

OUR SLOGAN:

Community Cooperation

KEEP YOUR EYE
ON ESTACADA!

Eastern Clackamas News

Devoted to the Interests of Eastern Clackamas County

VOLUME 14, NUMBER 37

ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1921

$1.50 PER YEAR

MEMORIAL DAY IN ESTACADA

Nature was in tune with the occasion and furnished ideal weather. It was kept in Estacada as a holiday, the stores generally being closed, except for a short period in the morning. A number of visitors from outside points were present, either visiting with friends or coming for the day. The exercises took place in the park, where an assembly of about three hundred gathered around band stand. The Carl Douglas post of the American Legion arranged for the program with R. G. Deming as master of ceremonies, Burtchett's orchestra played an overture and the Rev. J. F. Dunlop offered the invocation. The singing of the national anthem followed, after which Mayor Stephens was introduced to make some remarks, which he did, dwelling on the meaning of the day and its observances, a flag drill by a number of school children under the direction of Miss Leila Howe, proved a very pleasing spectacle and the little girls certainly deserve credit for their work. Those who took part were: Velma Rhodes, Helen Krigbaum, Helen Carter, Bessie Huxley, Lorretta Ritchey, Emma Wilcox, Mabel Weaver, Ethel Hayman, Lucille Saunders, Ora McKenney, Alta Darrow, Charlotte Brown, Nettie Finch, Florence Hassell, Myrtle Petley, Lilace DeShields, Lillian Dunban, Eugenia Dubois.

An instrumental number was then played, and "Flanders Fields" was read by Mrs. Morton Moore. The speaker of the day was then introduced, O. D. Eby, of Oregon City, who gave an eloquent address tracing the history of the day. He held his audience and was warmly applauded at its close. The program concluded with the singing of America by the audience. The G. A. R. was represented on the stand by Ed. Bates, Joel Bowman and W. W. Davis, and the Spanish War veterans by Thos. Young, of Garfield.

The graves in Lone Oak cemetery were beautifully decorated and numbers visited them during the day.

Additional Brevities

The park was well patronized by picnickers, Monday.

Ken Bartlett was home for Memorial Day, from Seattle.

We are glad to see that Charles Dubois is able to be out and around on the streets.

Mrs. Earl Shibley and children went to Portland, Monday evening for a visit with relatives.

A bunch of Mazamas arrived Saturday afternoon to spend the week the week-end on a hike.

Messrs. Harry Snyder and Earl Kilgore of the People's store spent Sunday and Monday in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Wood of Portland, were Sunday guests at the home of Dr. and Mr. L. A. Wells.

The Rev. J. O. Staats of Oregon City, will preach both morning and evening in the Christian Church on Sunday.

Mesdames F. E. Burns, J. Kreiger and E. E. Saling, were on the nine o'clock train bound for Portland, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wooster accompanied by Helen Wooster and Raymond Lovelace, drove to The Dalles, Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Rowe and baby daughter, of Portland, were week-end guests of Mrs. Rowe's parents, Mr. and M. J. Kerkes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Duus left on Monday for Eugene where they will attend the Oregon State Grange as delegates from Eagle Creek Grange. They made the trip by auto.

The call of the wild to the city dweller was strong last week end, as the trains on this line testified, being loaded to the gunwale with excursionists bound for forest and stream. The trains carried extra coaches.

There was a family reunion at the home of J. V. Barr, Monday. At the dinner there were James Freeman and family from Huber, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Herman, of Portland, Charles Kitching and family, also Sam Barr and family.

A collision between two Fords, on Broadway, in front of Dale's store, last Saturday morning, caused a temporary excitement. It was due to one of them making a turn. The front wheels of both cars, were twisted. Signs have now been put up at the corners of this block forbidding turning in it.

Stewart Hislop and wife, Mrs. Inez Greenleaf, and two daughters, came down from Portland, Saturday, to spend Sunday and Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hislop, at the Syren and Symms homes. It made quite a family reunion and all enjoyed a picnic dinner in the park Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gill, of Duffur, Eastern Oregon, with their two little daughters, arrived Monday to visit Mrs. Gill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dale. They were on their way to Eugene to attend the convention of the State Grange and left their children with grandparents while they were gone. They expect to return Saturday.

Honor the Flag

One thing to be regretted Monday, was, that when the American Legion marched down Broadway to the park, few men uncovered as the flag passed by. While this disrespect was unintentional, yet it should be rebuked, as it is a mark of ignorance or disloyalty. Next time remember, hats off to the flag, and if you have little boys with you, see that their hats are taken off likewise. Ladies will give a hand salute.

Community Picnic

The picnic of the Community Club held in the park last Friday evening, proved a very happy affair. There was a good representative attendance, and the program was carried out in the main, as announced last week. The club is living up to its name as a social binder, and much of its success is due to the indefatigable efforts of its president, H. C. Stephens.

Benefit Dance

Saturday night, beginning at 8:30, in the I. O. O. F. Hall, a benefit dance will be given by a committee of Rebekahs. All Odd Fellows and friends are invited to come and have a good time. The eats will be unexcelled and a number of pies have been promised to be put up for auction. Admission, gentlemen, 50 cents; ladies, 25 cents.

CAR OVERTURNS NEAR FAIRVIEW

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Krigbaum, Mrs. H. Tracy and little grandson, Harry Wooster, were being driven along the Columbia Highway last Tuesday evening, by Bulger Krigbaum in his new Studebaker Light 6. When they were approaching Fairview the car suddenly went over the side of the road and fell into a slough, the drop being about fifteen feet and the water five or six feet deep. How it happened does not seem to be quite clear. It is thought that the driver's attention was momentarily taken off the wheel when looking for the turn of the road and that unconsciously he might have turned the wheel. Fortunately the accident was seen and help summoned, otherwise there might have been some fatalities. Mrs. Krigbaum was badly hurt across the chest, Mrs. Tracy considerably bruised and both suffered from their immersion in the cold and muddy water. The men were not hurt particularly, but the worst victim was little Harry Wooster, who came near being drowned. A doctor from Gresham was summoned who worked over him for several hours and he is now convalescent. The car was damaged but not so seriously that it cannot be easily repaired.

Farewell Party

The Priscilla club had its May meeting at the home of Mrs. Frankie Yount. It was in the form of a farewell to Mrs. Yount and her niece Edith, who are leaving about June 1st for their new home in Colorado. They were each presented with a little gift as a token of esteem and best wishes of the members. They will be greatly missed, not only by the club, but also the entire community.

Big dance at Cogswell's hall, Eagle Creek, Saturday night, June 4. Portland orchestra will furnish music and dancing begins promptly at 8:30.