

LOWER EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. Douglass went to Stamford last Wednesday to attend the funeral of a friend.

Ronald Burnett had a relapse of the mumps but is now recovering.

Elnore Gavenett of Barton is helping Mrs. W. G. Glover while the latter is recovering from her recent illness.

The funeral of Mrs. Jim Anderson was held at the Eagle Creek church last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Trullinger and daughter Corinne were calling on Mrs. Allsbaugh of Currinsville last Friday afternoon.

The great menace to the forest is fire, which destroys the timber, dries up the streams, drives away wild life, and leaves in its wake ruin and desolation.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Miss Mary Whiting of Garfield, who had been visiting friends in Portland for a week or two, returned home Friday afternoon.

W. F. Harris the genial county commissioner, of Beaver Creek, was in town yesterday, in the interest of his campaign for reelection, and called at this office.

We still have some of those Ladies' and children's white shoes at $1.00 per pair. The size run is broken, but big bargains for those who can find their size their size at Rose's.

George Pointer is busy painting signs, the new ones at the Pharmacy and the Silver Star restaurant are his work.

The 8:25 train Saturday morning was delayed a few minutes owing to a hot box on one of the rear wheels. The fire hose was got out and turned on the axle until it was sufficiently cooled off.

The film shown at the High School auditorium on "How Life Begins," under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association, was well attended Monday night. The pictures were instructive and presented the subject in a manner to which no possible objection could be taken.

We are not satisfied unless you are. The Square Deal Twins.

GEM THEATRE

To-Night
Dorothy GishIN
"THE GHOST IN THE GARRET"

The house was haunted! 'Twas roudyvoov of murderous cut-throats, guarding pilfered pearls worth $80,000.98, and Delsie O'Dell, accused of their theft, was out to recover the loot!

With her parrot that swore in three octaves, and a bull dog bred of a tractor truck and original sin, she'll shake your spine with shivers and double you up with fun.
