Additional Brevities

Mrs. J. E. Boner is visiting friends at Winlock, Wash.

Mrs. Al. Havens of Portland, was a guest at the Heylman home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Gurber of Portland, were week-end guests at the home of Clark Possen.

The J. W. Dowty residence near Eagle Creek, is being beautified by a fresh coat of paint.

Floyd H. Ewalt, a graduate of the Estacada High School, but now of Gervais, Oregon, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Shibley contemplate moving back to their farm at Springwater after they return from their outing.

A wooden awning has been put up in front of the barber shop and S. E. Wooster's office. Matt Lonsberry is doing the work.

Dr. McCall has divided his reception office by the erection of a partition. He is expected to return from his vacation next week.

Otis Wagner is spending his time nowadays, in learning to manage a new chevrolet, which he purchased from the Cascade Garage.

Charles Dubois went to St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, the beginning of the week, where he will undergo an operation, probably to-day.

The employees of the Piedmont car barns and their families enjoyed a picnic in the park yesterday. A special train of ten cars brought them here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore and Miss Florence Kendall left today for an outing up in the mountains at Cary's Hot Springs. They expect to be gone ten days.

Mrs. L. C. Possen and daughter Leta went Monday forenoon to Portland. Mrs. Possen returned Tuesday leaving Leta to spend the week visiting with friends.

J. W. Dowty visited his friend Judge Dimick, on his farm up the valley, last Sunday. He reports that an interesting sight at this place, was a flock of 5000 young chickens.

Wendell Mills the boy evangelist, closed his meetings Sunday and left Monday morning. He is very proficient in the scriptures, being able to recite long portions of them.

Estacada Cannery

We paid a visit to the cannery last Monday afternoon, and found the force busy putting up loganberries in gallon cans. So far, red raspberries, black caps and loganberries have been the only fruit put up. It is very interesting to watch the process, and it is wonderful how the work is simplified by the aid of machinery. One thing which struck us was the quality of the berries which were being canned. These could not be surpassed anywhere, and should command a ready sale.

Playground Free

No charge will be made for children to attend the playground for the remainder of the summer. Out of town children are specially welcome at any time. All children who care to take part in the closing exhibition, to be given by Miss Conner, will enter as soon as possible.

By order of the Executive Com. of P.-T. A.

Have you tried Osteopathic treatment for those chronic conditions? See Dr. Rhodes, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 8:30 to 4:30 p. m. 7-21tf.

Remember the Hizz Free Shows open here July 21, for one week.

Pig Club Contests

Special pig showing contests will be held next fall at all county fairs, state fair, and the Pacific International Livestock show, to be open to all members of boys' and girls' pig clubs who show purebred pigs of any recognized breed. Heretofore very little attention has been given by the judges to the manner of showing the animals.

Judges will consider 50 per cent for preparing the pig to show under the following points: condition of feet and trimming of toes, trimming of ears and tail; washing and cleanliness of ears, belly, head, and flanks; and condition of coat, including glass excess of oil, and use of objectionable materials. The remaining 50 per cent will be based on the showing of the pig, including control of animal by the exhibitor; poise and coolness of exhibitor; skill in showing, including continuous attention, keeping the pig placed to advantage, and being on the job; ability to stand move or drive the pig as requested by the judge.

Mrs. R. G. Marchbank Ill

Mrs. R. G. Marchbank was taken very seriously ill Tuesday night and suffered a great deal of pain. Dr. Morse was summoned who took her the next morning to St. Vincent's hospital, where she was operated on Wednesday night. Her husband accompanied her and returned home after the operation, reporting that she had come out of the effects of the ether safely, but it is too soon yet to know her condition. He returned to St. Vincent's this morning. While the attack was sudden, yet she has not been well for some weeks, though able to be around. Her many friends will be very anxious until she is past the danger mark.

A Worthy Appeal

The Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society appeals for donations of canned fruit and vegetables for the Louise Home and the Albertina Kerr Nursery. It is feeding 144 mouths three times daily, of girls and babies from all over the state. The state allowance does not begin to cover the expenses. Fruit, vegetables, potatoes and eggs are needed, fourteen dozen of the last being used weekly, for babies alone. The society will pay freight, and also send jars, rubbers, tops, etc. Address Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society, 195 Burnside Street, Portland, Oregon.

Osteopath For Estacada

Dr. W. W. Rhodes, osteopathic physician from Portland, was in town yesterday, making arrangements for regular visits to Estacada. He will be at the hotel every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Dr. Rhodes is a graduate of the Osteopathic College at Los Angeles, California, and has had a practicing experience of 12 years, the last three having been in Portland. He comes well recommended and those who desire his services will not be disappointed.

John Page Hurt

We regret to report that last Sunday, at Gladstone Park, where he was employed as a guard in the Chautauqua grounds, John Page met with a serious accident. He jumped on the running board of a car to direct it where to park, and fell and broke his leg in two places. He was taken to the Oregon City hospital, where the fracture was reduced, and he is being made as comfortable as is possible under the circumstances.

SWELL DRESSERS IN BOX OF MONKEYS

The Parent-Teacher play Monday evening, proved a full dress affair from a sartorial point of view. The stage setting was rich, and the ladies in the cast displayed some very striking costumes, while the gentlemen wore dress suits. The play was replete with comical situations, as when Edward Ralston (R. C. Deming,) was forced to play the role of a butler, or when Sierra Bengaline (Mrs. W. J. Moore) taught Lady Guinevere (Mrs. R. C. Deming) American slang and the game of poker. Chauncey Oglethorpe (Gerald Wilcox) proved an apt pupil when instructed by Ralston in the gentle art of making love, so that it did not take him long to press his suit with Lady Guinevere and win her consent. Miss Ruth Dillon as Mrs. Onedega Jones, was au fait as the rich widow, who has been bitten by the society bug, and adores a title. Lady Guinevere manifested true British frigidness but soon thawed under the tutelage of Sierra, and was not averse to helping out her bashful lover. The play was preceded by a piano solo by Miss Bertha Burns, and before the second act two piano pieces were well rendered by Etta McWillis and Lester Underwood. Mr. Fred Johnson, of Faraday, favored the audience with a vocal solo, which received a deserved encore. He was accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Gates. One criticism we would make, is that another time, the curtain should be rung up promptly at 8:15, instead of waiting till 8:35 or later.

DODGE

There is promise of a fine crop of apples in this district this year.

Mabel Keller is back home after spending three weeks at Welches.

M. Hedges and wife are visiting Mrs. Hedges' grandmother at Estacada.

Rosa B. TenEyck is spending the whole session at the chautauqua at Gladstone Park.

Wm. Pedersen's sister and family, from Portland, were visiting with Pedersens on Sunday. They intended to pick blackberries but were a little too early.

Next Community club night, August 6, it is intended to have a show of flowers. Everybody is invited to bring their best blooms and help to make a good display.

The writer was at M. Pedersen's place on Sunday and saw a fine garden, in which is a splendid stand of sweet peas, which Mr. Pedersen is growing commercially.

Most of the men have been working on the road adjoining the Genseroski place, which was almost impassable last winter. It is now in much better shape and we hope it will be in good condition before winter begins.

A truck load of Boy Scouts, 21 of them, are here from Portland staying at Hilleckburn. They work three hours a day for their board. Their work is applied to blazing trails, making a baseball park, clearing land and other improvements.

Fred and Harold Horner along with Herman and Ben Chindgren, of Meadowbrook, which four compose the Meadowbrook Quartette, journeyed to Gladstone on Wednesday, and again on Saturday to sing at the chautauqua. The latter date was the Farm Bureau day.

Free consultation. Dr. Rhodes, Osteopath, Hotel Estacada, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. 7-21tf.
