The Estacada Hotel has an ad in this paper. W. F. Cary has the management of the rooms, and W. E. Hall of the dining room. Rates are reasonable both for the rooms and board. It is an especially nice place to spend a week end.

The dining room at the Hotel Estacada is now in operation.
We were in the kitchen Tuesday mornning and noted the modus operandi of Mr. and Mrs. Hall.
Everything was scrupulously clean and sanitary, while the pies which were in process of baking, were just like mother used to make.

BARTON ITEMS

Dr. H. V. Adix was called from Gresham to attend Mrs. C.
T. Whitehead who was very ill, also their little son George. At first it was thought to be pneumonia but proved to be very bad colds. They are just able to sit up in bed at latest reports. Mr. and Mrs. S. Lyon of Gresham, were called to her bedside one evening last week. Mr. Lyon is her brother.

Misses Esther and Mabel Erdman spent the week end at home also Mrs. Silver Irving and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irving of Boring were Sunday guests at the Erdman home at Deep Creek.

There was no school last Tuesday as the train was not on time.
The teacher, Mr. Carney, did not arrive in Barton until 11 o'clock Much credit is due Mrs. Johnson for her kindness to strangers at the recent Farm Bureau meeting held here. There should have been more farmers present.

School was dismissed so that the children could enjoy the pictures which were shown.

Abe Gilbert of Oregon City was in Barton Tuesday.

The Hamlet mill is running with just a day shift at present.

The only good road to Portland, which has stood the heavy truck traffic during this freezing and thawing weather, is the road from Barton to Carver.

The moonshiner who was taken to Oregon City lately, was let go on promising not to repeat the offense. He made confession implicating certain others.

Mrs. George Forman and baby have been on the sick list.

New Partner Takes Hold

C. A. Dykeman, who as was announced last week, has bought a half interest in the Estacada Feed Co., is a pleasant gentleman to meet. He was on the job some little time before the official announcement was made, but this having been done, he may now be regarded as fully installed as one of the firm. Not only in a commercial sense, but socially as well, he and wife will be acquisitions to our city. This business house has an enviable reputation, especially with the farm trade, to which it caters. It affords a market for much of what the farmers raise, and so naturally they trade where they sell. The senior member, U. S.
Morgan, was a farmer himself, and so understands their requirements. The newly reconstituted firm no doubt expects a banner year.

Pruning School

A pruning school under the direction of Mr. Long of the Extension Department of the Oregon Agricultural College, will be held at the farm of A. W. Bot-kin in Garfield, February 15th, commenting at 10 a. m.

The morning will be devoted to a discussion of the subject.
Everyone attending is asked to bring a lunch and make a day of it, as the afternoon will be devoted to pruning in some of the neighboring orchards.

This will be a splendid opportunity for the orchardists of this part of the county to get together and exchange ideas and gain a fuller knowledge of most approved methods of pruning.

The large acreage of prunes and apples in the county should insure a large attendance.

Bring the ladies and make a day of it.

The Currinsville ladies aid met at the home of Mrs. J. Looney, on Wednesday, February 1st.
An all day meeting was held, lunch was partaken of, and the time spent in doing plain sewing.

GARFIELD BREVITIES

Herbert Hussock and P. View of Portland, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O.
Botkin.

Mr. Moreland, manager of the Garfield fish hatchery, has rented the Ayers residence and has his family with him.

Walter Anderson and grandfather Mat Anderson, are confined to their beds with bad colds. A. C. has just recovered and is kept busy nursing.

Joe Golden has recently sold his homestead and has moved to the railroad camp.

Mrs. R. G. Palmateer was called to Fairview last week to take care of her daughter, Mrs.
Wills, who was severely burned from a gasoline lamp.

There will be services Sunday evening at Nora Memorial.
Every one is invited to attend.

Priscilla Club

An interesting event among the members of the Priscilla club was the meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Henry Githens at Currinsville. Members from town were taken out by W.
A. Wilcox in his splendid large Hudson, but the trip out and back was not the only delightful part of the day's pleasure. There were thirteen members and four visitors present and the hours passed too quickly for the ladies who were so delightfully entertained. The first thing on the program was dinner, and the guests found that the reputation the hostess has of being an adept in the culinary art, had not been exaggerated. After the feast the business part of the program was taken up and the following officers elected: President, Mrs.
Agnes Wilcox; vice-president, Mrs. May Lovell; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Minnie Currin. Following the election Mrs. Marie Heiple amused the club ladies for a short time by reading the minutes of some of the meetings held several years ago when she was secretary. Old memories were revived and reminiscencing of former days was indulged in until the time for departure.
Mrs. Clara Boyer will be hostess for the next meeting.

Legion Meeting

The meeting of the American Legion last Monday night, was of a social nature, guests being invited to attend. The program included songs by Mrs. Sam Barr, readings by Mrs. W. S. Davison, H. C. Stephens explained the soldiers' bonus; Upton H.
Gibbs made a plea to the Legion to exert its influence in upholding respect for constitutional law and authority and the Rev. A. F.
Lacey spoke earnestly and emphatically on law enforcement.
After the conclusion of the program a social time followed and refreshments were served by members of the legion. Dancing was also indulged in to a mild extent, and as the mayor and M. E. pastor were present, needless to say there could be no complaint about lack of sufficient and proper chaperonage.

ceived his appointment as regis-

DODGE NEWS

of the new management. James Smith who bought out Mr. Kerkes, sold a half interest to H. C.
Gohring of Harrison, Idaho, who has had a long experience in the business. They will maintain the reputation of this market for sanitary methods in slaughtering and handling meat. Mr. Goh-ring has moved into a house on Upper Zobrist St. belonging to C. N. Willard, and is accompanied by his wife and her parents.

R. E. Davis left Tuesday to take a position with the Milton Creek pole company near St.
Helens, Ore. He will probably work there all the summer.

Mrs. Harry Snyder has been sick with a bad cold this week and was confined to her bed for a few days.

LAI TO REST WITH TENDER CARE

A wave of sympathy swept over this community to the bereaved family, when Mrs. R. G.
Marchbank passed away last Saturday evening at 7:30. She had been in precarious health for a number of months, having undergone a serious operation last summer. Three weeks before her death, she gave birth to a baby daughter, for whom she had longed. It was hoped she would soon be herself again, but this was not to be, pneumonia set in, to which she fell a victim, in spite of the best medical skill and care.

The funeral service was held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the M. E. church, which was packed to its doors, many people not being able to gain admittance. Members of the I. O. O.
F. lodge in regalia acted as pall bearers. The service was conducted by the Rev. A. Demby, an old friend of the family, assisted by the pastor of the church, the Rev. A. F. Lacy. The sermon was full of consolation to the mourners, bidding them believe that this blow was for some good purpose, although it could not now be discerned. An affectionate tribute was paid Mrs. March-bank whom the speaker had known all her life. Many beautiful floral tokens were sent by friends as expressions of their love and sympathy.

The interment was in the I. O.
O. F. cemetery, under the direction of Joseph E. Gates, who saw that every detail was carried out in a reverential manner. The concluding rites were conducted by the Rebekah lodge to which Mrs. Marchbank belonged, according to the ritual of the order.

Mable Linn Marchbank was born in Currinsville, May 29th, 1891, her parents being Granville and Annie Linn. She was married to Robert G. Marchbank on August 4, 1908, and died February 4, 1922, being 30 years, 9 months and 5 days old. She leaves a family besides her husband, of four children, Robert aged 11, Floyd aged 9, Glen aged 7, and baby Mable June aged 3 weeks.

She had numerous relations, over 40 of whom attended her fu-eral. Those from outside this vicinity were Mrs. Mattie Cahill of Seaside, Mr. and Mrs. T. W.
Shankland of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shankland of Sellwood. Of Mr. Marchbank's relations who attended, from a distance were his brother James and wife of Hood River, his sister Mrs. Steve Washburn and husband of North Yakima, Wn., his niece Mrs. Gilbert Powers and her husband of Camas, Wn., his sister Mrs. Louis Tucker, her husband, son and daughter Mrs.
Foster of Silverton, Or. His mother who had made her home with him for several years, came over from Silverton where she had been staying with her daughter since the beginning of Mrs.
Marchbank's illness.

A party composed of the Misses Gertrude and Ruth Dillon, Mrs. Einerson, Mrs. Mae Reed and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Deming motored to Portland last Thursday evening to hear Alma Gluck sing, and her husband Efrum Zimbalist play. The concert was held in the auditorium.

Miss Mary Macho, the young lady living at the Pim home, cut off the end of two fingers on her left hand one day this week, while cutting kindling. The attending physician is not sure yet if the fingers can be saved or not.
