ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1921

$1.50 PER YEAR

LURID FLAMES LIT UP MIDNIGHT SKY

For the second time within nine months, Estacada has had a big fire. About 11:30 Monday night, Fred Brown who was sitting up with a sick child, heard an explosion, and on looking out discovered that the old livery barn between 1st and 2nd streets was on fire. He promptly gave the alarm, but the flames had got too much headway before the advent of the fire brigade, that the only thing to do was to confine the blaze to the building.

The boys did good work under the direction of J. V. Barr, and kept the flames from spreading to an old house adjoining, belonging to William Dale. A big crowd soon assembled at the scene, and the sight was well worth watching, as the flames presented a weird aspect as they leaped and tossed in fiery waves athwart the midnight sky. Unfortunately two trucks belonging to A. Sagner and another owned by Ivan Lacey, as well as a car of A. Heidlen's were in the barn and were destroyed. These carried some insurance, and the barn which belonged to A. Morrow of Portland, was covered by $300 insurance. The origin of the explosion which caused the fire is unknown, and the damage is estimated at about $10,000.

Farm Bureau Meeting

George L. Gray, representative of the American Farm Bureau will address a meeting tomorrow, Friday, afternoon in the Family Theatre, at 1:30. He spoke at Garfield Monday afternoon and at George yesterday afternoon, and gained the reputation of being a singularly effective speaker.

Basket Ball

A basket ball game of boys and girls will be played in the park pavilion tomorrow evening, between Estacada and Hillsboro high schools, admission 30 and 20 cents.

Library Benefit

As stated in this paper last week, in order to raise funds to carry on the expenses of the Estacada public library, arrangements have been made for an entertainment Feb. 22, at the high school auditorium. The program will be as follows: Folk dance by small girls, directed by Miss Josephine Connors; one reel picture for the children; Miss Ruth Dillon will then render a vocal solo, after which a five-reel comedy picture, entitled "La La Lucile" will be shown. Another folk dance by older girls will follow the screen picture and there will be plenty of instrumental music to add pleasure to the entertainment. "La La Lucile" is a tremendous comedy hit, scored by Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran, comedy favorites of the films, supported by a capable cast. The high school will receive a third of the proceeds. Admission—adults 35c, children 20c. The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock p. m. Come.

Basket Ball News

Two basket ball teams went from here to Beaverton last Friday. One was the High School boy's team and the other the girls. The former proved to be the better for they won over the Beaverton boys by a score of 24 to 19, and it was a thrilling game from start to finish. Afterwards the girls tackled the Beaverton girls but lost the game by a score of 28 to 2 in favor of Beaverton.

Community Club

The next monthly meeting of the Community Club will take place Friday evening, Feb. 25th, at the hotel Estacada. Entertainment will be furnished by the Currinsville district and a speaker from Portland. The Fair committee will present its report. The full program will be given next week.

Park Pavilion Dance

Douglass Drill announces a dance for Saturday night in the park pavilion, to begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Rebekahs Entertained

Last Wednesday night the local order of Rebekahs entertained their past noble grands, by a program of amusements after the regular lodge ceremonies and a delightful banquet supper. The committee in charge did themselves proud with the elaborate decorations and arrangements of the dining hall. At a long table in the center of the room were seated the thirteen past noble grands and small tables were arranged in a circle around them from which pretty decorations from the ceiling added a charming effect. The St. Valentine scheme was carried out in the decorations and it was a jolly company which enjoyed the sumptuous repast.

Some Valentine

W. F. Cary, our well-known real estate man reports receiving the second finest Valentine in his life. The first was his wife, whose name is Valentine, as she was born on St. Valentine's Day, and the second, a little daughter whom the stork left Monday morning at his home.

Invitation

The pupils and teachers of the Grade School invite their patrons to be present at the Grade School auditorium, at 1:30 p. m. Monday, February 21, when they will commemorate the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks to our many friends for their kindness during the sickness and death of our darling baby, Anna Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Surfus and relatives.

Christian Church

Elder J. O. Staats the regular pastor of the Christian Church, will hold services Sunday both morning and evening, at 11 and 7:30.

Eagle Creek Dance

The W. O. W. will give a dance in Cogswell's hall, a week from Saturday night, beginning at 8:30.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY WELL RECEIVED

A full auditorium greeted the High school players when they put on their annual play, last Monday night. They had been coached by Miss Helen John who may certainly be pleased with the result of her efforts. The play itself was well within the range of the performers' ability, and the stage setting tastefully executed.

"Sally Lunn" is a clean comedy, and deals with the amusing way in which, through a chapter of accidents, the young bride of a middle aged widower, becomes acquainted with her ready made family who are older than she had been led to expect.

Irene Saling took the leading part and proved herself some actress when gravely imparting sage advice to her younger stepson on the advisability of liking his teacher. Walter Matson who took the latter role, was the typical 17 year old who is a trial to his correct college brother and sister. Lydia Matson as the sister, who has been involved in an escapade, afforded much amusement and carried her part with ease, as did also Gladys Stamp, as the swell Miss Winslow. Helen Wooster as the haughty dowager scanned all corners through her lorgnette to the manner born while Andrew Janssen took off the Yale junior who prided himself on his model deportment. Rae Lovelace as another Yale junior, was in his element when threatening to knock the block off the other fellow. All spoke their lines with ease and showed but little self consciousness.

Between the acts the girls' and boys' glee clubs sang pleasing selections. The sale of tickets amounted to nearly $100. The editor of the NEWS offers those concerned his heartiest congratulations.

Lovell vs. Lovell

The above divorce case was tried yesterday at Oregon City and the application was not granted for lack of evidence.
