OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Infor- mation of Our Readers.

Umatilla county Legion posts will organize a county council in Pendleton on April 14.

The Sweet Home and Foster public schools were closed last week on account of influenza.

Thirty-five school teachers of northern Deschutes county attended the recent teachers' institute held at the Redmond union high school.

Approximately $3,000,000 of the so-called soldiers' bonus bonds sold recently to a Portland bidder will be delivered to the purchaser April 1.

The Oregon Export Lumber company at Coquille has made a satisfactory adjustment of its affairs with its creditors and will start operations in a few days.

Hood River orchardists, according to data gathered from dealers in implements, will spend approximately $25,- 000 in the purchase of new high-powered spray rigs.

It is said that the residents of West Salem probably will abandon their recent efforts to obtain a postoffice which will require the renaming of the municipality.

Fred A. Williams, after serving more than three years as a member of the Oregon public service commission, has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Lawrence Stafford, an employe at the Hammond Lumber company's mill in Astoria, committed suicide at his home by shooting himself in the left temple with a revolver.

Small shipments of gold are being received almost daily by the First National bank of Grants Pass, the largest of these since the first of the year weighing nearly 60 ounces.

A. W. Sims, 63, a member of the city council, county road appraiser and appraiser for Lane county for the Veterans' state aid commission, died last week at his home in Eugene.

In anticipation of increased business for the coming season, the Producers' Canning & Packing company at Salem will begin work immediately on a $2500 addition to the plant.

Fire of undetermined origin swept through the Olympic cereal mill of the Portland Flouring Mills company in Portland, and caused damage estimated at approximately $250,000.

Dr. W. H. Lyle, state veterinarian, reports that the appropriation authorized by the 1921 legislature for indentifying owners of cattle killed because of tuberculosis has been exhausted.

The tug Sea Rover, for which the Port of Coos Bay has been paying a rental of $25,200 a year, has been sold by the navy to the Crowley Launch company of San Francisco for $23,700.

The Shell Oil company of California has sent to the secretary of state a check for $3177.17, representing the tax on the corporation's sales of gasoline and distillate in Oregon in February.

Because of the small amount of forage available, the opening date of the grazing season on the Five Mile cattle range of the Umatilla national forest has been changed from May 1 to May 15.

New Books

Through the generosity of Mrs. W. J. Moore, president of the Library Association, seventy new volumes were placed on the shelves this week, to the delight of the many patrons. They consist of historical, religious and fiction books. The library is still a very popular institution in our little city and now contains nearly 1200 volumes. Donations of good books are always very acceptable. An interesting copy of the "History of Oregon" was recently presented by Mrs. J.
R. Hughes. If you are not a member of the Library Association, now is a very good time to join.
Nina B. Ecker,
Librarian.

Barton Dance

There will be a big mask ball at Barton, on Saturday night, April 1st. Everybody is invited, tickets $1.00.

If it is to be painted Pointer can do it right. Prices consistent with good work. 3-9tf

UPPER BARTON

Mr. and Mrs. A. Horger and Mrs. John Hoffman went to Portland, Friday.

Last Wednesday a surprise party was sprung on Maudie Ferrel, as it was her birthday. Fourteen were present and the evening was passed with music and cards. At midnight a delicious lunch was served.

Miss Jessie Odell called on Maudie and Edith Ferrel, Saturday afternoon.

C. A. Looney and William Stone were visitors at the Ferrel home Sunday.

Rebekah Convention

There was a good representation of the local order of Rebekahs to the 16th annual district convention in Oregon City last Saturday. Mrs. Nellie Currin was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Cordelia Carter was outside guard, both from the Estacada lodge. The next meeting is to be held at Milwaukie in the early part of 1923. Mrs.
Mary Eshleman was elected secretary for this meeting and The Estacada Rebekah lodge also received commendation for its fraternal work. Those attending from this place were, Mesdames Elva Ahlberg, Nellie Currin, Cordelia Carter, Rose Wilcox, Mary Eshleman, Mae Kitching, Susie Kitching, Lydia McConnell, Clara Boyer, Mary Posson and Elsie Fuller.

For State Treasurer

Senator Thomas F. Ryan of Oregon City announces his candidacy for nomination as state treasurer in the state primaries.
He states: "Many friends have requested me to announce my candidacy and views regarding retrenchment, and complying with their wishes, and believing that it is only right and proper that I make this announcement in my home county first, so that the friends that have been so loyal in the past year may be appreciated of my position.

"I shall be a candidate for the republican nomination as state treasurer, and in the near future will submit to the public a platform embodying what I shall advocate and endeavor to promote.

"While I was born in Rhode-island I came to this county in early manhood, and all that I have, all that I ever expect to have is here, and if elected as a state officer, I pledge you, fellow citizens of Clackamas county, that I will not perform or sanction any action that will bring reproach or discredit, and will devote all my time, ability and knowledge in the promotion of our beloved Oregon."

Children's Concert

The concert given Tuesday evening at the Methodist church, by the children of the town, under Mr. and Mrs. A. D. George, was a decided success. Special mention should be made of solos by Louis Smith, Lillian Bass and a reading by Edith De Moy. Clara Shearer made a splendid yell leader. Mr. and Mrs.
George are certainly capable instructors.

Wanted a Name

"A rose by any other name would smell as sweet," but yet a catchy name is a good business asset. Hauser & Linn are making a new development in their restaurant business, and want an appropriate name which will be a business getter. They solicit your help and will give you one of their delicious cakes of their own baking if you send in the name they select.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton were out from Portland to spend the week end with relatives here.

Mrs. C. W. Strickland of Gladstone, was a week end guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. B.
O. Sarver.

The P. M. Wagner house has been remodelled inside and painted, improving much its appearance.

Lorin Ellis of Portland, was a visitor under the parental roof in Estacada Saturday night and Sunday.

N. S. McMillen and family left Estacada the first of the week, for Roseburg where they expect to make their home.

Dr. and Mrs. Will Dale of Portland, were Sunday guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dale.

Mrs. W. A. Wilcox entertained her mother, Mrs. George Currin of Gresham, this week, also Mrs.
Benefield and daughter, Mrs.
Blanch Davis, of Wasco, Ore.

Remember April 5th is the last day to pay the first installment of taxes, with privilege of paying the balance six months hence without penalty.

Mr. and Phil Standish left yesterday for Newberg, where Mr.
Standish will resume his position as fruit buyer for the Oregon Canning Co. of that place.

Mrs. P. H. Batin and daughter Elaine, arrived Monday, from Portland, and went out to the P.
F. Standish ranch in Garfield, the house on which they have leased.

You have a chance to win a 5 pound cake. Look up the ad of Hauser & Linn and find out.

Mrs. C. M. Chambers left last Saturday for Seattle, where she will visit for a few days, after which she will go to Tennessee.
Mr. and Mrs. Chambers have been living at the Estacada hotel for about two years.

You should come to the Methodist church and hear the Georges. They are very fine leaders of song. Their solo work is especially good, and Mr. George is besides a very able preacher.

Mrs. V. W. Hauser entertained last night in honor of Fay Dunseath who has been in Estacada with his mother visiting for the past week, and who will leave soon for their home in Seattle.
Those present were Alice Kilgore, La Vera Grabeel, Hugh Wallace, J. Fay Dunseath, Gordon and Mary Louise Hauser.
Light refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Obituary

Edward Walter Jochimsen of Dodge, died March 25, 1922, after an illness of some two weeks starting with an attack of flu.
He was born at Hood River, on August 22, 1884, so he was 37 years, 7 months, and 3 days old at the time of his death. On March 20, 1907, he was married to Miss Laura L. Rowe of Vancouver, Wash., and in the fall moved on to his farm 7 miles S.
E. of Estacada. He leaves a widow, three children, a mother, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss. The funeral services were held at the Springwater church, Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. V. A. Weir officiating.
The interment was in the Springwater cemetery under the direction of Joseph E. Gates of Estacada.

DODGE NEWS

On Saturday last Dodge suffered the loss of a most valuable citizen and neighbor in the person of E. W. Jochimsen, who passed away after one week's illness. It would be impossible to speak too highly of him as a man of kindly disposition and a helper in time of need. The loss will be keenly felt by many, and our hearts go out in sympathy to his widow and children in their bereavement. The Community club sent a beautiful floral wreath.

J. W. Marrs and daughter Mamie are recovering from an attack of the flu.

On Sunday evening, March 26, a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson. Both mother and baby are doing nicely.

Charles Colson's nephew is visiting at the Colson home.

BARTON ITEMS

Louis Rivers came near having a serious loss Sunday at 5 p. m.
Just as they were ready to sit down to dinner, Mrs. Rivers thought she heard a fire burning.
She ran part way up stairs and discovered the house on fire. It was put out by quick work as soon as the word reached the store, where there was a good supply of men. The roof was damaged to the extent of requiring reshingling.

Mr. and Mrs. Jens Pederson, who run a poultry ranch, made a trip to Gresham to deliver eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and Miss Jennie, of Eagle Creek, called on Mrs. George Forman recently.

Mrs. Hal Gibson called on Mrs.
Louis Rivers one day last week.

Mrs. George Forman is still confined in bed with sciatic rheumatism and seems to be very slow in improving.

The literary society met last Friday night the 24th John Beattie gave an interesting talk on the millage tax appropriation to the O. A. C. He also praised the people of Barton for conducting a literary and debating society, remarking that if all neighborhoods would do the same there would be less Russianism. A program was then given by Alonzo and Ernest Miller, who afterwards chose sides and conducted an old fashioned spelling match. Mrs. George Turner proved to be the champion speller. The question for debate on Friday, April 7, will be: "Resolved, that the millage tax appropriation for the Agricultural College be reduced 25 percent." Everybody come.

H. F. Gibson is improving his farm very much by building a new wire fence around it.

Barton is losing one of its good families, as C. E. Loney is going to move to Bellingham, Washington.

E. H. Gibson took advantage of the good weather Sunday to drill in some grain.

Garfield Grange No. 317

The regular monthly meeting of Garfield Grange No. 317 will be held at their hall in Garfield, on Saturday, April 1. The 20th anniversary of the Grange will be celebrated at this meeting.
All members and charter members are urged to attend. The morning session will begin at 10:30. Dinner at noon. A program will be given during the lecture hour.

Will Repeat Play

The Junior class will give the "Masonic Ring" at Logan Hall to-morrow, Friday night. Admission 25 cents.

THE MASONIC RING MAKES A BIG HIT

We have attended many school plays but were never more pleasantly impressed than at the one given by the Junior Class Monday night. "The Masonic Ring" was a play well within the abilities of the performers, and from first to last the various scenes went smoothly. The different make ups were remarkably good, both as regards the girls and the boys.

Jose Gordon who took the leading male part, was perfectly at home in the role of a jealous husband, with no trace of nervouness. Fred Davis had an enviable part to which he did justice, though he was rather too restrained when pressing his suit behind the trunk in the last act.
Ted Howe as the par-boiled detective, would not have been recognized in his make-up, if it had not been for his voice. He made a typical sleuth of the correspondence school type, but he should have had a briar pipe in his mouth like Sherlock Holmes. His ferocious blood hound is entitled to honorable mention for it took its part seriously.

But if the boys did well, the girls certainly rose to the occasion. Nova Smith was a most dignified matron, Melba Harmon as the deaf, elderly spinster kept the audience laughing with her misunderstandings of what was said to her, while Susan Bowman flounced around as snappy as a turtle in accordance with her part. The other three girls were charming in their roles. Pauline Rose, saucy and debonnaire, delighted in teasing the poor bridegroom. Norma Randolph made a beautiful bride whose charms were attractively set off by exquisite costumes and marcelled coiffure. Constance Richmond, her college chum, looked as attractively petite and mignonne as Marguerite Clark the screen star. These two girls made excellent foils to each other in actions and looks. They suggested to us the lines: "How happy could I be with either, Were t'other dear charmer away!"

Before the commencement of the play the boys glee club sang a couple of songs, and Miss Nova Smith played between the acts.

Fruitgrowers Attention

Clayton L. Long of the O. A.
C. extension department, will hold the second of his meetings for this district, at Garfield Grange hall on Wednesday afternoon, April 5, at 1:30. The subjects of Pest Control and Soil Management will feature this meeting. Free movie at 7:30 p. m. following the meeting announced above at the same place. Arrangements have been made with County Agent Holt to show two or three of the latest Federal films. These are particularly good films and everyone is cordially invited.

For Men Only

There will be a meeting for men and boys over fourteen, at the Methodist Church next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
The address will be delivered by the evangelist, A. D. George. Men this is a rare opportunity for you to hear your problems discussed by a man of Mr. George's experience, on the subject: "From Bartender to Evangelist."

Christian Church

E. S. Atchley of Portland, will preach at 11 a. m. Bible School at 10 o'clock.
