President's Proclamation

WHEREAS, the protection and perpetuation of our forests are vital to our individual health, comfort and prosperity, and

WHEREAS, a period of fifty years has past since in April eighteen hundred and seventy-two there was instituted in the State of Nebraska observance of a day especially set apart and consecrated for tree planting and known as Arbor day, and

WHEREAS, both through wide-spread annual celebration of Ar-bor day and through the increas-ing observance of Forest Protec-tion week public attention has been commendably directed to the value of trees, the unneces-sary waste of our diminishing forests through preventable fires, the deplorable effects of forest devastation and the need for re-medial measures against deple-tion of an essential natural re-source,

THEREFORE, I, Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, do urge upon the govern-ors of the various states] to de-signate and set apart the week of April sixteen-twenty-two, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, as Forest Protection week, and the last day of that week, April twenty-two, as the golden anniversary of Arbor day, and to request officers of public in-struction of counties, cities and towns and of civic and commer-cial organizations to unite in thought and action for the pre-servation of our common heri-tage by planning such educa-tional and instructive exercises as shall bring before the people the disastrous effects of the pres-ent waste by forest fires and the need of individual and collective effort to conserve the forests and increase our tree growth for orna-ment and use,

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

WARREN G. HARDING,
President.

Lodge Wins Cup

A large delegation of Odd Fel-lows and Rebekahs from Estaca-da attended the third semi-annu-al Clackamas county I. O. O. F. and Rebekah district convention which met last Saturday at Gresham. In the drill contest the Estacada lodge was the vic-tor. The Gresham Outlook thus describes the ceremony of the presentation of the prize:

The ceremony of presenting the cup to the captain of the Estacada team was a part of the evening program. Judge Thom-as F. Ryan, past grand master of Oregon City, delivered an ap-propriate address and went thru the ceremony of presenting the cup in spite of the fact that the cup was not brought to the con-vention. It will be given to the Estacada team at the next meet-ing. Judge Ryan laughingly pronounced the team to be "nine-ty-nine and seven-eighths per cent perfect." The trophy is to be the prop erty of this lodge for one year.
