

Concert at the M. E. Church

A concert by James Hoggard and wife will be given in the M. E. church, on Wednesday evening, January 25, beginning at 8 o'clock. The performers are blind and some highly recommended. Admission 35c, children 20c.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoggard were in town Wednesday morning and visited both schools where they gave a short program to the delight of the pupils. They were engaged by the government during the war to entertain the soldiers, both here and over seas. They are taking special interest in the crippled service men and try to show them by their example that they can still in a great measure, help themselves. There should be a full attendance, as the entertainment will not be only amusing but instructive as well.

H. H. Stallard, associate editor of the Producer's Call, the newly established paper at Oregon City, will lecture at the Eagle Creek Grange hall, Wednesday evening, January 25, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be, "The power of the press."

Mrs. Milt Marshall is reported among the sick this week, being threatened with pneumonia.

W. C. Thompson Tree Powder

Mr. Thompson tells me he has frequent inquiries for his tree powder in this district, I therefore take the occasion to inform the farming public that I am the agent for it in Clackamas county.

This is a remarkable product, guaranteed not only to give a superior fruit but a stronger and healthier tree. It is applied to the tree by boring a hole and inserting in the sap and is consequently more of a preventative than a cure as it gets at the root of the evil.

Mr. Thompson and daughter are both kept very busy in Portland doing up orders and handling the business end of it as they have several agents throughout the state who are quite successful.

In the near future Mr. Thompson will upon invitation visit O. A. C. to explain this very remarkable but simple product of his.

For further particulars see me at my place one half mile up the Garfield road or address

Buys Out Dr. McCall

After a survey of business conditions in Estacada and vicinity, Dr. and Mrs. C. K. Carey of Chicago have decided to locate here.

Dr. Carey comes here highly recommended, having spent two years at the New York hospital in post graduate work recently, besides holding an excellent record with the 114th Sanitary Train to which he was attached during the world war.

The doctor has purchased the office equipment and practice of Dr. McCall.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Carey will be estimable additions to the business and social life of our community and the NEWS joins in extending a hearty welcome to them.

Young Lady Arrives

At the home of R. G. Marchbank in Estacada, Monday morning, January 16, 1922, a much wanted young lady arrived to take up her abode with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Marchbank and their three sons. Her arrival was greeted with applause, and needless to say she has only to vociferate her demands and they will be promptly and joyfully complied with. There is no such enviable position as that of the only girl in a family of boys, unless it is a boy in a bevy of girls. We have been given to understand that the chief problem which is now puzzling the happy and proud parents is to find a name good enough for their daughter. The NEWS extends its warmest greetings to Miss Marchbank, and congratulations to her parents and brothers.

Stork Brings Girl

The stork who delivered a daughter at R. G. Marchbank's Monday morning, January 16, winged its flight afterwards toward Bissell arriving at the home of C. A. Johnson and leaving there at 10:30 that night, a daughter, weighing 7 3/4 pounds. This young lady was also the first girl in the family and has been named Vivian Alice. The stork should be much commended in thus making two families in this vicinity happy on the same day.

He had been reported killed in France. So the snobbish, romantic wife, who had fallen in love with his officer's uniform, thought herself a hero's widow. But he'd got by the footman and here he was, Citizen Sam McGinnis, in a brand new suit of "hand me downs," returned to claim his bride. What did he find? What did he do? You'll laugh, and think, and—Attaboy, Sam!
