

To Bid Farewell

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McQuown of Garfield, assembled at their home Wednesday afternoon, April 6, as they are about to leave for Baker county. Those present were, Mesdames E. J. Yocum, Archie Yocum and daughter, L. J. Palmateer, H. D. Trapp, M. Rix, N. M. Tracy, John Hulm, Annie Johnson, Clema Crawford, Julia Califf, Charlie Califf, Tom Beebe, Misses Hermina Zipple, Marie Adlon and Lavina Crawford. Light refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served and all expressed their regret at losing these estimable people.

BORN—At the Good Samaritan Hospital, Portland, April 11, 1921, to Mr. and Otis W. Vallen a son "Jesse Wayne."

Masons Obtain Site

Estacada Lodge of Masons has this week completed the purchase from M. J. Kerkes of the two lots on Broadway, on which they expect eventually to erect a modern business building with lodge rooms upstairs. The lots are the one now occupied by the butcher shop and the one immediately south thereof, including a half interest in the party wall of the Dale store building.

A Star(r) Baby

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Starr, will be glad to learn that an eight pound son arrived for them at the Lovelace hospital, this morning, April 14, 1921. Dr. R. G. McCall, the attending physician, reports both mother and child as doing well.

We do Job Printing.

Cattle Men Attention!

The Oregon Estacada Cattle Growers' Association held a meeting in the Garfield Grange hall April 2, and elected officers: President, R. E. Davis. Anyone running cattle on the national forest, can join the same by writing to R. E. Davis, Estacada. All cattle men should join, as the association passes upon the breed of bulls to run on the range.

The forest service has commenced opening up the trail and repairing the telephone line for the coming season. Trail signs are being placed at all forks of the trail, giving mileage to next place.

County Superintendent Vedder, from Oregon City, was visiting the schools in this section last Tuesday.
