

Eastern Clackamas News

Devoted to the Interests of Eastern Clackamas County

VOLUME 14, NUMBER 50

ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1921.

$1.50 PER YEAR

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

DR. R. GRAHAM McCALL
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
Bank Building, 8:30-12 and 1-5. Sunday by appointment
Estacada, Oregon.

DR. C. M. NAFF,
Successor to Dr. L. A. Wells
DENTIST.
Estacada, Oregon.

DR. R. MORSE,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office and Residence Second and Main streets, Estacada, Oregon. Telephone connections.

MRS. R. GRAHAM McCALL,
PIANO ORGAN AND PIANO.
Graduate Chicago Musical College. 10 years Teaching Experience. Estacada, Oregon.

J. E. GATES,
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
and Embalmer. Night and Day Telephone. Lady Assistant.

E. W. BARTLETT,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
and Notary Public. Estacada, Oregon.

O. D. EBY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
General Practice. Confidential Adviser. Oregon City, Oregon.

McGUIRK & SCHNEIDER,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
At Gresham office—Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 203-5, Withrow building. Portland office, 609-15, Fenton building.

PAUL C. FISCHER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Weaver building, Oregon City, Oregon.

S. E. WOOSTER,
NEGOTIATES LOANS.
Buys Mortgages, Rents your property, Writes Insurance in the very best companies—he can get you results. Estacada, Oregon.

FIRE INSURANCE.

London Lancashire Fire Ins. Co.
Great American Fire Insurance Co.

Keep your policy in our Fire Proof Vault, free of charge.

ESTACADA STATE BANK,
AGENTS.

THE BAZAAR,

2d door north of Depot.

SPECIALTIES for 5c, 10c, 15c and up.

Needlework, Crochet Thread Etc. for sale.

THE GATES TO SUCCESS
Proprietors

Oregon Poultry Farm

MARQUAM'S TRAP-NESTED S. C. WHITE LEGHORNS.

To make room for the 1500 head of young stock I am raising this spring, I will sell off some of my Choice Breeding hens, with fine trap-nest records back of them, at $1.50 each. This is a rare bargain. They are worth five times that amount for breeding purposes.

PHIL MARQUAM

(Farm located one mile out of Estacada, Oregon, on Garfield road.)

For Fire Insurance

PLACE YOUR INSURANCE THROUGH YOUR HOME AGENT WHO WILL PROTECT YOUR INTEREST

Cary Real Estate Co.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The spring fishing season on the Columbia river came to a close at noon Thursday.

An aggregate of 4458 boys and girls attended the Yamhill county schools during the present year.

The fourth annual fair of the Union county grange will be held at Blue Mountain grange hall, October 6, 7 and 8.

Pennsylvania promoters have signed up 2000 acres in the northern part of Marion county and will prospect for oil.

The annual dairy and hog show will be held at Hermiston October 7 and 8. A total of $1100 is offered as premiums.

The prune harvest of Mosier valley is now under way. The crop is not as heavy as in some past seasons, but the quality is fine.

B. F. Lindas was recommended by Senators McNary and Stanford for appointment as register of the land office at Roseburg.

As the result of a booze raid in Malheur county by the sheriff's office, a total of $3575 in fines was collected from 16 defendants.

Between 600,000 and 750,000 pounds of wool, practically the entire 1921 clip, has been sold and shipped over the Prineville city railroad.

All Yamhill county American Legion posts are co-operating to make the big celebration in McMinnville September 22, 23 and 24 a great success.

They are to have a school board recall at Bandon, petitions having been filed for the ousting of Chairman Nielson and Director Zontner.

A great scarcity of hop pickers is being experienced at Harrisburg, although the price of picking has been raised to a cent and a quarter.

G. E. Gates of Medford was appointed a member of the state fair board to succeed E. V. Carter, Ashland banker, who resigned because of ill health.

Clark Walter, aged 80, well known Umatilla county pioneer and Civil war veteran, died a few days ago at Seattle, where he had gone on a visit.

A premium of $250 was received by Douglas county recently in the sale of $220,000 of the $1,100,000 road bond issue voted at the recent special election.

Jess Scott of Elkton was killed near Roseburg when he was mistaken for a deer while on a hunting trip with H. R. Levison, an ex-policeman of Portland.

Fifty prominent walnut growers from the Willamette valley held a meeting at Salem and discussed methods for standardizing, grading and marketing their product.

Umatilla county restaurant and hotel keepers and dairies paid $680 into the coffers of the state as the result of recent prosecutions for violations of the dairy and food laws.

The Union Oil company of California remitted to the secretary of state $20,886.15, covering the tax on its sales of gasoline and distillate in Oregon during the month of July.

Placing the average yield at 30 bushels to the acre and the quality at 100 per cent, Malheur county stands at the head of the list of Eastern Oregon counties in the production of wheat.

The body of Arthur E. Glover, the only Wheeler county boy killed in the world war and for whom the Fossil post of the American Legion was named, was buried at Fossil Tuesday.

Raymond Sweet, a waiter in a Eugene restaurant, pulled off his white coat and resigned his job immediately upon receipt of word that he had fallen heir to an estate valued at $40,000.

The home of Dick Williams on Upper Cummings creek in Grant county was destroyed by a waterspout. His barn, chickens, garden and all farming implements were washed away.

United States treasury checks aggregating more than $24,000 were received at the offices of the adjutant-general for distribution among Oregon citizen soldiers in payment for army drills.

There are 52,634 more acres devoted to farming in Marion county this year than there were 12 months ago, according to the annual report filed at Salem by Oscar Steelhammer, county assessor.

Deputy game wardens have been instructed to watch closely for pre-season hunting of China pheasants and the law protecting pheasants until the opening of the season will be enforced strictly.

Reports received at the office of the state highway department from practically every section of Oregon indicate that the peak of the tourist travel for the 1921 season is past. Although September and part of October will be ideal for the traveler, the number on the roads will not compare with the aggregate for the months of July and August.

E. T. Brown, at present connected with the University of Washington, has been elected head of the physics department of Willamette university to succeed Professor Herschel E. Hewitt, who resigned.

So efficient has been the organization and work of the forest service in the Santiam national forest this summer that, although 22 forest fires have started, the largest one burned over less than two acres.

Contractors have completed paving what is known as the South Salem section of the Pacific highway. The "improved" stretch of road is approximately 8 1/2 miles in length, with paved surface 16 feet wide.

Scores of Russian students are coming to universities along the Pacific coast and particularly the Pacific northwest this year, according to information received by President Clark of Pacific university.

Hector McPherson of the Oregon Agricultural college was endorsed by the executive committee of the North Dakota Farm Bureau federation for appointment to the presidency of the North Dakota Agricultural college.

The Revenue mine, in the Kane's creek district of Jackson county, owned by E. L. Coburn of Grants Pass and O. W. McClelland of Gold Hill, has been sold to N. E. Conklin and A. L. Conklin of Bakersfield, Cal., for $30,000.

Joseph L. Hammersly, chief deputy district attorney of Multnomah county, has been appointed by the Douglas county court to assist District Attorney Neuner in the prosecution of the Brumfield murder case at Roseburg.

By a joint action of committees of the boards of regents of the two institutions, a tuition fee of $60 will hereafter be charged students at the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon from states outside of Oregon.

Farmers in the vicinity of Bend are asking that government trappers be sent in to wage war on the coyotes which are killing off whole flocks of chickens. In the Powell Butte section the coyotes are occasioning heavy loss to the sheepmen.

Marion county school teachers who neglect to comply with the state law making it incumbent upon them to file their registration papers with the county superintendent, will run the risk of having their first month's salary held up by the directors.

Springwater Lady Dies

Mrs. W. W. Christensen died Tuesday morning at her home in Springwater. Last Thursday, while visiting her friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mast of Portland she was stricken with paralysis, and brought home Saturday. The funeral will be held under the auspices of the Myrtle chapter, O. E. S. of Portland, in the funeral parlors of Finley & Son, tomorrow, Friday, at 10 a. m., with interment in Riverview cemetery. The deceased lady before her marriage was Eva Slader, and was born in Chicago, March 7, 1870, thus being 51 yrs. 5 mos. and 23 days old when she passed away. On May 9, 1895, she was united in marriage to W. W. Christensen in Chicago. Sixteen years ago they came to Oregon settling first at Lebanon. Five years ago they moved to Springwater. Besides her husband, she leaves a father, a sister and a brother who live in Chicago. Mrs. Christensen will be missed by a host of friends.

Prize Fight To-night

At the Family Theatre, to-night, Manager Sparks will put on the films showing the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, and the latter being knocked out by the former. This is being furnished by the Pathe News Service. You will see for two bits, what others paid several dollars to witness.

Additional Brevities

R. G. Marchbank was on the sick list this week.

S. E. Wooster made a business trip to Portland, Monday.

Miss Bina Douglass was a visitor to Portland yesterday.

Mrs. A. Heidland and Johannah Lichthorn visited Portland Tuesday.

Miss Nova Smith is enjoying an outing with an uncle and aunt at the beach.

The Estacada public library was opened today after being closed for a month.

Frank Miles has bought lot one, block one, on Terrace Addition, of W. F. Cary.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wagner and their son Otis, returned Sunday from a visit to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Moore and baby daughter went to Portland, Tuesday, returning yesterday.

R. K. Akin of Salem, electrical inspector for the state bureau of labor, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Drill of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Robley one day last week.

Lawrence E. Davies, reporter for the Portland Telegram was in town yesterday, and called at this office.

Mrs. N. McMillan and little daughter left Sunday for a visit with her father, who lives at LaCenter, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Einarson, new members of the High School faculty, arrived here on Tuesday from Silverton.

On account of Monday Sept. 5 being a holiday the Women's auxiliary will not meet until the following Monday, Sept. 12.

There will be Sunday School in the Christian Church at 10 a. m. with Mrs. W. H. Holder, Superintendent, but there will be no preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. James, who a few years ago resided at Faraday, drove over from Portland last Sunday and called on a few friends in this vicinity.

The Rev. Dr. Youngson, District Superintendent, held quarterly meeting at the M. E. church Tuesday night. This was the last one of the conference year.

Government hunter A. G. Ames is home on a brief furlough. Since his last home visit he has shot two bears, both of which had done serious damage to sheep grazing in the National forests.

C. F. Howe and his son Ted, returned Tuesday from a week's outing at Cary's Hot Springs. Ted says they fished and fried pancakes, and that he caught the largest of the string. We will take his word for it, as he is a guileless youth, and not giving to telling piscatoris fabulas. He brought us a sample of the catch which had been dried and smoked, and was very good eating.

W. C. T. U. Notes

The W. C. T. U. will have a tent on the fair grounds to care for babies, while their mothers attend the fair.

The regular monthly meeting of the union will be held at the tent on Friday afternoon at 2:30. There will be a speaker from Portland.

P. R. L. & P. Co. Thanked

The executive committee of the Parent-Teacher association wishes to acknowledge with thanks, the courtesy of the P. R. L. & P. Co. in cancelling all charges for the use of the Pavilion for the Costume Party, August 23rd.

Two Made One

On Monday evening, August 22, 1921, at 8 o'clock, Miss Lola Davis was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Clyde Schock. This auspicious and happy event took place at the home of their former Estacada friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rayburn, in Chehalis, Wash., the Rev. T. David Acheson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, being the officiating minister. The newly wedded pair remained in Chehalis a few days and then motored to Seattle and Vancouver, B. C.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, of Garfield, and was born and raised there. The groom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Shock, and has lived here a number of years. At present he is in charge of the Estacada branch garage for Raker & Son, of Gresham. Their many friends will join in hearty wishes for their future life, and no doubt will vociferously welcome them on their return. The editor of the NEWS begs to offer them his sincerest congratulations, especially to the groom for his wise choice of a helpmeet for life.

School Meeting

The special school meeting called for last Friday night, was carried off with dispatch, as it was merely for validating the former election of George Weatherby, which owing to an irregularity, had been declared void by the county superintendent. About a hundred were present, and after F. G. Robley, chairman of the school board, had called the assembly to order, the name of George Weatherby was presented by E. W. Bartlett. No other names being mentioned, nominations were declared closed, and the vote taken. The result showed 87 ballots for, with three marked "yes," so the vote was unanimous. The meeting then adjourned, and the new school board went into session to conduct the business of auditing bills, selecting teachers to fill vacancies, and other matters coming before it.

Moonshine Case

The trial of E. (Boo) Krigbaum, who had been arrested for having intoxicated liquor in his possession, was held in Justice Wooster's court last Tuesday. District Attorney Levy Stipp appeared for the prosecution and E. W. Bartlett for the defense.

The case was given to the jury about 4 p. m., but they did not arrive at a decision until 9 o'clock. They were Messrs. G. R. Crawford, A. D. Burnett, E. T. Davis, H. B. Snyder, Matt Glover and G. R. Ellis. Their verdict found the defendant guilty as charged, recommended the sentence be suspended during good behavior. Justice Wooster pronounced accordingly Wednesday morning, that sentence was suspended for ninety days pending good behavior.

Justice by Phone

Tuesday, forest ranger Emery Keller arrested Grant S. Hemphill of Portland, for leaving a burning fire unattended in the forest reserve. Judge Wooster was called up by phone to adjudicate the matter. The defendant plead guilty and was fined $7.00, which amount was paid, the check arriving the following morning. The violators of the Oregon fire laws, may congratulate themselves on not being in California, where the minimum fine is $50.00 for this offense.

Read the Ads in the News.

FAIR TO HAVE BABY EXHIBIT

The East Clackamas County fair opens a week from today. As has been already announced in the NEWS, it will be held in the park, the pavilion being used as the floral hall and tents will be erected for the live stock. It will continue three days and special speakers will be secured.

Among other features, a baby show is being organized and all babies up to two years of age are eligible. This will be under the charge of a competent physician who will make the measurements and weigh the babies.

The judges of the live stock will come from the O. A. C.

Single daily admissions will be 25 cents, children half price, and season tickets for 50 cents.

The arranging for the fair entailed a lot of work on the committees, and this fact should be appreciated.

"The Mishaps of Minerva"

The rollicking comedy, "The Mishaps of Minerva" will be given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association at the high school auditorium, on Sept. 9. at 8 p. m.

In presenting Mrs. Guy Graham in the title role and Lloyd Saling as Dr. Brown, Clyde Denry a reporter, Mr. Wallace, the Irish policeman, Miss Mabel Wilcox and Mrs. Keating in the other leading parts, the P.-T. A. is offering some of the best talent of Estacada.

SYNOPSIS OF PLAY

Minerva, a young society woman, undertakes to give a large reception against the wishes of her family and has her plans almost completely frustrated by the efforts of her sister-in-law and intimate friend, who ransack the house and take all the valuables at the last moment. In the second act the Irish policeman, who is called in to catch the burglars, only increases the troubles of the wretched Minerva, by capturing the wrong persons and sending them to the police station.

There will be piano numbers by Mrs. J. E. Gates and violin duett by Messrs. Ahlberg and Sharp.

Admission—Adults, 35 cents, children, 20 cents. Reserved seats, 50 cents. For sale at the Drug Store.

New Stage Line

Messrs. Masters & Folsom, of Portland, have inaugurated a "Yellow Stage Line" between Portland and Estacada. Daily runs between the two places, twice a day, will be made, leaving Estacada at 7:30 a. m. and 4 p. m., and Portland 6:40 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. On Saturdays an extra run will be made from both terminals starting at 6:30 p. m. The stages will leave Portland at 1st and Alder Sts., and Estacada from the Cascade Garage, and will stop at Eagle Creek, Boring and Gresham, also at any point on the way. They will arrange for special trips between the regular runs, for those wishing to go to points off the regular line. They are now ready for business night and day. Call them up at the Cascade Garage. Their stages are handsome Case 8-passenger cars. Special rates will be made for transporting school children along the regular routes to Estacada, and those wishing to avail themselves of these should see to it right away.

Second-hand sewing machine, New Home, in good condition. 8-18th SMITH HARDWARE CO.