day, to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Bennett. Mr. Clark will follow as soon as he can dispose of some household goods, as well as his cows, chickens and farm implements. We are sorry to lose such good neighbors.

Suggestive Reading

You will hear it said that such and such a magazine prints suggestive stories, meaning that they present corrupting ideas in an attractive dress. But there is a suggestiveness of quite a different sort—the suggestiveness that quickens the reader's sense of duty, stimulates ambition, gives courage to face adversity, fortifies against yielding easily to temptation. It is this better kind of suggestiveness that you will find on almost every page of The Youth's Companion. Which of these two kinds of suggestiveness would you wish to have exert an influence in your family life?

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922.
2. All the remaining issues of 1921.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1922. All for $2.50.
4. Or include M-Call's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.

NOTICE OF CONTEST.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Portland, Oregon, October 21st, 1921.

To Lawrence R. Autry of 680 East Harrison St., or 616 Oswego St., Portland, Oregon, Contestee:

You are hereby notified that Leonard C. de Bellevue, who gives 1050 Steel Ave., Portland, Oregon, as his post-office address, did on October 14, 1921, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry No. 96921, Serial No. 96921, made August 12, 1918, for NE 1/4 of SW 1/4 and S 1/4 of SW 1/4, Section 23, Township 3 South, Range 5 East, Willamette Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that said Lawrence R. Autry never established his residence on said land, never cultivated any part of said land, never made any improvements thereon, and he has wholly abandoned said land for more than six months immediately preceding the beginning of this contest; that his absence from said land is not and was not due to his employment in the military or naval service of the United States during any war in which the United States has been engaged.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be cancelled without any further right to be heard, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail.

You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

ALEXANDER SWEEK, Register.
