"Millions Now Living Will Never Die"--Judge Rutherford

There is a special significance in the troublous days through which the world has passed since 1914.

Out of these events will come greater developments, involving all nations and peoples.

The Bible accurately foretold present conditions.

Its prophecies regarding the future will be fulfilled with equal exactness.

The outstanding hope held forth in the Scriptures is the hope of eternal life, and the realization of this hope is now at hand.

It will be accompanied by all that the heart has longed for—health, peace and happiness.

God's purpose in giving man a revelation of His Plan was that mankind should use it, understand it, and appreciate the principles it sets forth.

An understanding of the Bible broadens one's view and inspires cheerfulness and optimism. Prophets of old have described with glowing tongue the glories of the bright day that is now dawning.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kiggins have moved into the house at the corner of Fifth and Upper Broadway, opposite the Bland house.

An English paper received Monday, had illustrations showing the damage done by a terrific hail storm which only lasted fifteen minutes. But in that time an enormous quantity of rain fell which flooded a large area. The chief destruction was wrought by hailstones, some of which were two and a half inches in length and four to five inches in circumference. Iron roofs were riddled as if by machine guns. One picture showed a pile of hailstones estimated as weighing twelve tons which had been shoveled out of a basement kitchen.
