The Legitimate Coming

As an agreeable change from moving pictures, Manager Linn has secured for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of the coming week, the Lee Stock Company, which is composed of artists from the well-known Baker Stock Company from Portland. Snappy specialties, popular songs, clever monologues, classical readings and good wholesome comedies constitute their repertoire. Among the last are such well-known plays, as "Boss of Z Ranch," "The Northerner," "Powers that Be," and others of the same class. Prices will be exceedingly reasonable for a metropolitan attraction of high art reputation. There will be no trying waits between the acts and every evening will be one of healthy amusement.

Picnic Party

Mrs. Walter Wismer, of Hillsboro, Ore., drove to Bissel on Memorial day to decorate the graves of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Held. Twelve machines from Hillsboro, Bethany and Rock Creek, containing about seventy people, accompanied her, and all enjoyed a picnic lunch in Wm. Held's beautiful grove.

The Rebekahs entertained the children last night at the lodge rooms. There were 40 present and they were treated to ice cream, cake and lemonade. Games were played and all had a good time.

Baby Girl Drowns

A sad fatality occurred yesterday morning about eleven o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pederson, Springwater. Mrs. Pederson had gone out to the barn, and left her children playing in the yard. A wash boiler with about three inches of water in it, was standing on the grass, and the younger child, a little fifteen months old girl, evidently went to it to investigate. She fell head and face downward into the boiler, so that her mouth was under the water, and smothered before her mother could get to her, when called by the other child. The baby was only in the water about five minutes. Dr. McCall was immediately summoned and arrived in about half an hour, and worked over the child for an hour or more, but all efforts were unavailing. The parents have the deep sympathy of all their friends, in which the NEWJ joins. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Springwater Presbyterian church.

Luncheon Party

Mrs. Phil Standish gave a delightful luncheon at her apartments in Portland one day last week, in honor of Mrs. Robert Link Smith and twin daughters, of Colton, California. The rooms were very tastily decorated in marigolds and a three-course luncheon was served. Those present were, Mrs. Smith and daughters, Mrs. C. P. Wellman of Palo Alto, Calif., Mrs. Minnie Smith of Michigan, aunt of Mr. Standish, Mrs. R. M. Standish, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Bates of Portland, Miss Medora Steele, Mrs. Bartlett, the hostess and young son Miles Standish Jr.

Society Notes

A very enjoyable affair was the party on Monday afternoon when Mrs. Theo Ahlberg entertained for Mrs. Robt. Smith and daughters, of Colton, California. Those present were: Mrs. Robt. Smith and daughters, Mrs. E. W. Bartlett, Mrs. Wellman, Mrs. L. A. Wells and children, Mrs. R. C. Deming and children, Mrs. James Smith and son, Mrs. Bartholomew and daughter, Mrs. Lovelace, Mrs. A. Sparks, Mrs. R. G. McCall, Mrs. W. J. Morse, and the hostess and son, Theodore, Jr.

C. L. Allen is still confined to the house, and does not seem to improve.

Obituary

H. H. Hoffmeister, a well known and prominent resident of Eagle Creek, died at the home of his son John Hoffmeister of Damascus, June 3, 1921. Mr. Hoffmeister came to Oregon in 1876 and has resided in this vicinity ever since. Four sons and one daughter survive him: Fred and David Hoffmeister of Eagle Creek, Henry and John Hoffmeister of Damascus, and Mrs. Lily Ehmsen of Kellogg, Idaho. Mr. Hoffmeister was a faithful member of the Eagle Creek Grange, having held the office of treasurer for many years. The funeral service was held at the Eagle Creek church, Monday afternoon, Rev. Brown of the Gresham Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was in the Forrester cemetery, the Eagle Creek grange taking charge of the services at the grave.

First Shipment

S. Pesznecker took his first load of chair legs and rungs to Portland, Monday. These are made out of maple, which Mr. Pesznecker sawed and turned himself. This promises to develop into a profitable industry. Mr. Pesznecker wishes to announce that he will run a threshing machine this season. He is an expert thresher, having learned his trade in Hungary, which is one of the largest grain producing countries of the world, and has a government certificate to his efficiency.

Birthday Fete

Miss Mildred Douglass was eighteen years old Saturday, and to properly celebrate the event, she had a house party Saturday night and Sunday, the girl members of the graduation class being her guests. In connection with this, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass, planned and very cleverly carried out a "surprise" party for Saturday night, which was held at the country home of her grandmother, Mrs. Viola Douglass. Dancing was the order of amusement, the evening's festivities including a most delightful lunch. Nearly a hundred enjoyed this most pleasant event.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Margaret Bard, who for the last two months has been staying with her son, W. A. Bard, of Springwater, is in very precarious health, and gradually growing weaker. As she is 76 years old, her friends are much concerned over her condition.

8TH GRADE GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

The eighth grade graduating exercises held at Chatauqua park Gladstone, Friday, was attended by people from all parts of the county. Diplomas were given to 400 pupils and the presentation was one of the prettiest sights ever seen in the auditorium. All the girls were dressed in white and the boys in dark suits. About 2500 people of the county attended the presentation. The program rendered follows:

Announcements, County School Superintendent; song, "America," eighth grade led by O. A. Schultz; flag salute, 8th grade, solo, "A Perfect Day," Eugene Vedder; song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," 8th grade class; address, Attorney J. Dean Butler; solo, "The Bandolero," Eugene Vedder; presentation of diplomas, Co. Supt. Brenton Vedder; song, "Star Spangled Banner," audience. Lunch, sports.

Attorney J. Dean Butler, a former teacher in the Philippines, gave a splendid talk on the islands. The afternoon was spent in watching the ball game between the teachers and the 8th grade pupils, which resulted in a victory for the teachers. The score was 7 to 3. Oregon City Enterprise.

The Estacada graduates were: Maurice Bullard, Iva Douglass, Harvey Woodworth, Leta Posson, George Rose, Jack Watson, Harry Sarver, Ruth Day, Edmund Saling, Johanna Lichthorn, Chester Reid, Harold Sarver, Edna Petley, Leo Pesznecker, Glenn Ely, Lester Underwood, Gertrude Fink, Harold Widman, Victoria Dubois, Ardella Dunlop, Harry Osborne, Richard Hayman, Mary Alice Reed, Warren Smith.

Local Bank Honored

The Estacada State Bank has been designated by the state treasurer as one of the depositories for state funds. This confirms what we all knew, that the bank is all right.

S. E. Wooster received the sad intelligence last week, that his great niece, Miss Goldie Ford of Union, Nebraska, had been accidentally shot which caused her death.

R. G. Marchbank with his family drove to Woodburn and Salem yesterday on business.
