THE WINCHESTER STORE
AN OBJECT LESSON IN PRICES
 was given in Estacada and vicinity when a salesman from a Portland company that handles roof paint canvassed the town and country offering a "standard" roof paint at the "special wholesale price" of $1.25 per gallon.
 The SMITH HARDWARE CO. have had a far better roof paint on sale for 80c per gallon. Similar things are happening all the time. We are trying to visit our customers but we cannot be everywhere at once.
 Come in and get our figures, or drop us a post card, or phone, and we will call on you.
