

Eastern Clackamas News

Devoted to the Interests of Eastern Clackamas County

VOLUME 15, NUMBER 17

ESTACADA, OREGON, THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1922.

$1.50 PER YEAR

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

DR. R. GRAHAM McCALL
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Hours: 8.30 a. m. to 12 m. and 1 to 5 p. m.
Sunday by appointment.
Estacada, Oregon.

DR. C. M. NAFF,
Successor to Dr. L. A. Wells
DENTIST.
Estacada, Oregon.

DR. R. MORSE,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office and Residence Second and Main streets, Estacada, Oregon. Telephone connections.

MRS. R. GRAHAM McCALL,
PIPE ORGAN AND PIANO.
Graduate Chicago Musical College. 10 years Teaching Experience. Estacada, Oregon.

MRS. J. E. GATES,
PIANO INSTRUCTOR.
Phone or call at The Bazaar, Estacada.

J. E. GATES,
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
and Embalmer. Night and Day Telephone. Lady Assistant.

O. D. EBY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
General Practice, Confidential Adviser. Oregon City, Oregon.

McGUIRK & SCHNEIDER,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.
At Gresham office—Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, 2:30-5. Withrow building. Portland office, 609-15, Fenton building.

PAUL C. FISCHER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Beaver building, Oregon City, Oregon.

WOODLE REALTY CO.
Real Estate, Insurance, Loans, Collections, Notary Public. Justice of the Peace.
They get results.
Phone Estacada

FIRE INSURANCE.

London Lancashire Fire Ins. Co.

Keep your policy in our Fire Proof Vault, free of charge.

H. C. STEPHENS AGENT.

THE BAZAAR,

2d door north of depot

SPECIALTIES
for 5c, 10c, 15c and up.

Needlework, Crochet Thread Etc., for sale.

THE GATES TO SUCCESS
Proprietors.

A GOOD BOOK

always appeals to persons of intelligence.

Have you read SISTERS by Kathleen Norris, or BORDER LEGION by Zane Gray?

These and other best sellers only $1.00 each at

ESTACADA PHARMACY

The Rexall Store

For Fire Insurance

PLACE YOUR INSURANCE THROUGH YOUR HOME AGENT WHO WILL PROTECT YOUR INTEREST

Cary Real Estate Co.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

Mrs. Grace Cunningham has been appointed postmaster at Chico, Walla-wa county.

Active preparations are being made for the erection of a number of new residences in Monmouth.

Miss Ruby O. Engelman has been appointed postmistress at Ione to succeed Mrs. Earl Blake, resigned.

The Scottish Rite Club of Southern Oregon was organized by 32d-degree Masons at a dinner in Medford.

Approximately $10,000 less in taxes will be assessed in Baker county this year than were collected in 1921.

Mrs. Martha A. Williams, 58 years of age, committed suicide at Salem by jumping off a bridge into Mill Creek.

During the year just closed Clatsop county has spent $98,254 for new bridges and repairs to old structures.

Total fire loss in Astoria for the year 1921 was $157,300, for which insurance amounting to $132,200 was paid.

Eugene property owners will pay taxes this year on a levy of 55.1 mills, which is an increase of 2.1 mills over last year.

Except several fills and the bridge over Lake creek, the Oregon Caves highway near Grants Pass is about completed.

There were a total of 242 accidents reported to the state industrial accident commission during the week ending January 5.

H. J. Eberly, assistant state forester, while on his way to Seattle Sunday by automobile, suffered a fractured arm and other injuries.

During the past season Clatsop county operated five state-owned trucks on highway improvement work at an expense of $21,466.45.

The farmers of the Rickreall vicinity will meet January 11 to take action with relation to acquiring flax acreage for the year 1922.

The former Clatsop mill in Astoria, recently purchased by the Astoria Box company, will soon begin operations with 130 men at work.

A block of $150,000 5 1-2 per cent Tillamook county road bonds was sold at Tillamook to a Portland bond house at a premium of $3773.50.

A lath mill will be installed in Albany this month by the Anderson Fuel company, which will also operate a lumber yard with its mill.

The county agent work in Coos county has been cut from the expense account of the budget, as well as the demonstrator appropriation.

A short course for commercial club secretaries will be offered by the University of Oregon during Easter vacation from March 27 to April 1.

The Pendleton Packing company has nearly doubled its output during the few weeks it has been in existence and now has 24 men on its payroll.

The Oregon Aggies in the season of 1921 won 10 championships, broke two coast records and played Oregon to a scoreless tie for the state football title.

S. M. Calkins of Eugene, for 15 years reporter of the circuit court of the district comprising Lane, Benton and Lincoln counties, has resigned his position.

A rotary diamond drill capable of drilling a 4-1/2 inch hole to a depth of 4000 feet has been shipped to Medford for use by the Western Oil company.

Arrests by the Clackamas county sheriff's office for the year of 1921, more than doubled those for 1920, according to a report compiled by Sheriff Wilson.

Evidence of Medford's continued prosperity and growth of postoffice receipts lies in the fact that the Medford postoffice is now in the first class of postoffices.

Thirty-five thousand cords of white fir wood to be used in the manufacture of paper has been cut during the year in the upper basin of McDowell creek in Linn county.

Many of the small sawmills on the lower Siuslaw river and in adjacent territory are resuming operations after an idleness in some cases of a year's duration.

The Oregon Agricultural college basketball team opened the northwest conference season at Corvallis with a victory over the Whitman college five by a score of 26 to 18.

The industrial rush at Marshfield and stories of demand for large lumber shipments during 1922 are bringing into the Coos county district more laborers than can get employment.

More than $200,000 was disbursed by the federal government among the members of the Oregon National Guard units during the past year as compared with less than half that amount for 1920.

Lane county's hop crop this year sold for nearly $500,000. The crop in the county amounted to 6600 bales, and an average price of 25 cents a pound, or $70 a bale, was received by local growers.

According to the records in the Astoria customs house, 569 vessels loaded at lumber mills in the Columbia river district during the year 1921 and their combined cargoes amounted to 537,582,057 feet of lumber.

With the Carey act contract with the state executed and a definite allotment of water made by the state water board, the North Canal company is now ready to proceed with development plans in the vicinity of Bend.

Mrs. C. E. Copple, wife of a Hood River orchardist and banker, received from D. Tancered of Kent, Wash., a White Leghorn cockerel for which she paid $250. This is the highest-priced chicken ever brought to the valley.

Portland is to have a new Orpheum theater. In addition to the four-day-a-week show now running in Portland, a $1,000,000 structure to house shows under the junior Orpheum plan will be opened within the next 18 months.

Methodist Episcopal churches of the Portland area, which includes Washington and Oregon, have set aside the first week of next April as "clean-up" week, when churches and parsonages and surrounding grounds will be renovated.

UPPER EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Malcomb Woodie and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ritchey and baby, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie Jr. were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodie on Sunday.

Mrs. Buckley, the school supervisor and the County Demonstration agent, visited the school on Tuesday.

A Mr. Young and family have moved on to the Shuback place. They are relatives of Mr. Bucher.

Pluss Cahill has been making some improvements on his place, building fences, new hen house, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Baker, who recently sold their place down near Mrs. Rose Baker's, have moved on to their farm up the road farther, on the old Baker place.

The Douglass Ridge Mutual Telephone Co. held its regular meeting at the school house on Monday night and reelected some of the officers. H. S. Gibson, secretary-treasurer; Will and Walter Douglass, directors.

Will and Walter Douglass and E. Naylor were Oregon City visitors on Tuesday

Announcement

I have bought out W. H. Kandle's interest in the Estacada Feed Co. and am desirous of closing up the books right away. I am to pay all bills owed by the firm and collect all bills due to it. All those who are indebted to the firm are asked to come in and settle their accounts within the next ten days.

I am also taking this opportunity to thank my friends and customers for their patronage in the past.

Assuring you courteous treatment, and soliciting a continuance of your patronage, I am,

U. S. MORGAN,
Propr. Estacada Feed Co.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our sincere thanks to neighbors, friends and lodge members for the beautiful flowers, for the expressions of sympathy, and kindly acts rendered during our recent bereavement.

G. M. LAWRENCE,
G. E. LAWRENCE AND FAMILY,
J. E. SCHENK AND FAMILY.

GARFIELD BREVITIES

GARFIELD MAN REACHES 80

January 6th was the birthday of William Davis Sr., when he reached his 80th milestone on his life's journey. To celebrate the event, a party was given attended by nine children, three brothers and a number of friends.

Those present were Mrs. Grace Jacobs and son Howard of Aberdeen, Wn., Wm. Davis Jr. and wife of Yankton, Iva Davis of Ellensburg, Wn., Jake Johnson and wife, Ed Lowden and wife of Portland, F. H. Davis and daughter Lora, C. F. Davis and family, Richard Davis and family, W. W. Davis and family, H. B. Davis and family, J. J. Davis and wife, Jos. Davis and Mrs. Jane Davis of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Botkin's home was a scene of gayety on Tuesday evening, where they entertained for a number of friends. The house was decorated in holiday attire. Cards, games and dancing were enjoyed by Messrs. S. D. Willis, Hunt, Tracy, Failing, View, Newton, Beromack, M. Anderson, H. Anders, A. C. and Walter Anderson and J. F. Snyder; Messdames Tracy, Dille, Snyder, Sandstone, Griffith, Willis, Anders; the Misses Rose Harriman, Sigworth and Irene Hussock.

Work is progressing nicely on the fish hatchery, Mr. Moreland the manager, has arrived and is located with Theo Carpenter. We are hoping the state will not destroy the beautiful picnic grounds as it is one of the beauty spots in the state. With the fish hatchery, a good park, all kinds of fishing and hunting, the hostelry of Log La Barre, and a prospective road to Cedar swamp Garfield is surely coming to the front.

Mrs. Earl Gunter entertained the Skip-a-club on Thursday. Those enjoying the afternoon were Messdames Downey, Dillinger, Coe, Weatherby, H. B. Davis and Wm. Schaffer.

Funeral services were held last Saturday from the chapel of the East side Funeral Directors on East Alder St., Portland. The Rev. R. A. Weld, an old friend of the family, formerly pastor of the Springwater Presbyterian church of which the deceased was a member, officiated and very touchingly spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family.

The consoling hymns "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me" were feelingly sung and the casket covered with most beautiful flowers. The interment took place in Mt. Scott cemetery by the side of her mother, who had preceded her daughter two years.

Besides her husband and little son, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Edwin Strey of Chehalis, Wash., Florence and Adele of Gresham, her father J. E. Schenck and two brothers, John who is a student at Oxford college, Los Angeles, and Eddie who lives with his father at Gresham. As she was a member of Centennial Rebekah lodge and Mountain Chapter O. E. S. of Estacada, large delegations from both attended, besides other friends. Of a pleasing and lovable disposition, she was beloved by all who knew her. Her husband and little son have the deep sympathy of everybody in their bereavement.

W. C. T. U. Dinner
The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will serve a dinner in the basement of the M. E. church, on next Tuesday evening, Jan. 17, commencing at 6 o'clock. A good big delicious dinner for 40c. Everybody invited.

Obituary
Henry Willard Grable, a civil service employe of the U. S. government, employed at Portland, Oregon, died at his apartments on Tuesday, January 3, 1922. The deceased was 56 years of age. He was born in Hennepin, Illinois, November 8, 1866. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Nettie Grable of Springwater, and three sons, Clyde H. Grable of Portland, Harry A. Grable of Springwater and Guy C. Grable of Eagle Creek and his mother Mrs. Lydia Grable, three sisters and two brothers of Abaline, Kansas.

The funeral was held in Kenworthy's Chapel at Lents, Ore., on Thursday, Jan. 6, 1922. The deceased was a member of the I. O. O. F. No. 216, Portland, W. O. W. No. 805 Portland, Letter Carriers Assn. Portland, Golden Rule Encampment No. 28 Portland, Portland Union Degree Camp W. O. W. and Lents Grange, Lents, Oregon.

Prize Contest
As will be seen in our advertising columns, Manager Cleworth of the Family Theatre offers a prize of free admission to all shows until July 1st of this, for the best name in place of Family Theatre. One chance is given with each paid admission. The contest ends February 4.

GARFIELD ITEMS

Charles Swanson and wife of Portland, were visiting the father of Mrs. Swanson, F. H. Davis, over the holidays.

Milton Weatherby had the misfortune to cut his hand while splitting wood last Tuesday. Dr. McCall dressed the wound and put in three stitches.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gunter have returned from the metropolis, where they had visited Mrs. Gunter's mother, Mrs. Egans.

Mrs. K. Coe of Portland, is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dillinger.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Standish, who has been very ill is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Gay of Portland, spent the week end at their new home, formerly the Mattoon ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Frazier are moving to Logan this week.

J. B. Robertson is in Portland this week, helping to settle the estate of his father.

Work is progressing nicely on the fish hatchery, Mr. Moreland the manager, has arrived and is located with Theo Carpenter. We are hoping the state will not destroy the beautiful picnic grounds as it is one of the beauty spots in the state. With the fish hatchery, a good park, all kinds of fishing and hunting, the hostelry of Log La Barre, and a prospective road to Cedar swamp Garfield is surely coming to the front.

Mrs. Earl Gunter entertained the Skip-a-club on Thursday. Those enjoying the afternoon were Messdames Downey, Dillinger, Coe, Weatherby, H. B. Davis and Wm. Schaffer.

Funeral services were held last Saturday from the chapel of the East side Funeral Directors on East Alder St., Portland. The Rev. R. A. Weld, an old friend of the family, formerly pastor of the Springwater Presbyterian church of which the deceased was a member, officiated and very touchingly spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family.

The consoling hymns "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me" were feelingly sung and the casket covered with most beautiful flowers. The interment took place in Mt. Scott cemetery by the side of her mother, who had preceded her daughter two years.

Besides her husband and little son, she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Edwin Strey of Chehalis, Wash., Florence and Adele of Gresham, her father J. E. Schenck and two brothers, John who is a student at Oxford college, Los Angeles, and Eddie who lives with his father at Gresham. As she was a member of Centennial Rebekah lodge and Mountain Chapter O. E. S. of Estacada, large delegations from both attended, besides other friends. Of a pleasing and lovable disposition, she was beloved by all who knew her. Her husband and little son have the deep sympathy of everybody in their bereavement.

W. C. T. U. Dinner
The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will serve a dinner in the basement of the M. E. church, on next Tuesday evening, Jan. 17, commencing at 6 o'clock. A good big delicious dinner for 40c. Everybody invited.

Obituary
Henry Willard Grable, a civil service employe of the U. S. government, employed at Portland, Oregon, died at his apartments on Tuesday, January 3, 1922. The deceased was 56 years of age. He was born in Hennepin, Illinois, November 8, 1866. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Nettie Grable of Springwater, and three sons, Clyde H. Grable of Portland, Harry A. Grable of Springwater and Guy C. Grable of Eagle Creek and his mother Mrs. Lydia Grable, three sisters and two brothers of Abaline, Kansas.

The funeral was held in Kenworthy's Chapel at Lents, Ore., on Thursday, Jan. 6, 1922. The deceased was a member of the I. O. O. F. No. 216, Portland, W. O. W. No. 805 Portland, Letter Carriers Assn. Portland, Golden Rule Encampment No. 28 Portland, Portland Union Degree Camp W. O. W. and Lents Grange, Lents, Oregon.

Prize Contest
As will be seen in our advertising columns, Manager Cleworth of the Family Theatre offers a prize of free admission to all shows until July 1st of this, for the best name in place of Family Theatre. One chance is given with each paid admission. The contest ends February 4.

THE WOOSTERS LEAVE ESTACADA

It will be with great regret, that the people of Estacada and vicinity will part with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wooster, who left to day for Portland. They have long been residents here, either in town or in Garfield where they formerly lived on a ranch. For the past few years, Mr. Wooster has been engaged in the real estate and insurance business, in which he was ably assisted by his wife. This business after having developed to very flattering proportions, he disposed recently to J. P. Woodie. He has always worked for the interests of Estacada and eastern Clackamas county, giving freely of his time for this purpose. In civic affairs he served as councilman and justice of the peace. Mrs. Wooster and her charming daughter, Miss Helen, who is a student at the O. A. C., have been active in church and social affairs, and will be greatly missed on all sides. The best wishes of everyone go with them, with the hope that prosperity may always accompany them.

Ernest Vallen of Portland, is at the home of his father, A. Vallen, for an indefinite time. His wife who is staying with Mrs. Harold Dorles, will join him as soon as Captain Dorles arrives home. His schooner, the Thisle, is already 20 days past due.

S. Lankins and family are moving to the W. Z. Hight home stead on Clear Creek.

School began Monday the 9th, after a month's vacation. Miss Nellie Vallen is substituting for Miss Claire Say who was operated on for appendicitis, December 10.

Ernest Vallen and sister, Miss Mellie, called on Mrs. Maltugg of Colton, Sunday.

Harry Bittner, wife and little son of Oregon City, were Sunday visitors at the home of Chris Bittner.

Rev. Fee of Portland, held services in the Barton school house Sunday evening.

Abe Gilbert of Oregon City, was inspecting the roads here Monday.

Our new teacher Mr. Carvey, is having good success with the school.

Mr. McMinn has a new truck.

Roadmaster George Forman was an Estacada visitor one day last week.

Miss Winona Lake was in Barton one day last week.

Mrs. Harvev Branson of Damascus was calling on Mrs. S. McCracken one day recently.

Attention Subscribers
Until February 4th we will take subscriptions for the OREGONIAN and the NEWS combined as follows by mail:

Daily Oregonian until November 1, ten months, $3.50 or combined with one year's subscription to the NEWS $4.50

Daily and Sunday Oregonian until November 1, ... $5.00 or with NEWS for one yr. $6.00

The above rates apply to renewals as well as new subscribers. Remember good only until February 4. Subscribe to-day.