ORDER OF PARADE FOURTH OF JULY

Parade will form promptly at 9:30 A. M. on road near school house, head of parade on top of hill, and will start at 10 A. M.

Order of march: Civil war Veterans; American Legion; Spanish American war Veterans; Odd Fellows; Artisans; Rebekahs; School children; tanks, freak entries, floats and displays, automobiles. Note—Immediately following the parade, the Odd Fellows will give their drill maneuver.

Prizes: Prizes will be given for the most original and best decorated float, the best decorated automobile, the oddest freak and the most original entry made by a boy or girl under fifteen years of age.

Judges: Three judges have been appointed to decide the above awards. These judges have been requested to serve because they are both disinterested and capable and their decisions will be final.

We wish to extend an invitation to everyone to enter. Come in your automobile, decorated or undecorated, on horseback, bicycle or afoot, but anyway come and march with us.

CARL DOUGLAS POST.

Distinguished Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Irvine of Portland, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Esther MacDonald, who is Mrs. Irvine's niece. Mr. Irvine is the eminent editor of the Oregon Journal and ranks as second to none in the state, and is much in demand as a public speaker. This is all the more remarkable as he lost his sight some years ago. But with his wife's able assistance, he keeps thoroughly abreast with all the issues of the day. In this he resembles Henry Fawcett, who was one of the best Postmaster-Generals England ever had. He lost his sight from an accidental shot while out shooting when a university student, but it made no difference, he graduated with honors and attained a distinguished career subsequently in parliament and the British cabinet.

The NEWS acknowledges the honor of a pleasant call from Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Saturday afternoon. Mrs. MacDonald took her guests out to Log La Barre Sunday.

Change of Management

As will be seen from our advertising columns, W. E. Linn gives up the management of the Family Theater, and A. E. Sparks, the owner of the building, will take hold. Mr. Linn has catered well to the public in the matter of entertainment, and A. E. Sparks proposes to go him one better, if possible. The change takes place tomorrow.

Estacada to Have Cannery

Steps were taken last Monday evening to start a cannery here to take care of the fruit this season. Further particulars will be given next week.

Playground Benefit

National Song

(July Fourth)

Our hearts are the hearts of the yeomen
Who stood with such resolute mien,
And bullet for bullet gave foemen
That day upon Lexington Green;
Our praises are still for the freemen
Who signed and wrought tyranny's knell;
And still is our glee for the gleemen
Who rang the old Liberty Bell!

We never have fought with the craven
For wrong; though it stood on a throne;
We never have flocked with the raven;
Our bird is the eagle alone!
Our banner, may none wave above it
Atop of the tapering spars,
Is the red, white and blue—how we love it—
Its stripes and its spangle of stars!

CLUB ADJOURNS UNTIL FALL

The annual meeting of the Community club for the election of officers last Friday evening, was one of the best of the series and formed a fitting climax to the year's activities. A good representative attendance was present and after the preliminary routine and business had been concluded, the election took place. H. C. Stephens was deservedly elected to succeed himself as president. This will be his third term, for he has held this office since the formation of the club. He has given a great deal of his time and work to its affairs, and the success of the club has been in a great measure due to his indefatigable efforts. Fred Bartholomew was chosen for vice-president and Earl Kilgore succeeds R. C. Deming as secretary, and J. K. Ely becomes treasurer. After the election a program was rendered that was delightful. Miss Nova Smith played a piano solo, and then was given the story of our national songs and their relation to the periods in which they originated, illustrated by characters in costume. Miss Ruth Dillon was responsible for this interesting feature, which included a brief historical sketch of each period, read by Miss Leila Howe, while Miss Dillon led the singing. The periods treated were as follows:

Indian: Glen Ely and Vernon Ames appeared in Indian dress. Colonial: Leta Posson and Herbert Dunlop represented George and Martha Washington and "Yankee Doodle" was sung. American: Showed Mary Alice Reed and Ardella Dunlop dressed in the national colors and "The Star Spangled Banner" sung.

Civil War: Showed Wald o DeMoy and Ted Howe as the Blue and Gray. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Dixie" were sung.

Immigrants: Various nationalities were taken by Virginia Dubois, Retha Ames, Mary Ely, Gertrude Fink, Emma Gates, Erma Jones, Florence June Reed, Edna Petley, Etta McWillis, Evelyn Bacon and Carrie Hannah. Songs sung were "Home Sweet Home," "Old Folks at Home" and others.

The Spanish war period produced no great songs, only the music hall ditty, "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

The world war period showed Ray Lovelace as a boy in khaki and Helen Wooster as a Red Cross nurse. "The Long, Long Trail" was sung.

For the grand finale, "America" was most appropriately chosen and sung with vim and vigor by the whole audience.

Those who took part in this most interesting number deserve the highest praise. The remainder of the evening was passed in social intercourse, while punch and cookies were served as light refreshments.

Vote for Goddess of Liberty

The contest closes Saturday at 9 p. m. so make haste and insure your favorite getting elected. Your vote may do the trick.

The vote at 9 a. m. today was Ruby Hull 371, Audrey Linn 165, Helen Wooster 122, Gladys Miller 25, Wilma Duncan 25, Bertha Burns 11, Ruth Blaisdell 10, Pearl Fantz 1.

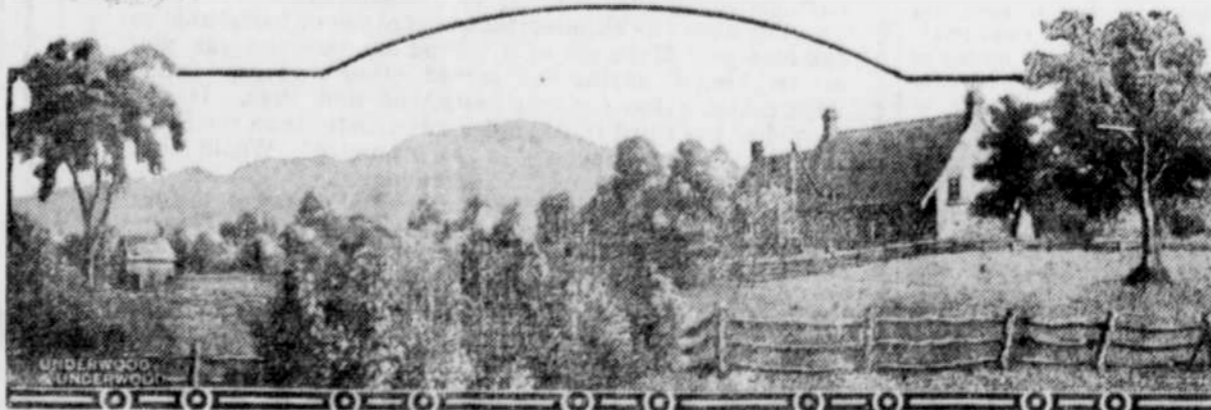

Notice Ex-servie Men

All Ex-servie Men are asked to appear in uniforms, July 4th, and be on hand for the parade not later than 9 a. m. This applies to all Ex-servie Men, whether Legion men or not.

Base Ball
