Mother's Day

Mother's Day occurs Sunday, and will be duly observed in the churches. The custom has been to wear a white carnation if one's mother is dead, or a pink or red one if she is living. This has caused such a run on carnations that it has been impossible to supply the demand. To relieve the situation and also to prevent the excessive rise in prices for carnations, people are asked to use their mothers' favorite flowers as substitutes.

Tributes to Motherhood

A mother is a mother still,
The holiest thing alive.
—Coleridge.

Mother is the name for God in the lips and hearts of little chil-den.—Thackeray.

In the heavens above,
The angels, whispering to one another,
Can find, among their burning terms of love,
None so devotional as that of
"mother."—Poe.

Logging Operations to Commence

The Oregon Journal states that logging operations on a tract of 6300 acres of timber land five miles east of Cazadero will begin at an early date, according to announcement made by officials of the Union Lumber Company of New Orleans, owner of the tract. The company is represented in Portland by J. H.
Weston of Logtown, Mississippi, and L. N. Dantzler of Mosspoint, Mississippi. The company purchased the tract about 12 years ago and last year contracted with the P. R. L. & P. company to extend its line five miles into the timber.

According to Dantzler it is proposed to take out 400,000,000 feet of logs and sell them to Portland mills. The New Orleans company had no intention of engaging in the manufacture of lumber in Oregon, Dantzler stated.

Modern Priscillas

Mrs. Fred Bartholomew dispensed hospitality to the members of the Priscilla club at her pretty home on the Boulevard last Thursday. Crocheting seemed to be the main diversion until dinner was announced.

The prettily arranged table had as a center piece a bowl of pansies, for-get-me-nots, candytuff and wild currant. Other spring blossoms were effectively distributed throughout the rooms, and a bright fire in the fireplace threw out its radiance, the cheer and comfort, contrasting greatly with the elements outside. The hostess was ably assisted in serving the splendid menu by Mesdames Jennie Saling, Argie Wilcox and W. A. Forbes. After partaking of this delightful repast, a short time was spent in visiting, and then the president teen members responded to roll call. Two visitors were present,
