

Gresham has New Garage

C. I. Raker & Son have moved into their garage building on Powell street, and are ready for business. In fact they have been so busy that they have found it difficult to get their new quarters ready for business.

The building is undoubtedly the best in Gresham, and is said to be the finest equipped Ford garage found anywhere on the Pacific coast, if not in the entire country. Every possible convenience for the expeditious handling of repair and service work is included in the equipment of the building which represents a cost of $40,000.

An experienced corps of workers is on hand ready to serve the public at all times. C. I. Raker and son, E. W. Raker, have general supervision of the garage and business, as well as the Estacada garage, and are busy all the time.

Ward Inglis will be in charge of the parts and accessory department. Mr. Inglis recently came here from Estacada to handle this line of work.—Gresham Outlook.

American Legion Notes

Anyone noticing the especially happy smile adorning the face of past post commander Lawrence, is informed that the cause thereof is not that one of his Jerseys has crowded all the record breakers off the map. No sir, nothing ordinary like that. The cause is that the Carl Douglass Post is now the possessor of a beautiful stand of colors. Past commander Lawrence's great ambition was to have our post so equipped, but it was not until well toward the end of his term that the post treasury could stand the strain. The stand of colors had to be made up after being ordered and it has just recently arrived.

At the last regular meeting, three men from state headquarters gave us a visit. Comrade E. J. Eivers, state adjutant, explained the bonus bill to the men. He strongly advises against the acceptance of the cash feature by men who can use a loan. It is hoped the people will pass this bill at the June election, for it means a greater and better Oregon.

Anyone needing help is asked to get in touch with Charles B. Rucker, 170 Fourth St., Portland, Oregon.
