VIOLA

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibb were out from Portland Sunday to visit relatives here.

C. Collard is building a new home. He is living in the parsonage at present.

Archie Mattoon, wife and baby are at the home of J. Mattoon where he is farming at present.

Mr. Braasch's house caught on fire near the chimney and burnt quite a hole in the roof before it was extinguished by some of his neighbors on Saturday. It was a narrow escape.

John Mattoon is expected home today. He has been under the care of a specialist in Portland for the past week. He is improving we are glad to report. Hope he will soon be well again.

The county has ordered the road from the store to the end of J. Sevier's land be widened, so the men who are working on it have taken ten feet off the land of Sevier, Miller and Mattoon and torn down the fences.

While blasting stumps on the new road Saturday, a large stump, roots, rocks and dirt fell on J. Sevier's woodshed and made a large hole in the roof and also cracked a panel of the house door at the back. Some carelessness there.

Dr. and Mrs. Crockwell of Woodmere, Portland, on Sunday gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sevier's 38th wedding anniversary. They also invited Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Greening of Portland. All had a pleasant time.
