HONOR THE BRAVE

The day for the Nation's tribute to the dead who fought in its defense draws near. It is fitting that it should be attended with solemn but simple ceremony, for pomp and display are out of place in the presence of death.

Those whose memories are to be honored represent service, which is a homely virtue appearing in an austere guise, although all glorious within, and so the commemoration should be of like character, plain but indicative of sincerity and heartfelt gratitude.

But whatever plaudits may rise from our lips, whatever ceremonial tributes we may pay them, these will be empty vanities unless we pay our debt to them in a more substantial manner.

HOFF'S VICTORY

One of the surprises in the recent election was the victory of O. P. Hoff for state treasurer over his opponent, T. F. Ryan, as the latter had the strongest newspaper backing.

We are glad to see that the paper read by Bro. St. Clair, of the Gresham Outlook, on the "Semi-Weekly and Weekly Compared," which he read at the editorial convention at Eugene, last December, has been printed in the May number of the PACIFIC PRINTER AND PUBLISHER.

The result of the primary election indicates there will be a hot time next November and for some weeks previously.

REGRET RECALL

The recall of the Public Service Commissioners was successful, which is to be regretted. The recall is a dangerous remedy and we are in favor of it being recalled.

Governor Olcott has won the nomination after a very close run, by some 300 votes. Probably a recount will be demanded and the total may be changed somewhat but not materially.

Regulating Sale of Pocket Pistols

No. 9671—Unlawful to sell revolver to person without permit. It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to display for sale at retail any pocket pistol or revolver or to sell at retail, barter, or give away, or dispose of the same to any person whomsoever, excepting a policeman, member of the militia or peace officer of the state of Oregon, unless the purchaser or person attempting to procure the same shall have a permit for the purpose of procuring such pocket pistol or revolver signed by the municipal judge or city recorder of the city, or county judge or a justice of the peace of the county wherein such person resides. (L. 1913, c. 256 No. 2.)

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE XXIX.—IOWA

THE State of Iowa was originally occupied by the Iowa Indians. The actual meaning of the word has been interpreted in several ways. Some say it means "beautiful land," but the more likely derivation is the Algonquin word "ajaw" which means "across" or "beyond."

The first settlement was made by a French Canadian named Julien Dubuque. He obtained in 1788 a large grant of land from the Indians, where the city which was named after him now stands. Here he flourished, mining lead and trading with the Indians, until his death in 1810, when this settlement was given up.

With the acquisition of the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, Iowa, which was a part of this huge territory, came into the hands of the United States from France. At first Iowa was a part of the Louisiana territory, then of Missouri territory. Later it formed a portion of Michigan territory and then of Wisconsin territory. In 1838, however, it attained a distinct individuality when it was formed into the Iowa territory.

Pioneers soon came in large numbers and about 1832 a substantial settlement was made near Burlington, and Dubuque was founded in 1833. The population grew so rapidly that in 1846 Iowa was admitted as the twenty-ninth state of the Union. Its area is 56,147 square miles and it has thirteen presidential electoral votes.

Iowa is familiarly called the Hawkeye State. (By McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)
