

Peck-Cahill

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Peck announce the marriage of their daughter, Doris Jane, to Joseph M. Cahill, Wednesday May 4th. The wedding was quietly solemnized in the study of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Clarence Weyer, officiating.

Mrs. Cahill has spent all her girlhood in Tacoma, and is an attractive and charming girl. She is a graduate of Lincoln high school, where she took a prominent part in all school activities.

Mr. Cahill is an ex-service man, being of the first young men to answer his country's call. He saw active service on the Mexican border, and later was stationed at Camp Lewis, and was in the officers' training school at Camp Grant, Ill., when the armistice was signed.

Both young people have a host of friends who will be interested in their marriage, which is the outcome of a romance begun during Cahill's service at Camp Lewis. After a short motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Cahill will be at home at 116 East Wright avenue, the residence of the bride's parents, until the first of June, when they will take a cottage at American lake for the summer. —Tacoma News-Tribune.

The groom has many friends in this vicinity who will offer him the heartiest congratulations, and wish him and his bride, a prosperous voyage o'er the sea of matrimony.

Mothers' Day

Mothers' Day was appropriately observed at the Methodist church. Rev. Dunlop delivered a very impressive sermon and the choir rendered music appropriate for the occasion, one selection being a solo by Miss Ruth Dillon, "Tell Mother I'll be There," in which the choir joined in the chorus. Rev. Dunlop also sang a solo. Mrs. R. C. Deming was the organist. The pulpit presented a pretty appearance with its decorations of white and red blossoms, and narcissus blossoms were generously distributed to the congregation.
