O. E. S. ENTERTAINS HIGH OFFICIAL

Last Thursday night Mountain Chapter, O. E. S., entertained Mrs. Ida Umbach, the grand worthy matron of the order in the state of Oregon. This was her first official visit to the local chapter and the members were all on the qui vive to make the occasion a notable one. They were a little nervous at the start, but as everything worked out smoothly they soon got over that. The work was put on with precision and they covered themselves with glory, and received a well deserved tribute of praise from their distinguished guest and official, who only found reason to make a few minor criticisms. After the exercises were over, a delightful luncheon was served by the ladies, which added the final touch to the evening's entertainment. Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John Greenwood, of Bull Run, Mrs. Alf Drill, of Portland, and O. C. Smith who happened to be home visiting his family.

Home Coming Night

Last Saturday night the Odd Fellows had a "Home Coming" celebration for all near and far Odd Fellows, many of whom came from adjoining towns. It was truly a delightful affair, as everyone enjoyed the occasion. It made them all feel the fraternal spirit which is so characteristic of the order, and which makes it so strong and popular with men and women. The proceedings closed with a sumptuous banquet, without which no such event would be complete, and all returned home feeling that they had (n) of the times of their lives, and proud of their membership in such a great order.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewing have moved from Chehalis, to 85 E. Adams St., Los Angeles.

Parent-Teacher Meet

The February meeting of the Estacada Parent Teacher Association will be held at the H. S. Auditorium, on Tuesday evening, Feb. 15. The main topic of the evening will be "How shall we maintain the present standard of our schools and insure further progress?" This topic will be presented by Mayor H. C. Stephens, C. E. Kilgore and F. E. Burns. There will also be a round table discussion on "Proper School Dress," conducted by Miss Vera Murray, of the high school. Music will be furnished by Estacada's best musical talent. It is hoped that the school patrons of Estacada, will turn out to this meeting, as the topics for discussion are vital to the future welfare of our school.

Priscillas Meet

The Priscilla Club, of Currinsville, met for the afternoon, one day last week, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Erickson. It being the regular time for the election of new officers, the following were elected: President, Jennie Saling; Vice President, Clara Boyer; Secretary and Treasurer, Gladys Hughes; Flower Committee, Clara Boyer, Edith Trowbridge and Rose Bartholomew. At the close of the meeting a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, and the club was invited to meet with Marie Heiple for the March meeting.

Small Claims Court

S. E. Wooster, J. P., is qualifying so that he can hold a small claims court. This is for sums under $20. Anyone who has a claim against another for less than that sum, can bring it into this court on the payment of only $1.50. This constitutes all of the expense.

Road Bonds

A message from O. D. Eby, of Oregon City, states that the road bond issue is completely validated, and that the road building program will be carried out as intended, when the issue was voted.

A Lesson and a Warning

Manager Linn presents Saturday night, one of the most thrilling and spectacular plays ever shown here.

The story concerns the adventures of Maddie Irwin, a pretty, unworldly country miss, who has longed through her life for the gayety of New York, and who, after her marriage with Fred Worthington, a wealthy New Yorker, persuades her husband to take her to the city and lead her through the giddy whirl of life he has renounced.

The usual price for this number is 50 cents, but that everyone may see it, Mr. Linn will only charge 25 cents admission.

Shot Cougar

Joe Nichols came down last Thursday from Timothy Meadow, bringing with him the head and skin of a mountain lion which was shot by Fred Bannister, with a 44-caliber revolver. It was up a tree when he first shot and wounded it. It came down and went up another tree, where Mr. Bannister again shot and killed it. It measured eight feet from tip to tip, and was in a very fat condition.

The skin was on exhibition in the window of Mr. Dale's store.

An Exciting Experience

Ed. Boner had a thrill Friday night when coming home with the school debating team from West Linn. After passing Clackamas about a mile, the water was running over the road and caused the car to swerve to the side and threatened to upset it. Fortunately it righted itself, but Boner says he had a genuine scare for a few moments.

School Debate Report

We have received a very excellent report of the debates held here and at West Linn last Friday night. As our space was almost filled up when we received it, we shall publish it next week, as it is too good to curtail.

ANNUAL PLAY BY E. H. S. STUDENTS

"Sally Lunn," the Annual Student Body Play, will be presented in the High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock, Feb. 14. The cast has been chosen from the entire student body, and is thought to represent the best dramatic talent in the school. The characters chosen are as follows:

Mrs. John Randolph—Irene Saling.

Marjorie Randolph—Lydia Matson.

John Randolph—Andrew Janssen.

Leo Randolph—Walter Matson.

Mrs. Penelope Winslow—Helen Wooster.

Vivian Winslow—Gladys Stamp
Morton Glynn—Rae Lovelace.

The play is a comedy in two acts. It raises the curiosity and excitement of the audience to a high pitch—when a startling discovery clears the air, and, as all good stories end,—well, come and see it for yourself.

A half hour of music, furnished by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs, besides some solo numbers, will be worth the price of admission alone.

The proceeds from the play are for the benefit of the athletic fund, which at present shows a deficit.

City Library Entertainment

A motion picture and folk-dance entertainment will be given at the High School Auditorium, on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, at 8 o'clock in the evening. This public entertainment is given for the purpose of adding to the funds of the City Library and the H. S. student-body, respectively. A five-reel motion picture will be shown, and this will be supplemented by Folk-dances by high school and grammar school girls, under the direction of Miss Josephine Connors and Miss Vera Murray.

M. F. Morgan, of Juliette, Idaho, is visiting his mother, Mrs. A. Saling.
