UPPER EAGLE CREEK

David Lindgren, who was felling a tree on the Matt Glover place, was instantly killed Tuesday morning by it falling on him. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon. He was a bachelor and leaves a brother, Chas. Lindgren.

Eagle Creek Grange met as usual Saturday, with 33 patrons in attendance. There were about 50 present, including visitors and children. After partaking of a fine dinner, Grange was called to order by the W. M., H. M. Duus. As the time was short and much business to attend to, three candidates were obligated in the third and fourth degrees, and one candidate obligated in the first and second degrees. A short program was rendered. Among the visitors were James Bell, Mrs. W. H. Wade and Ed. Chapman. The Grange is planning for the annual May picnic, which will occur on the 21st of May. Everyone attending the picnic is promised a good time. The committee is expecting to secure a fine speaker for the occasion. Besides the excellent program which is being prepared there will probably be some side issues. There will be a dance at Cogswell's hall in the evening. Everybody welcome. Bring your dinner and enjoy the day. Remember the date, May 21, 1921.
