Wedding Bells

The marriage of Miss Augusta Githens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Githens of Eagle Creek, and Mr. Hugh Carlin of Eagle Creek, was solemnized Wednesday, December 7th, 1921. The bride and groom left for Seattle on a brief trip, after which they returned to their home at Eagle Creek, which they found beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, Oregon grape and wedding bells and a surprise turkey dinner awaiting them. Those present at the dinner were, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carlin, George Carlin, Miss England, Miss Emma Fitzgerald and John Dugan all of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Githens of Oregon City, Mr. Tunell of Currinsville, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Githens, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Githens of Eagle Creek. Later in the evening the bridal couple were serenaded with dynamite, old shoes, cow bells and rice.

The bride is a very popular young lady, who has resided at Eagle Creek since early childhood. The groom formerly resided in Moline, Illinois, and is a very prosperous young man of sterling qualities.

SPRINGWATER NEWS

Only a few attended the Missionary society meeting last Wednesday. Lets hope there's a larger attendance next meeting.

T. P. McAuley made a business trip to Astoria on Thursday of last week, returning home Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Weir and son and Mr. McAuley motored to Oregon City Tuesday.

The Neighborly club has been postponed indefinitely, as it was to have met with Mrs. Grable, who is still in Portland and Mr. Grable is still confined to his bed.

At Grange meeting last Saturday, election of officers was held.

Additional Brevities

Mesdames Viola Douglass and C. F. Howe were Portland visitors yesterday.

Preparations are being made to finish the front of the Reed garage.

Mrs. G. H. Lichthorn is reported as improving at St. Vincent hospital.

The NEWS is pleased to announce that the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gates, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is now improving.

The entertainment given Monday night at the High School auditorium by the DeMarco Aistrup entertainers was well attended and proved, in the opinion of many, the best of the Lyceum course so far. The next number will be The Bell Ringing Male Quartet, on January 18.

GARFIELD BREVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Young motored to Portland Friday.

Z. Downey has returned to work for the O. W. R. & N. after a few weeks visit at home.

Mrs. Willis, mother of Mrs. Theo. Carpenter has returned to her California home.

Mrs. Schneider and daughter of North Dakota have come to make their home with Louis Schneider on the Drost homestead.

The Garfield section is attracting the attention of easterners because of its ideal climate and productive soil. For fruits and berries it cannot be beat. Five places have changed hands in the past two months.

The Garfield Sunday school is preparing a program and a Christmas tree will be there in all its glory, loaded with good things for the little folks. So bring the children and enjoy it with them at the church on Friday evening, December 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hartman were week end guests of Mr. Hartman's mother, Mrs. C. V. Sandstone. They have bought the Stevens restaurant in Ashland, where they will make their home.

Mr. Dillinger has recently contracted with the Portland Seed Company for one hundred thousand strawberry plants. Inspector Stansbury passed on the plants as O. C. Plants that are not infected are at a premium, and if growers do not get busy strawberries will be a thing of the past.

J. W. Botkin has the promise of a very fine crop of broccoli. He has about three thousand plants in the very best of condition. Mr. Botkin says he is finding out that broccoli flourishes as well here as any place in Oregon.

Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morton of Portland, visited the former's mother, Mrs. W. J. Moore, here Saturday and Sunday. They are still in the first half of their honeymoon as they were married December 2nd, at the rectory of Trinity Church, Portland, by Rev. Dr. A. A. Morrison, the rector. Mrs. Bob Morton was formerly Miss Marguerite Wyckoff, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wyckoff of Portland.

After the ceremony they went to Seattle to see the football match between Pennsylvania State college and the U of Washington. Mr. Morton is an intimate friend of Hugo Bezdek, the coach of the visiting team, and former football coach at the U of O.

They will continue to live in Portland, where Mr. Morton has a position with the G. E. Miller bond house. Their many friends wish them joy and happiness.

Among those who took the first car to Portland last Saturday morning to see Santa Claus, were Mrs. C. J. Pimm and children, Mrs. Mae Reed, Mrs. S. Lovelace and children, Miss Besie Wallace and little Hugh Wallace, Mrs. C. F. Howe, Miss Leila Howe and Mrs. N. B. Ecker.

You have your auto overhauled by an expert mechanic, why not give your body the same care and attention? Consult Dr. W. W. Rhodes, Osteopathic physician and surgeon. 12-15tf

Let Hauser cook your Roast for Christmas. Hauser knows how. 12-15

Yes, I sell Paint, Wall Paper and Glass.—Painter, the Painter. 12-8 tf

VETERAN PRINTER PASSES OVER

George Hislop, who for almost a year past had been foreman in the NEWS office was operated on last Monday morning at St. Vincent hospital in Portland, for cancer of the liver. He went under the influence of the anesthetic at 9 a. m., but never recovered consciousness again, and passed away at 3:30 p. m.

George Hislop was a native of Scotland, being born at Paisley, the well known manufacturing town, sixty-seven years ago. At the young age of nine years he came to this country and learned the printing trade. For forty-three years he was connected with the Decorah Republican, of Decorah, Iowa, serving continuously under three generations of editors of one family.

Early in life he affiliated with the I. O. O. F. and became an enthusiastic member for forty-seven years. He was a Past Noble Grand of his lodge and a holder of the forty year jewel. He also was a member of the Rebekah and Modern Woodmen orders.

About three years ago he came west with his wife, as nearly all of his children were there. He joined the NEWS force December a year ago. The editor cannot express what a help George Hislop was to him, and what a conscientious and faithful workman he was. From first to last their association was most pleasant, and the attractive typographical appearance of the paper was entirely due to him.

The funeral services took place today from the Holman undertaking parlors in Portland, at 2:30, with interment in the Rose City Park cemetery. Besides his wife, he leaves three daughters, Mrs. Inez Greenleaf of Portland, and Mesdames James Simms and O. E. Syren of Estacada; three sons, one of whom lives in Iowa, one in San Francisco and one in Portland. All his children were present at the funeral with the exception of the son in the east. A large delegation of the Estacada I. O. O. F. lodge attended to show their respect and esteem for him. The deep sympathy of all who knew him goes out to his bereaved family. May he rest in peace and enjoy the reward of a life of work well done and of honesty and integrity of character.

Grange Election

Springwater Grange No. 263, at their last meeting elected the following officers to serve for the year 1922: Master, D. S. Tenny; Overseer, S. M. Forbes; Secretary, Mrs. Christie McAuley; Lecturer, Mrs. Nettie Grabel; Steward, Clarence Hull; Assistant Steward, Everett Shibley; Chaplain, Mrs. Belle Moger; Treasurer, Ed. Clossner; Gate Keeper, Gilbert Shearer; Ceres, Mrs. Amanda Clossner; Flora, Mrs. Ethel Howell; Pomona, Mrs. Jessie Forbes; Lady Assistant Steward, Elva Shibley.

From all indications there will be a green Christmas. It is to be hoped that the old saying concerning the unhealthiness of such a Christmas won't prove true in this case. The excessive rain will wash the air and soil of impurities, so there is no reason to worry.

Let Hauser cook your Christmas Chicken or Turkey. 12-15

For Glass and Glazing—See Pointer, the painter. 12-8 tf
