

Alumni Banquet

On Saturday evening of last week at the Hotel Estacada the annual banquet, reunion and business meeting of the Alumni Association of the Estacada high school was held. Covers were laid for forty-eight, with simple but charmingly effective table decorations, of baby breath and yellow iris in basket arrangement.

Lloyd Saling as president and chairman, welcomed the graduating class of the high school, strongly urging that they become active and interested members of the association. The response on behalf of the class of 1921, was given by Raymond Lovelace. Superintendent Burns further urged that the alumni and incoming class retain their interest in school affairs and make the most of these annual reunions as a means of retaining ties of friendship. A resume of the progress of the high school during the past year, was given with statistics proving conclusively what a vital part of the school the more recently added departments have become, inasmuch as a predominating per cent of the students manifest their desire for a practical education, by enrolling in either manual training, domestic science or commerce.

The musical numbers given by the boys' quartet, Messrs. Dale, Lovelace, Burns and Saling, accompanied by Miss Murray, were well received.

Lloyd Ewalt spoke appreciatively of the splendid records attained by two of our members, Lewis Jones and Chester Womer in college forensics, then moved that the association offer some trophy as a stimulus to vitalize the interest in debating and oratorical activities in the high school.

The following officers for the ensuing year were unanimously elected: President, Leila Howe, class of '16; vice-president, Raymond Lovelace class '21; secretary, Rachaël Deming class 13; treasurer, Dorris Lovell class 13; reporter, Gladys Graham class 16; executive committee, Clyde Denny of '17, Carrie Hannah of '18 and Lydia Matson of '21.

Loyal Temperance Legion

Mrs. Hannah, president of the W. C. T. U. of Estacada, organized a Loyal Temperance Legion May 17. The first meeting was splendidly attended and the following officers were elected for three months: President, Florence Hassell; vice-president, Etta McWillis; secretary, Albert Belfils; treasurer, Arlene Kimmel; organist, Etta McWillis; librarians, Loretta Ritchey and Walter Smith. The members chose sides and are earnestly working for new members. Any child under fifteen years is eligible to join. Next meeting will be May 31, in basement of the M. E. church.

Good music and best of order at Hauser's dance Saturday night in the Park Pavilion.
