County Treasurer Resigns

W. W. Everhart, former cashier of the First National Bank of Molalla and ex-county assessor was sworn in as county treasurer Friday morning, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Alberta Dunn.

Miss Dunn's resignation was caused by the fact that for the past few months her health had been failing. She has been able to attend the office only about half of the time. Although she is slowly recovering she felt that she could not continue to carry the responsibilities under the present conditions.

Miss Dunn commenced her work in the county treasurer's office in 1915 as a deputy under her father, M. E. Dunn, who was county treasurer at that time. In 1917 her father resigned and she was named his successor to fill the unexpired term. At the following election she was elected treasurer by the largest majority given any candidate on the ticket.

Mr. Everhart served as county assessor in 1917 and part of 1918, resigning that office to become cashier of the First National Bank at Molalla. Several months ago he resigned as cashier of the bank to devote his time to his farming interests.

The voters will name a regular treasurer at the Fall election. —Oregon City Enterprise

Coming

On Sunday June 18, a great treat for all music lovers will be given in the M. E. Church, in the evening. The Colton Oratorio Society will then render "The Holy City." This choir is made up mostly of those of Swedish extraction, and all Swedes are natural born singers. The full program will be given next week. Admission will be free but an offering will be taken up.

Pioneer Semi-Centennial

The Oregon Pioneer Association will celebrate its semi-centennial in the Public Auditorium at Portland, a week from to-day, June 15. An appropriate program has been drawn up, which will begin at 2 p. m. sharp.

Hotel Dining Hall Changes Hands

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hall, who have been running the Estacada hotel dining room for some months past, have given it up and will move to their ranch near town. The new management is under Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hogan, formerly of Gladstone, the son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Page of this place.

Fine Furniture

That Estacada has a firm of first class cabinet makers, is indicated by the seats and tables in the ice cream parlor of Hauser & Linn. These were manufactured by Coop and Sagner, of Oregon fir in mission style, and beautifully stained.

GOV'T. INSURANCE FOR SERVICE MEN

For the purpose of having every ex-service man in Estacada, protected by government insurance, an intensive drive to secure applications for veterans' insurance amounting to at least $50,000 will be held there June 12 to 17 inclusive, according to Kenneth L. Cooper, manager of the U. S. Veterans' Bureau, of Portland. This amount, if secured, will help swell the state's insurance total, the goal to be striven for being $2,000,000, he stated. The campaign is limited to the Pacific Northwest district of the Veterans' Bureau and it is expected that more than $5,000,000 in war risk insurance will be reinstated or converted by veterans during the week beginning June 12.

American Legion posts throughout the entire District are planning to cooperate actively in making the drive a success. Norman W. Engle of Seattle, Northwest representative of the national organization of the Legion has sent communications to many of the posts urging them to form drive committees to help carry on the campaign. He stated that service men of Estacada may make application for the government insurance either through the local post and the state department of the Legion, or the U. S. Veterans' bureau in Portland.

The Old Peabody Pew

The M. E. Church was well filled last Monday evening by an appreciative audience, to see the play based on Kate Douglass Wiggins' well known story, "The Old Peabody Pew." The ladies who took part did exceedingly well, as all they had to do was to be natural, and act as they would in the ordinary meetings of the Ladies Aid. It was a piece of deep human interest, and contained those homely touches which always appeal to the heart. The costumes took one back to mid-Victorian times and one wonders how ladies could endure those long trailing skirts of yester-years, which now would be pronounced so unsanitary, because of sweeping up germs and dust from the floor. Then the styles, how times and tastes have changed. Then they were considered the acme of elegance, but now we query how women could thus disguise themselves. But it must be said that there was a certain dignity about them which was lacking from the much abbreviated and scanty costumes which were prevalent a year or two ago, but are gradually again being modified.

Those taking part were Mesdames J. G. Hyman, Mendelhall, A. F. Lacy, C. J. Pim, Gerald Wilcox, W. E. Linn, O. E. Smith and C. S. Allen. Miss Anna Dillon took the only male part most creditably. Mrs. Mae Reed read the prologue at the beginning and between acts, and Mrs. R. J. Hughes was prompter.

Currinsville Ladies' Aid

The Currinsville Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Albert Kitching on June 7. There were twelve members and four visitors present and music and dainty refreshments were enjoyed by all. It was planned to give a chicken Tamale Supper on June 16, in aid of the Estacada M. E. church, in the Currinsville school house.
