

LOCAL BREVITIES AND NEWS ITEMS

After today the days will begin to lengthen.

Postmaster Heylman was a Portland visitor Sunday.

Chester Womer was a week-end guest in Estacada from Portland.

Miss Helen Wooster is home for Christmas vacation from the O. A. C.

"Ted" Howe, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ella Howe, spent Saturday in Portland.

Miss Ruth Hewitt of Portland, was the week-end guest of her cousin Miss Helen Wooster.

A seasonable greeting this week this week has been, "Good morning, did your pipes freeze?"

The annual banquet and joint installation of the local orders of Masons and Eastern Stars, takes place this evening.

Lawrence E. Davis, reporter for the Portland Telegram, made a pleasant call at the NEWS office Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ennis Townsend and Vernon Woods of Bull run, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith last week, returning home Sunday.

Misses Mary Alice and Florence June Reed went to Portland last Friday where they met Miss Ardella Dunlop, daughter of Rev. J. F. Dunlop, the former M. E. pastor here.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Hassell Thursday, December 29. Dinner will be served at noon and the meeting will begin at 2:30 P. M.

A. G. Ames, hunter of predatory animals, in employ of the state, arrived home last Friday night to remain with his family until after the holidays.

Those attending the funeral of the late George Hislop last Thursday in Portland, as representatives of the Estacada I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges, were H. L. McKenney, N. G., C. F. Brown, V. N. G., Harvey Gilgan, Mrs. C. F. Brown, Mrs. H. Gilgan and Elsie Fuller.

A. N. Johnson is back again after a sojourn of some weeks in Portland, where he has been at work, perfecting a new model of a crutch. This has a pneumatic pad which fits comfortably in the arm pit. Mr. Johnson has applied for a patent.

V. W. Hauser says misfortunes never come singly. Tuesday morning the pipes at the hotel were frozen up, and that afternoon while splitting wood, he gashed the forefinger of his left hand very severely, and narrowly missed taking it off.

The cold weather is seasonable. While the older people may shiver and shake, the boys and girls delight in it. When we recall how in former years we watched the mercury drop with pleasant anticipations of skating, and that now we shrink before the cold blasts, we mournfully exclaim in classic phrase, "Eheu, fugaces labuntur anni!"

Rebekahs Entertain

The local order of Rebekahs had a special entertainment last Wednesday night in honor of the several couples of newlyweds who are members of the local lodge. Seven couples were expected but only three were able to be present, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ewalt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Linn. The couples not present were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ludlow, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carlin. A table was arranged especially for the newlyweds over which hung a wedding bell. There were speeches, recitations, music and games, and the seventy-five present had a delightful time. Delicious refreshments were served.

The cold weather has been very trying, especially to those whose water pipes were frozen. The thermometer registered 20 above zero, Tuesday noon, at the Smith hardware store, but the wind made it seem more like 20 below. The NEWS office was like an iceberg nearly all day on Tuesday, so that work under the circumstances was extremely difficult.
