OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

Instruction and operating expense in the Bend schools averages $65 the pupil a year.

A realty board, made up of all real estate dealers in the city, was formed at The Dalles.

Half a ton of seed potatoes arrived in Oakland by parcel post from a grower at Gresham.

Because of the cold January weather the Umpqua valley broccoli crop is about two weeks late.

Joe Dhooche of Molalla will receive $100 in scalp bounties on four cougars which he has killed this year.

The annual jubilee of the Guernsey breeders of Oregon will be held in Tillamook county on June 13, 14 and 15.

No dance in Portland, wherein whites and negroes intermingle, will be tolerated by members of the city council.

Captain Leroy Hewitt has resigned as commander of Company F, Oregon national guard, with headquarters in Salem.

An election to vote bonds in the sum of $47,500 for a new high school building in Wallowa was carried by a vote of 71 to 5.

Frank Stephens, 65 years old, a farmer living near Hopewell, nine miles from Dayton, was killed while blasting stumps.

The Smith-Powers Logging company will open a camp in the vicinity of Sumner, 12 miles from Marshfield, within three weeks.

August Huckenstein leads the list of eligibles certified by the civil service commission for appointment to the postmastership at Salem.

Frank O. Northrup was recommended jointly by Senators McNary and Stanfield for appointment as receiver of the Portland land office.

Stocks of wheat remaining on farms in Oregon on March 1 are estimated at 2,675,000 bushels, according to a government report on farm reserves.

Jackson county now boasts of a professional dog catcher, whose services have been employed by Sheriff Terrill to help him enforce the state license dog tax law.

The Oregon Flax Fiber company's plant at Turner has been sold to the Willamette Valley Flax and Hemp Growers' association, with headquarters in Salem.

Eight tons of drug dispensary equipment arrived in Portland last week to be used by the United States Veterans' bureau for the benefit of disabled war veterans of the state.

The next postmaster of Halsey will be selected by popular vote of the patrons of the office. At least an election will be held soon to see who is to be recommended.

The state desert land board has approved the proposition of the Walker Bash Irrigation company for the sale of its rights in Crescent lake to the Tumalo Irrigation district.

The first pool for dried loganberries has been closed by the Willamette Valley Prune association on a basis of 27.17 cents a pound and checks have been mailed to members of the pool.

Contractors on the piers for the Oregon shore abutment of the Bridge of the Gods, to be constructed across the Columbia river just below the Cascade locks, soon will start pouring concrete for the piers.

Representatives of Sisters, Grange Hall, Bend, Tumalo, Metolius and the Redmond National Farm Loan association met recently at Redmond to start a drive for an appraiser to be stationed in central Oregon.

Fines imposed upon traffic violators due to the activities of state officers under the direction of T. H. Rafferty, chief inspector for the state motor vehicle department, during the month of February aggregated $1746.50.

H. L. Couper, a beach miner in southern Curry county, found killing a cow elk an expensive pastime, for he was sentenced to one year in the county jail when brought before Justice of the Peace Starr at Marshfield.

As a preventive measure against the spread of the influenza, which seems to be gaining a foothold in Toledo, Health Officer Burgess ordered the schools, churches, picture shows and other public meeting houses closed.

Abe Evans, slayer of James Doran of McMinnville, who recently was declared to be sane by physicians at the state hospital, has been returned to the penitentiary to await execution.
Evans' case is now on appeal to the supreme court.

Stockmen of the Tillamook valley have lost heavily by the cold weather of last January. The ranges, which are usually open during the winter were covered with snow for several weeks.

Snow at an average depth of 18 inches was encountered. As many stockmen had failed to provide hay for their stock there were a large percentage of loss.

Fort Orford cedar owned by the government probably will sell hereafter on the stump at $5 a thousand feet, according to R. S. Shelley, supervisor of the Sluslaw national forest. This is the highest price the government ever placed on standing timber, he said.

There was one fatality in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ending March 9, according to a report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victim was John Pierce, pitman, of Knappa. A total of 297 accidents were reported.

C. H. Gram of Portland has filed with the secretary of state his declaration of candidacy for the republican nomination for commissioner of labor and inspector of factories and workshops from the state at large. Mr.
Gram is the incumbent of the office.

Modification of the order of the California officials with relation to the importation of Oregon sheep into the former state has been granted, according to a letter received at the offices of Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian.
The new order becomes effective on March 11.

An initiative petition providing for the submission of the so-called single tax amendment to the constitution to the voters for ratification or rejection at the November election was filed in the offices of the secretary of state at Salem. This is the first initiative measure filed for this year's elections.

Four carloads of dried prunes from one orchard and valued at $32,000 were shipped out of Eugene for the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association. The shipment is billed to New York and will cross the water to Europe. These prunes were grown and evaporated on the 140-acre orchard of Dr. L. D. Scarborough at Creswell.

Less than 10 per cent of the 1921 fruit pack of Salem canneries remains in the hands of the packers, according to estimates of the various plants. The pack last year was 450,000 cases, and was said to be the largest in the history of the industry in Marion county.
The entire fruit pack of the state of Oregon in 1921 was 1,304,457 cases.

Plans and specifications for construction of a submarine and destroyer base at Astoria will be completed by April 1, Admiral Gregory, chief of the bureau of yards and docks in the navy department, has advised Representative McArthur. Admiral Gregory added that actual construction would be started as soon as the advertisement can be made and bids received for the work.

Carson D. (Pete) Beebe, who arrived at the state hospital at Salem a few days ago following his acquittal in the Linn county circuit court on grounds of insanity, of a charge of murdering John Painter, in a confession made to Dr. John C. Evans, a physician at the institution, admitted that he killed both Painter and his son William and buried their bodies in a shallow grave some distance from the Painter home.

Several measures now in the making are intended to be offered through the initiative in the November election.
Among the measures under discussion are a state income tax; a measure compelling all children between 6 and 15 to attend the public schools; a measure abolishing the present personnel of the public service commission and having commissioners appointed by the governor rather than elected as at present, and a measure whereby members of the legislature shall be elected by occupation, rather than by party.

Revival Meetings

Special meetings will begin at the Estacada M. E. Church, on Tuesday, March 21st. A. D.
George and wife, singing evangelists, will assist the pastor in leading these meetings. They are fine singers and good song leaders. All people are invited to attend these meetings.

Stork Deliveries

Tuesday, March 14, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Warren McWillis of Dodge, a daughter. Wednesday, March 15, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Perry Murphy of Douglass Ridge, a daughter. Dr. C. K.
Carey of Estacada, was in attendance at both cases.

Harold B. Robinson of Portland, representative of the West Coast Engraving Co. was in Es-tacada yesterday, and called at this office.

given for the benefit of the Rebekah lodge in the park pavilion.

Deserved Promotion

E. L. Meyers, for many years connected with the Traffic Department of the Portland Railway Light & Power Co., has been promoted from the position of traveling freight and passenger agent to the Investments Department. The position carries added responsibilities and has to do with the sales of the company's prior preference stock. "Roy," as he is known to all of us, has been with the company for 22 years and was the first agent in Estacada in 1903, later advancing through the upper channels to his present position.
He has always been a booster for this end of Clackamas county and we hope he will continue to help out along these lines.

Sad Fatality

John Smith of Dwyer's Camp, was accidentally killed by a falling tree, Wednesday morning.
Dr. Carey was called but arrived too late.

GARFIELD ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hartman of Ashland, were visitors at the C. S. Sandstone home last week.

We are glad to say that the Anderson family are on the road to Wellville. Mat Anderson is now with his daughter Mrs.
Johnson of Boring.

At the last meeting of Grange No. 317, the efficient manager of the Garfield hatchery, Mr. Moreland, gave a most enthusiastic talk on fish and told real fish stories.

Garfield Grange is growing and now is near the one hundred mark. The program committee is putting on a play this month to get funds for a piano.

Earl Tracy, teacher of the Porter school, is on the sick list this week.

Mrs. T. B. Young and Mrs. C.
V. Sandstone were hostesses for a silver tea on Thursday of last week, proceeds to be used for buying material to make quilts for the Children's Farm Home, under the auspices of the W. C.
T. U., at Corvallis. At the request of Mrs. W. R. Reid, vice-president of the Dorcas society, which in past years has done a splendid work under Mrs. A.
Whitcomb as president, that in memory of Mrs. Whitcomb the society be reorganized, a motion was made and carried that they reorganize with Mrs. Reid as acting president, to meet at her home on Wednesday, March 22. All former members and all who are interested in social and whatsoever may come their way in charitable work or otherwise to be done, are requested to be there at 2 p. m.

UPPER BARTON

W. P. Ferrel sold 22 head of hogs to a Portland butcher last week.

Albert Hangen killed four hogs Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Odell called on Miss Neva Loney Sunday afternoon.

Earl Odell made a business trip to Portland Monday.

Mrs. Jack Hoffman has been on the sick list.

W. P. Ferrel was in Estacada
Saturday.

Withdraws From Firm

Chester Dykeman has withdrawn from the firm of the Es-tacada Feed Co. and expects to leave shortly for Vancouver, Wn. where he has other connections.
He regrets very much that it is impossible for him to stay permanently in this community, as he believes Estacada has a big future, and his short stay here has been very pleasant.

Junior Play

The Juniors of the High School are not going to allow the Seniors to carry off all the histrionic honors. They are going to put on a play on Monday, March 27, and are busily engaged in rehearsing for it under the coaching of Prof. Einerson. It is a 3 act comedy entitled "The Masonic Ring" and deals with the woes of a jealous husband and his college bride, who wishes to give him a lesson. Tickets are on sale at Marchbank's confectionery. Next week full particulars and cast will be given. See the bills around town.

Notice

On Wednesday night, March 29, '22, Garfield Grange No. 317, will present "The Perplexing Situation", at Garfield Grange hall at 8 p. m. Come and learn how four women earned $75 by refraining from talking for one day. Adults 25c, children over ten 10c.

O. G. A. OFFICIALS ADDRESS E. P. CO.

The subscribers of stock in our local Packing Co. had a regular "get-together" meeting Tuesday night in the I. O. O. F. hall, and the occasion seemed to give inspiration and enthusiasm to all concerned in this highly commendable enterprise. C. J.
Pugh of Salem, who is superintendent of canneries for the Oregon Growers' Association, was the main speaker of the evening and gave a very interesting talk on the cannery industry and his personal experience along these lines, as he has been in the business for a number of years and seems to understand all the advantages and disadvantages of a company of this kind. He was very sanguine in his belief that the fruit growers of this section had a very bright future.

Earl Peary, also connected with the Oregon Growers' Association, was present and gave a short talk and answered very graciously the numerous questions asked. The plan of joining the Growers' Association was quite thoroughly discussed.
After the discussions, those taking stock in the Estacada Packing Co. Inc., were given an opportunity of paying the balance of their pledges and new members invited, to which there was a liberal response.

After the meeting proper closed President Weatherby ordered the doors locked so that not one of the large number of gentlemen and ladies present could get away, before partaking of the splendid lunch, which was prepared and served by the men.
Sociability and a good time followed.

W. O. W.

Eagle Creek Camp No. 539 met as usual last Thursday night with a large attendance. The camp has launched another campaign to end with a large initiation on the 6th of April, at which time the degree team from Arleta camp of Portland will attend to put on the work.

It was decided at the last meeting to divide the camp into two divisions for a contest during this campaign for new members, the losing side to banquet the entire camp at the Hotel Es-tacada. J. W. Miller and H. E.
Ross were chosen as the captains in the contest. It is hoped that there will be about thirty new members to initiate at the close of the campaign. The new members who have just come in are wide awake and sure they will be on the winning side.

Candidate for Senate

R. E. Cherrick of Merry Vale Farm, Barlow, Ore., announces he will run for the state senate from this county. As to his qualifications he claims to be a cool, level headed, honest and efficient, practical farmer. His platform contains the following planks:

Graduated income tax, reduction of seventy odd commissions to 7 to 10 paid men to handle it all. Reduce governor's salary and that of every state official to pre-war basis. Reduce fishing and hunting licenses one half, except to commercial fishermen.
Favor submitting measure to people to reduce millage for O. A. C. and U. of O. to about one half.
Cut out appropriations for Pacific International. Reduce state fair appropriations and make the receipts do it. Put state prison and boy's industrial school on a paying basis. A different sort of public service commission.
