Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

Business men of Condon have organized a commercial club.

Marian Clark of North Bend was the first woman chosen in Coos county to serve on a circuit court jury.

The Scio high school student body has voted to "adopt" two orphans from the Armenian relief committee.

A total of 32 deaths of influenza in Portland during the month of February were reported to the city health office.

A building permit was taken out at Eugene by the Osburn Hotel company for the erection of a $70,000 apartment house.

Hood River hotels and restaurants report a great increase in business since the Columbia river highway was reopened.

The Scio Rod and Gun club has succeeded in organizing a game preserve just west of the city, comprising about 1100 acres.

Official announcement was made by the Asiatic-American Steamship company that Astoria is to be its terminal on the Columbia river.

Two million silverside eggs arrived at Astoria from the Alsea bay district and were taken to the Klaskanine river hatchery for hatching.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, and Miss Inez E.
Depew of Chicago, were married in the latter city last week.

Work has begun on the new fish hatchery financed by Wasco county sportsmen at Oak Springs, on the Deschutes river near Maupin.

Miss Grace M. Amos, widely known Oregon reform leader and prohibitionist, died at the Portland surgical hospital following a brief illness.

Prineville is suffering from an epidemic of colds and la grippe. More than 60 children are out of school and several of the teachers have been ill.

Logging camps in the lower Columbia district are resuming operations after a shutdown of several weeks.
This action follows the demand for fir logs by the mills.

Because of the shortage of feed and the cold and stormy weather of the past few weeks, ranchers of the Oakland section have suffered the loss of an unusual number of sheep and lambs.

The annual conference of the Northwest Missionary Prayer bands, which includes the territories of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, convened in Portland for a three days' session last week.

A $35,000 deal in horses was made known when James E. Smith of Bend announced that he had contracted the sale of 1000 head of range geldings from the Bill Brown stock ranch at Fife.

Approximately $375,000 will be spent by Marion county this year in improving its roads, according to announcement by the county court. The construction program includes 25 miles of paving.

The lumber shipments by water from the Columbia river during the month of February were heavy, especially to foreign ports, a total of 36,777,611 feet leaving for points across the sea in the 28 days.

The University of Oregon won a 2-to-1 decision at Eugene over the University of Washington debate team in one of the Oregon-Washington-Stanford contests for the Pacific coast championship.

Miss Williamene Fuller, 17-year-old student of Lincoln high school, was shot through the chest by an unidentified masked man or boy as she sang in the choir of St. Stephen's pro-cathedral in Portland.

Frances Green, 6 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Green of Springfield, died at Mercy hospital in Eugene as a result of injuries sustained when she was struck by a car driven by A. R. Gray, Eugene grocer.

Seven crates of Chinese pheasants were liberated on three Linn county game reserves by E. S. Hawker, district game warden. The birds are the first of a number of shipments to come to this county for propagation purposes.

The sinking of a 1000-foot shaft at an approximate cost of $150,000 for the development of the Ben Harrison mine in the Greenhorn mountains is planned by the Ben Harrison company, according to W. C. Fellows, manager of the mine.

underwent an operation for appendicitis, returned to her home on Friday, and at last reports is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Horner and family and Rosa B. Ten Eyck spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs.
Harold Horner at Springwater.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kaake and family spent Sunday at the G.
W. Keller home.

Dodge experienced another snow storm last week end, snow falling to the depth of six inches.

Mr. Reichle made a trip to Es-tacada on Monday.

SPRINGWATER NEWS

Mrs. T. P. McAuley enjoyed a visit for several days last week, from her father and sister, J. L.
Gentry and Miss Josie Gentry, from Lloydminster, Alberta, Canada.

Little Edward Shearer is suffering with whooping cough.

The Neighboring club was postponed until April 12, when it will meet at Mrs. Llewellyn's.

Mrs. Wiley Howell received 250 white Leghorn day old chicks from Corvallis, on Tuesday by parcel post.

The C. E. society will meet on Friday evening with Violet Baxter.

Mrs. Ethel Julian and two children are sick with the flu but are recovering.

Mrs. Wm. Still's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Masson, and grandma Boyce came out from Portland Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Sally Akens was taken to the Lovelace hospital Monday, with a severe attack of heart trouble.

The annual meeting of the ladies missionary society will be held in Portland March 22 and 23 and Mrs. Shearer and Mrs. Shil-ley have been appointed delegates from the Springwater society. The delegates will give a report at the special meeting on March 29. The regular meeting day has been changed to the 3rd Wednesday of the month.

Priscillas Meet

The March meeting of the Priscilla club was held last Thursday at the commodious home of Mrs. Clara Boyer at Currinsville. The twelve lady members present, when invited to the spacious dining room, thought that perhaps "Old Father Time" had slipped a few cogs and carried them over to Thanksgiving day, for the large twenty-one pound turkey which graced the prettily appointed and tastily arranged dining table, was sure a striking reminder of that great day which precedes Christmas and is so dear to all. Delicious fruit salad, vegetables, hot rolls and all the other "fix-in's" which accompany a regular turkey dinner, were included in the delicious repast and "topped off" with a dessert of angel food cake covered with bananas and two or three inches of whipped cream. Following the dinner was a social time and the regular order of club business. Mrs. Aggie Wilcox, as the new president, presided and in the absence of the secretary elect, Mrs. Minnie Currin, Mrs.
Hughes acted in that capacity.
It was voted by the club to contribute $5 to the fund for the Children's Farm Home, for the present, and the matter will be taken up again later. Club adjourning and Mrs. E. E. Erickson will be hostess for the next meeting in April.

and attention? Consult Dr. W.
W. Rhodes, Osteopathic physician and surgeon. 12-15tf

Mr. William G. Dunlap, attorney-at-law, of 1524 Yeon Bldg., Portland, announces that he has made arrangements to open a law office here. For the present he will make weekly visits on Saturdays, and can be found at the Woodle Realty Co.'s office.
He comes highly recommended as very efficient in his profession.

There is a merry war going on between different farm machinery companies on tractors. It is surprising the cuts that have been made from the former prices. It arouses a suspicion that the profits at the old quotations must have been considerable in spite of the high cost of material and labor. The farmers will view this war with favor and urge the participants to keep it up.

BARTON ITEMS

Jens Pederson made a trip to Gresham one day last week.

The Misses Adline and Eleanor Pederson visited with Edna and Ruby Bates Friday afternoon.

ter Neva went to Portland one day last week where Miss Neva is under medical treatment.

Mrs. W. E. Marlow and Mrs.
Jens Pederson called on Mrs. G.
Forman, Sunday afternoon, who is still confined to her bed.

Mrs. Hal Gibson and Mrs. Case called on Mrs. George Forman, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Larson's mother made a flying trip from The Dalles visiting about two hours, and returning over the highway, Sunday.

George Forman was in Oregon City on business, Saturday.

Birthday Party

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox yesterday evening, in honor of the latter, whose birthday it was. A pleasant time passed in playing cards, followed up with dainty refreshments.
Many presents, both ornamental and useful were given.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, were Mrs. C.
Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. C. E.
Kilgore, Mr. and Mrs. N. S.
McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald

U. Summer School

In its eighteenth annual summer term the University of Oregon will offer instruction both on the campus at Eugene and in the Portland Center. Dates for 1922 have been announced: At Eugene, June 21 to July 29; at Portland, June 19 to July 28.

At Eugene emphasis will be placed upon specialized, advanced and graduate courses.
At Portland courses of a more general character will be stressed. Registration fee is $12.50.
Catalogue, ready for mailing March 15th, may be obtained from Earl Kilpatrick, general director, Eugene, Oregon.

Living expense at the dormitories at Eugene during the summer term of the University of Oregon will be cheaper than last summer. Eight dollars per week will cover board and room; board alone will cost six dollars. Students wishing rooms outside the dormitories will be given every assistance by the University officers at Eugene and at Portland.
There are no dormitories at Portland.

American Red Cross

Judge John Barton Payne, Chairman of the American Red Cross, has made public a report to the Central Committee showing that during the calendar year 1921 the Red Cross spent $9,782,000 in assistance to disabled veterans of the World War. Of this sum $7,000,000 was disbursed by Red Cross chapters and the balance by the National organization.

DEATH CUTS SHORT PROMISING CAREER

Dr. Harry E. Morgan, after a short illness, passed away at his home in Roseburg at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, March 1, 1922, being in his 29th year.

He was born in Looking Glass, Oregon, April 10, 1893. At the age of 9 years he moved with his parents to Seattle, Wash., where they resided a number of years.
From there they moved to Montana and a little later to Yakima, Wash., where they resided a short time before coming to Estacada. He graduated from the local high school in 1913, after which he went to Portland where he attended the North Pacific Dental College for three years. He was married to Myrtle V. Woodle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodle, June 14, 1916, immediately afterward going to Wasco, Oregon, where he practiced dentistry four years.
From Wasco, with his family he moved to Roseburg, where they resided until his death.

He was an active member of the Alpha Lodge, No. 47, Knights of Pythias, also a member of the Masonic order and a member of the Presbyterian church of Roseburg. Besides a wife and little two-year-old daughter, Margaret Janet, he leaves a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Morgan and many sorrowing friends to mourn his loss.

He was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery at Roseburg, Oregon, the funeral services being conducted by the Masonic order.
The sympathy of this whole community goes out to his bereaved wife, child and parents.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincerest thanks to all the neighbors and friends for their beautiful floral gifts and their help and sympathy extended to us during the hours of our bereavement caused by the death of our beloved son and brother George.

FRANK T. FUCHS and Family.
