Estacada Cannery Notes

The pack of logans, red raspberries and black caps has been completed. Owing to late organization and arrangements, the cannery only put up 1,200 cases of these fruits. This car of canned goods has been sold mostly in Chicago.

Growers will realize at least 5 cents per pound for their logans, and 9 and 10 cents per pound for their raspberries. These prices are 100% higher than those paid to the growers at Willamette valley points and should give encouragement to people planning to set out berry acreage.

Evergreen berries are now needed to fill orders for four cars and 4 cents a pound will be paid on delivery at the cannery for firm fruit. It is essential that as many evergreen berries be picked as possible, as the success of the cannery depends upon the support that is given it, and your part is to bring in the fruit.

Not Quite so Bad

The Rev. Billy Sunday, at Hood River last Sunday, denounced the dress of the modern "Janes," and after minutely describing the modernly dressed young woman, declared: "No man can look upon a thing like that without a moral blowout." The reverend gentleman can speak for himself, but from the newspaper accounts, we should say that listening to his description would be more likely to cause a moral blowout than seeing the dress.

Attention!

I have turned over everything, absolutely, to Dr. Naff, and am no longer connected with my old office. Those owing me, please settle by sending check to Mrs. Wells, who will be here a short time longer, or hand the amount to Dr. Naff or Dr. Morse.

Big Projects Planned

The Oregon Journal states that millions of dollars will be spent by the public service companies of the state in preparation for the 1925 exposition, and claims that already expenditures to $5,000,000 have been arranged. One project which is of vital interest to Estacada, is that of the development by the P. R. L. & P. Co. of the new hydro-electric sites on the Clackamas river, which is estimated at $3,000,000.

We do Job Printing.

A Sad Event

Last Friday the news was received of the death that morning, of Mrs. Clyde English, formerly Miss Ida Wagner, at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. B. Davis, of Garfield. While it was known she was in a critical condition, yet her death was not expected.

Ida Mae was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wagner, and was born in Garfield, April 5th, 1898. She grew up in this vicinity and graduated in the Estacada high school class of 1917. She had subsequently taught school in Eden Valley, Currinsville and Boring. Last September she married Clyde English, of Garfield, at Hillsboro, Oregon, and her death occurred eleven months and one day after her marriage.

Two years ago she had the flu, with which she was very ill and never entirely got over it. Two months ago she became ill, and for a time was in the Lovelace hospital at this place, but left on becoming better. However, she did not recuperate as was expected, and gradually grew weaker, losing all appetite and strength. Thursday, her condition took a serious turn and she passed away at 8 o'clock the following morning, at the age of 23 years. By a curious coincidence, that happened to be the 44th anniversary of her parents' marriage. Thus sorrow and joy are intermingled in this life. The funeral was held at the Christian Church, the Rev. Walter Evans, of Montaville, an old friend of the deceased, officiating. The building was filled with relatives and friends, and many floral tributes were sent. The interment was in the Odd Fellows' cemetery under direction of J. E. Gates. Much sympathy is being expressed for the bereaved husband and other relatives.

Successor to Dr. Wells

Dr. C. M. Naff who has bought the practice of Dr. L. A. Wells, is a dentist of several years' experience. He is a native of Tennessee, but a graduate of the Northern Pacific dental college at Portland. Subsequently he took a post graduate course at Vancouver, B. C., under one of the most noted dental surgeons on this continent. He comes here thoroughly equipped in his profession. His wife and child will join him as soon as arrangements can be made. The NEWS is sure that both professionally and socially Dr. and Mrs. Naff will prove an acquisition to our town.

Popular Couple Wed

Miss Carrie Hannah the popular second grade teacher in the local grammar school, was united in marriage to Homer Sarver at Dallas on August 5th. Both are well and favorably known as they have grown up in this vicinity. They have returned to Estacada and will go to housekeeping. Mrs. Sarver will teach this coming year while her husband will attend to his farm. They are receiving the hearty congratulations from their many friends, in which the NEWS joins.

EAST CLACKAMAS COUNTY FAIR

The fifth annual East Clackamas County fair will be held in the park on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 8, 9 and 10. The premium list which has just been issued, gives the following list of officers and directors:

S. E. Wooster, president; C. R. Lovell, vice-president; C. E. Kilgore, secretary-treasurer; E. L. Meyers of Eagle Creek, A. W. Botkin of Garfield, Thos. Watson of Viola, Chris Johnson of Bissell, F. E. Burns of Estacada, and S. E. Lawrence of Springwater, directors.

There are five departments livestock, agriculture, women's, poultry, and juvenile.

It contains a number of advertisements of the leading business firms, whose liberal patronage met the cost of publication, and everyone should procure a copy and study it.

A Social Loss

For thirteen years, almost as long as the town has been founded, Dr. L. A. Wells has been practicing dentistry in Estacada. He first came here in September, 1908, from Portland, spending Fridays and Saturdays of each week, being associated with Dr. A. J. and occupying the same office which he has had ever since. As business increased he added an extra day, until all his time was taken up and he moved to Estacada. Six years ago he built his handsome residence on Terrace Addition, and was married to Miss Florence Lilburn of Roseburg. Both Dr. and Mrs. Wells have been strong social factors in the community and will be greatly missed, as both are deservedly popular. Dr. Wells has also devoted much time to civic matters and been a member of the city council for the last three years. Their departure with their two charming children, will leave a gap in social circles and they leave taking with them the best wishes of a host of friends for their future life in Roseburg. The doctor left this morning for Roseburg. Mrs. Wells and the children will remain here a while longer.

Forest Rangers Busy

State Ranger Emery Keller, who is stationed at Roaring River, went out Sunday gunning for persons leaving their camp fires burning unattended within the Oregon National Forest. He bagged six and brought them to town. Ranger Tom Carter and his deputy, Lewis Jones, also went out after like game, and bagged another six. All the above were hauled into Judge Wooster's court who was kept busy assessing fines against them which ranged from five to fifteen dollars. Perhaps in time, campers will learn that the fire laws must be observed.
