, but he has definite ideas about what he will do when he becomes a big man, like his father.
Billy's playmates and boon companions are Eugene and Gladys. Billy is one of those little chaps that loot ahead and arrange things for the future. And this is Billy's future:
"Eugene and I are going to marry Gladys," said Billy the other day "But I won't be around home much. I'll be away most of the time playing golf."

A Dreadful Ordeal.
"I'll bet you're glad to get home from the war."
"I thought I would be, but I wish now I were back again in the trenches."
"Why?"
"I'm scared to death. Everywhere I go people want me to make speeches about the war."

In Doubt.
"How's your garden getting along?"
"If the green things coming up are flowers, it's fine; if they're weeds, it's terrible."

India to Conserve Timber.
The timber of India will be operated upon a gigantic system of conservation. None but the large timber will be cut at any time, and the methods of logging that will be selected will insure the least damage to the smaller trees. This is possible in the country, as it has never been possible in America, owing to the title to the timber being vested in the state, so that the operations can be conducted by the state on one national system, which will insure a perpetual source of revenue from the forest wealth.

Luxurious Modern Life.
"I suppose your motto is 'Make hay while the sun shines,'" remarked the summer boarder who tries to be genial.
"It used to be," answered Farmer Cornstossel. "But lately I have been a little bit careful not to mention sunshine for fear the hired man would insist on havin' extra help to hold an umbrella over him while he worked."

Not Far Off.
Harold and Harry are twins. One day Harry came into the house while his mother was upstairs.
Thinking it was Harold, she called: "Is that you, Harold?"
"No, mamma," replied Harry, "but I'm the next thing to him."

Overtime.
Tenderfoot—When the clock strikes 13 what time is it?
Second Class Scout—I really don't know. What?
Tenderfoot—Time for the clock to be fixed.—Boys' Life.
