grain and stock ranch, seven miles east of Haines, damaged ranch buildings and property to the extent of about $4000.

A fair for Union county is a possibility this year and in order to investigate the feasibility of the project a fair board has been appointed by the county court.

The board of regents scholarship offered by the agricultural department of the University of Wisconsin at Madison, Wis., was won by T. J. Flippin Jr. of Columbia county.

Farmers of the Delta Gardens, a tract comprising thousands of acres of diked Columbia river marshes adjoining Clatskanie, will give spinach-growing a thorough test this year.

Grange will Put on Play

On Wednesday night, March 29, '22, Garfield Grange No. 317, will present "The Perplexing Situation", at Garfield Grange hall at 8 p. m. Come and learn how four women earned $75 by refraining from talking for one day. Adults 25c, children over ten 10c, under ten free.

SNYNOPSIS

Mr. Middleton a miserly man offers his wife and daughters 75 dollars apiece, if they will refrain from talking for one whole day.
While many perplexing situations arise during the day, the women remain game and win the money. Music will be furnished by the Adlon trio.

The Inside of the Cup

This great photo play which will be shown at the Gem Theatre on Saturday and Sunday, is a picture of the highest class and one sure to please.

The story deals with real people who all alike will understand.
It has a strong theme that of practical Christianity. A real man in the city's most fashionable church, who worked for the real interests of human kind.

Obituary

William E. Dobson of Currins-ville, died March 13, 1922, in the T. B. Sanatorium at Portland, aged 52 years. He was buried in the Columbia cemetery, Portland, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias. He came to Currinsville a year or so ago, from Athena, in Eastern Oregon.
Shortly after his coming there, he suffered from a hemorrhage and tuberculosis set in. Besides his wife, Mrs. Lillian D. Dobson, he leaves a sister, Mrs. Upton A. Upton, to mourn his loss. He belonged also to the Estacada assembly of the United Artisans.

We are still selling the best Patent Flour at 15 cents per sack less than the present wholesale price at Rose's.

JUNIOR CLASS, E. H. S. TO PRESENT PLAY

If constant rehearsing will make a play a success, this will be the case Monday night, in the high school auditorium, when the Juniors will put on their play, "The Masonic Ring." Prof. Einerson has been diligently drilling those taking part several times a week, and they have all got their lines word perfect.
The play is replete with comical situations caused by the suspicions of a jealous husband, and the way in which his bride teaches him a lesson. The cast is following:

Roderick York, a jealous husband
..... Jose Gordon
Bartholomew Jeremiah Farebrother, a detective Theodore Howe Fred Hall, cousin to Mrs. Roderick York Clyde Davis
Mrs. Roderick York, (known as Flossie) a recent bride of three weeks,
..... Norma Randolph
Ethel Winn, chum of Flossie ..... Constance Richmond
Madame Winn, mother of Roderick ..... Nova Smith
Peace York, stern elderly sister of Roderick Susan Bowman Miss Delancey Jones, a deaf elderly friend of the family
..... Melba Harman Tildie McCormick, fourteen year old ward of Miss Delancey Jones
..... Pauline Rose to Gresham Sunday to take care of Mrs. Anna Full who is sick.

Our merchant, H. J. Hamlet, at Barton, has sold his interest in the Barton saw mill to a Se-attie man.

Everybody come to the Barton Literary society Friday night, March 24, and enjoy a good time.

Meeting for Women Only

There will be a meeting for women only at the M. E. Church next Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by Mrs. A. D. George of Indianapolis, Indiana, and the subject will be "WHY GIRLS GO WRONG?" Girls under twelve years of age will not be admitted.
There will be a rousing song service and a duet by Mr. and Mrs.
George. All women and girls over twelve years of age are most cordially invited. High School girls are especially urged to attend as Mrs. George has some things to say of special interest to them.

The big "Booster" program will be given next Tuesday night at 7:30 sharp. This program will be given by a large chorus of boys and girls now under instruction of the Georges. Do not miss it, admission free.

Growers Association

An important meeting for the Estacada Sub-district of the Association will be held on Saturday, March 25th, in the lobby of the Estacada Hotel, at 2 p. m.

A director for the Clackamas Co. district is to be nominated and a local advisory committee elected. A full attendance is desired.
