Letter from South Dakota

Platte, S. Dak., Jan. 3, 1921.
EDITOR EAST CLACKAMAS NEWS:
Please find enclosed $1.50 for a year's subscription. I think you have been carrying us for a long while, for which we thank you. We are having fine winter here, for this country. Have had two hard snow storms, but it is all right again.

With best wishes to all the Estacada people,
W. D. HENTHORN.

Mr. Henthorn used to run a furniture store in the I. O. O. F. building now occupied by J. K. Ely

Hiccoughs Invade County

The first victim of the hiccough epidemic in the county, which is prevalent elsewhere, was Fred Miller County Clerk. Numerous remedies are proposed, in fact, like hay fever, everyone has his own. One of the simplest we have seen, is that of an old squaw who made the victim lie down and then raising his head applied a box of black pepper to his nostrils. This made him sneeze violently for some minutes and stopped the hiccoughs, so it is alleged. It seems probable.
